Switzerland Offers To Try For Viet Peace

Ky Says To Win Allies Must Invade The North

BERN (UPI) — Switzerland and North Vietnam spoke of peace here today, while in the war area itself South Vietnam spoke of invading the north and air and ground fighting.

Switzerland today offered its good services to help bring a peaceful end to the Vietnam war.

At the same time, North Vietnam told Switzerland it is still prepared to enter into negotiations if there is an unconditional halt to the bombing of the north.

TWO PLEDGES

The two pledges were contained in a communique issued by the Swiss government at the end of a four-day visit by North Vietnamese emissary Mai Van Bo, his country's representative to Paris.

Well-informed sources said Bo indicated that Hanoi believes there can be no peace negotiations before the U.S. presidential elections, however.

Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky of South Vietnam said today that if the allies want to win the war they should invade North Vietnam.

But Ky said invasions of North Vietnam, Laos or Cambodia were "really against the policy of the Vietnamese government for the time being."

Ky has often said invading the north was the only way to a sure victory.

Ky made his remarks aboard the carrier Kitty Hawk after presenting South Vietnamese military awards to 24 U.S. Navy commanders and pilots for bombing North Vietnam.

'IRON TRIANGLE'

Meanwhile, U.S. B52 Stratofortresses dropped an estimated 200,000 pounds of bombs on the "Iron Triangle" just north of Saigon today, blitzing jungle strongholds where the main body of 13,000 Viet Cong has escaped the biggest American offensive of the war.

A new Allied push was announced in the Mekong Delta south of Saigon to free a highway linking the ricebowl area to the capital. It brought to eight the number of continuing major drives aimed at seizing the initiative from Communist armies.

Combat between Allied troops and Communist forces tapered

Bomber Cripples East Bay Phones

Call Shuts Commute Tunnel

OAKLAND (AP)—Three new explosions, crippling telephone service in the same area where five blasts wrecked electric lines, spread bomb jitters today in hill country east of Oakland.

FBI agents rushed to the scene and closed it off for a while.

The Contra Costa County sheriff's office said a quick study of the latest explosions strongly suggested that the same saboteur pulled off all eight.

An anonymous telephone caller's bomb threat caused the highway patrol to order the Caldecott tunnel closed at 8:20 a.m. at the height of the commuter rush today to Oakland from such communities as Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek.

REPAIRS DELAYED

At 2:36 a.m. today, two simultaneous explosions atop a Pacific Telephone pole and a third at its base ripped main cables between San Francisco and Oakland and an underground cable serving Contra Costa County.

Telephone crews were on the scene swiftly. But repair outfits were delayed until 7:30 because FBI agents and the sheriff's office sealed off the scene.

Pacific Telephone urged customers in the area to make only vital calls until service could be fully restored this afternoon.

Two new incidents came to light yesterday, shortly after full power was restored to the University of California campus, including the critically important Lawrence Radiation Laboratory.

BLACKOUT ATTACKS

Explosive charges early Wednesday toppled a 70-foot tower high in the Berkeley Hills and snapped two 115,000 volt transmission lines.

First, a power substation operator in El Cerrito, just north of Berkeley, was slugged from behind late Wednesday night. A hard hat saved Douglas O'Mara, 44, of Martinez, from serious injury, but he was knocked cold for 20 minutes.

Yesterday afternoon a line patrolman found a second transmission tower damaged by explosive roughly a mile east of the one discovered Wednesday morning.

On Feb. 4 three locked PG&E switches were opened and thrown, blacking out parts of North Oakland, Berkeley and El Cerrito. On Feb. 25 a Berkeley substation was hit with a crude bomb but power was not interrupted.

RETALIATION MOOD

Consensus: Tax Unfair To Marin

Marin County supervisors hope to convince Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco he should drop the proposal to slap a tax on Marin commuters who work in San Francisco.

And if this doesn't work, a majority of supervisors said they are ready to retaliate.

Under Alioto's plan, a Marin resident would pay a 1 per cent annual tax that would be deducted gradually from his paycheck. Thus, a person earning $10,000 a year would pay $100 to the City of San Francisco.

Alioto estimates that the tax, on a total of 122,000 San Francisco commuters from surrounding counties, would raise an estimated $13.6 million for property tax relief in the city.

Supervisors' Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he will put the commuter tax issue on the agenda Tuesday for discussion by the full board.

"There are many alternatives that can be discussed," said Kettenhofen. "The first that immediately comes to mind is a retaliatory tax on commuters who live outside of Marin and work in Marin."

"If we open Pandora's box in the fashion Alioto is suggesting, and were it constitutional, chaos could result," declared Kettenhofen. "And with realitory taxes back and forth, nothing would be accomplished."

He said San Francisco should realize that its residents receive benefits from the many regional

DELEGATES NAMED

Flying Kennedy Visit To State Tomorrow

COMBINED AP & UPI

SACRAMENTO — Show business, the athletic world, and the college campus are represented on the star-studded delegation pledged to U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in California's Democratic presidential primary. (See other stories on politics, page 11.)

The names of the 172 prospective delegates were filed with Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan yesterday. That set the stage for Kennedy's first flying tour of the campaign, beginning tomorrow.

Kennedy will arrive in San Francisco at noon tomorrow and speak at Stockton and Sacramento that afternoon. He will appear at a 7:30 p.m. rally in San Jose.

A motorcade of Marin supporters of the presidential candidacy of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy will depart at 10 a.m. tomorrow from Saint Andrew United Presbyterian Church in Marin City, and will go to San Francisco International Airport to hear Kennedy speak during a brief stopover.

On Sunday the senator will stop for a rally at Monterey Peninsula Airport at 2:30 p.m. before flying to Los Angeles for appearances at Olvera Street, the Greek Theater and San Fernando Valley State College.

The list of the Kennedy delegation in the California presidential primary included two Marin residents, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Gatov of Kentfield and Byron W. Leydecker, former county supervisor.

Big names abound: UCLA football star Gary Beban, singer Andy Williams, actress Shirley MacLaine and Olympic decathlon champion Rafer Johnson.

Minorities are also represented on the Kennedy slate, with Cesar Chavez, the farm labor leader lending the prestige of his name to Kennedy's attempt to roll up big majorities in Mexican-American and Negro districts.

Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy are preferred over Richard Nixon by California voters, but the former vice president outpolls President Lyndon Johnson, the Mervin Field California Poll said today.

Field said a just completed survey of voter opinion showed Kennedy would be the strongest Democratic candidate in the November election.

Heart Transplant Surgeon Proposes Educational Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Heart transplant surgeon Norman L. Shumway said today a proposed commission to study legal and social aspects of such operations would help educate the public to demand greater federal funds for them.

"Once the public knows what can be done," Shumway told a Senate subcommittee, "they will demand that it be done.

Shumway transplanted a housewife's heart into the chest of steel worker Mike Kasperak last January at Stanford University. Kasperak died several days later.

Shumway said he doubts there is any great problem in deciding who should get heart transplants. He said he expects heart banks eventually will be set up to "store and preserve hearts so there will be a choice of sizes as well as types."

Mayor Yorty Says He's Not Candidate

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mayor Sam Yorty said today he will not seek the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator.

In a news conference the mayor said he felt he could speak out more effectively on national and international issues as mayor.

Driver Critical After His Car Runs Into Van

A 28-year-old San Rafael man was critically injured early today when the car he was driving slammed into the front of a parked transport van in Dubois Street, San Rafael.

Police had to force the car doors to get at Nelson Granda of 45 Woodland Avenue, Apt. 3 who suffered a severe head injury. He was listed in critical condition today at Marin General Hospital.

The accident happened at 2:19 a.m. but Granda was apparently driving without headlights, said police. The light switch was found in the off position.

Traveling southbound, the car swerved over into the northbound lane just south of Rice Street. Police said there were no skid marks to indicate brakes had been applied before the car crashed into the 24-foot van owned by Pacific Motor Transport of San Rafael.

The car's hood and instrument panel was wedged under the end of the van by the impact. The top of the car was peeled back about two feet.

Granda is employed as a busboy at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael.

Swedish Asylum Soldier Returns

HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI)—Pfc. Edward B. Murray Jr., a Germany-based soldier who fled to Sweden, voluntarily returned today, the U.S. Army announced.

Murray, an 18-year-old from Woodbury, N.J., has been absent from the 2nd Field Hospital at Moenchweiler since Jan. 24.

A spokesman at U.S. Army European Headquarters in Heidelberg said Murray arrived from Stockholm at Frankfurt's Rhein-Main Airport this afternoon.

RECORDS IN CONFLICT

Tam Trustee Challenges Maintenance Chief's Pay

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Did Tamalpais High School District trustees on March 7, 1966, approve a $349-per-month raise in salary for Oliver Bonner, the district's director of maintenance and operations?

Confusing records today raised this question.

On file at the Tam district office for public inspection are minutes of board meetings. Those for the March 7, 1966, meeting include a sheet labeled "Exhibit A" listing actions concerning non-teaching personnel, which the minutes show were ratified by the board.

Four persons are listed as "employed" on this "Exhibit A". The fourth is "Oliver Bonner, director M&O, $1,350."

Just below that list, three persons are listed as "separated." The third name on this list is "Oliver Bonner, director M&O. Advancement."

However, on the copy of the same exhibit on file with the March 7, 1966, Tamalpais board minutes at the county superintendent's office, there are only three names on the top list and two on the bottom list. Bonnier's name appears nowhere on the sheet.

Close inspection of the copy at the Tam district office reveals that the two lines including Bonner's name have been typwritten directly on the sheet, although the rest of the sheet has been duplicated.

It appears that the record of the "separation" and "employment" of Bonner, which involved a raise in pay from $1,001 per month to $1,350 per month, was entered some time after "Exhibit A" was approved by the board and filed with the minutes at the county superintendent's office.

Supt. Chester G. Carlisle of Tamalpais High School District said today he had no comment to make on the matter at this time.

Trustee Gloria Melbostad insisted at the Tam board meeting on Monday night that there was NOTHING MUCH TO DO . . .

There's nothing much to do at Oceana Marin—nothing, that is, except enjoy magnificent views along a spectacular coastline, swim, surf, fish, dig for clams, oysters, and abalone, and go boating whenever you want.
There's nothing much for kids to do either, except have fun on private-access beaches, play in the sandy coves, hike in the surrounding hills, swim, fish and surf.
If you insist on owning a homesite where there's so little to do, you might justify it ($6,000 up) on the basis of a fine investment; ocean-front values are always going up.
You get to Oceana Marin on Hwy. 101 to Petaluma, exit at Wash. St., go through Petaluma to Bodega Ave., follow west of the town of Tomales, then go 4 miles farther. For complete information and a brochure, call

More Violence Expected By Mideast Foes

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Both sides today claimed victory in Israel's anti-terrorist 13-hour invasion of Jordan. Both Arabs and Israelis predicted more Middle East bloodshed. The U.N. Security Council debated what to do about it.

Israel's strike 10 miles deep into Jordan yesterday "sent to the grave all possibilities of a peaceful solution of the Middle East crisis," said today the Cairo newspaper Al Ahram that often speaks for President Gamal ABdel Nasser of Egypt.

ISRAELI REASONS

In Jerusalem, Maj. Gen. Haim Bar-Lev, Israel's chief of staff and architect of the 15,000-man strike against Arab saboteur bases in Jordan, told newsmen last night, "Ours was a clear and well defined objective —to hit and destroy the terrorist elements and their bases. This was achieved." But he said he expected Arab terrorists to strike again.

So did Premier Levi Eshkol of Israel. In Jerusalem, he told his parliament he did not rule out more Israeli strikes. "We have no wonder drug to stop sabotage raids," he said.

In Amman, King Hussein's regime announced "Our territory has been completely purged of enemy forces."

DEBATE IN U.N.

At the United Nations, the Security Council was meeting again today. A 12-hour session that began yesterday ended after midnight but failed to agree on what to do about Jordan's demands for censuring Israel. The council was to meet again this afternoon.

At Vatican City, Pope Paul VI called today for an end to the use of force in Middle East conflicts and for a "just and honorable solution" of the Arab-Israeli dispute.

The Pope's sentiments were expressed in a message to Msgr. Augustin Joseph Sepinski, apostolic delegate to Jerusalem and Palestine.

"The new and dangerous widening of acts of violence and of armed clashes cannot but cause worry," the message said.

ANTONIN NOVOTNY

Novotny Out As Czech President

PRAGUE (AP) — President Antonin Novotny gave up his fight for political survival today and resigned after the Czechoslovak Communist party's new anti-Stalinist leaders received the Kremlin's assurance that it would not interfere with their liberalization drive.

Novotny, a hard-line Communist, sent his letter of abdication to the National Assembly's presidium which immediately accepted it. The party presidium did likewise earlier today.

Novotny gave up his fight to hold on to the largely ceremonial presidency less than 48 hours after Deputy Premier Oldrich Cernik returned from Moscow.

Premier Alexei Kosygin and other top Soviet officials told him they would not interfere in Czechoslovakia's liberal new course of "socialist democratization."

Novotny's downfall began last January, when Alexander Dubcek replaced him as leader of the Czechoslovak Communist party, the position of real power.

In an attempt at a face-saving gesture, CTK, the official news service, said he now would retire from public life because of the "state of his health."

Novotny, 63, was named party leader in 1953 and president in 1957. His term as chief of state was to have ended next year.

Business Tax To Be Ballot Issue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A board of supervisors committee has agreed to put a charter amendment on the June ballot for Mayor Joseph Alioto's proposed business tax.

The committee acted yesterday after the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce announced its support for a five-year moratorium on the charter section which has protected business firms from licenses taxes since 1932.

Poland Still Sit-In Scene

WARSAW (UPI)—Defiant Polytechnic University students today pushed their sit-in into its fourth and last day, risking "serious consequences" to demand government answers to their grievances.

An estimated 5,000 students spent the night in the Polytechnic's main building and said they would boycott classes again today in their effort to force the Communist regime to reply to their demands for a more liberal press and more freedom of speech.

Rector Dionizy Smolenski warned them previously of "serious consequences," including expulsion if they disrupted classes.

Warsaw University students returned to class today but said they would continue their own sit-in tonight.

Both sit-ins were scheduled to end tomorrow morning.

Tennessee Traffic Halted By Blizzard

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—A freak spring snowstorm dumped up to 10 inches of snow on west Tennessee early today, stranding travelers and marooning residents in their driveways.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said accumulations might reach a foot before the snow ended. The Tennessee Highway Patrol said all major highways in the western third of the state were

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Sales Booming

NEW YORK (AP)—Only two weeks old, the paperback edition of the report of the President's Commission on Civil Disorders is already soaring toward million seller status. And it's sparking a number of projects among businessmen, in churches, and in poor communities.

A spokesman for Bantam Books said yesterday the publishing house has just ordered 70,000 more copies printed, bringing the total to 810,000. The 720-page, $1.25 edition sold 300,000 copies in its first three days, leading some outlets to call it "the fastest seller since "Valley of the Dolls."

Quake Worry

LONG BEACH (AP)—Recurrences of San Francisco's great earthquake of 1906 and Southern California's devastating 1857 earthquake are almost inevitable, says earthquake expert Charles Richter.

"We must expect repetitions" of these quakes, the inventor of the Richter Scale said at a Town Hall meeting yesterday.

While cautioning that the entire state is in an earthquake risk zone, Dr. Richter said the Los Angeles and San Francisco areas are in greatest danger of a severe earthquake because their sections of the San Andreas Fault are usually calm.

Library Attacked

LUSAKA, Zambia (UPI)—Demonstrators attacked a British library yesterday and President Kenneth Kaunda charged the British were cowards for failure to intervene in recent hangings in neighboring Rhodesia.

Rioting Blame

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (UPI)—Foreign Minister Sharifudden Pirzada yesterday charged that rioting against the Moslem minority was increasing in India and urged India to take "immediate effective deterrent action."

Probation Given On Whipping Count

The district attorney's office yesterday placed Robert William Corteau, 34, of Novato, on nine months probation for allegedly whipping his 9-year-old step-daughter with a belt Dec. 3.

If Corteau stays clear of trouble until Dec. 31, his case will be dismissed in Municipal Court, the district attorney said.

Cool Reception

ANDREWS AFB, Md. (UPI)—"Hoping for the best and expecting the worst," the new Air Force buddies of Airman 1C Patrick J. Nugent have given the President's son-in-law a decidedly cool reaction on his return to active duty.

While members of the 113th Tactical Fighter Wing, which Nugent has just rejoined, have not been hostile, they haven't exactly rolled out the welcome mat either.

Many of the airmen, yanked out of civilian jobs when President Johnson ordered a partial mobilization of the reserves two months ago, feel Nugent's presence has put them on top of the President's list for combat duty in Vietnam.

The wing's commander, Brig. Gen. Willard W. Millikan was so concerned about the morale effects of the Vietnam-Nugent rumors that he personally assured his men Nugent's arrival has nothing to do with the wing's war status and Nugent was "just another airman."

Wanting Slashes

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Key House and Senate monetary experts today were apparently demanding bigger Federal spending cuts than offered by President Johnson to ransom the Administration's long-stalled income tax increase.

The negotiations were cloaked in secrecy but qualified sources in Congress said both the House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees had rejected Johnson's proposed $4 billion cut in spending.

The tax-writing and appropriations committees reportedly want cuts of $6 to $8 billion before approving Johnson's 10 per cent surtax proposal.

The outcome of the current haggling could have important effects on the tax bite to Americans next year, the international gold situation and the over-all stability of the U.S. economy.

Protest Call

PANAMA CITY (UPI)—Supporters of Panamanian presidential candidate David Samudio called a mass rally today to protest impeachment proceedings against President Marcos A. Robles. The impeachment involves Robles' alleged support of Samudio in violation of the Panamanian constitution.

De Gaulle Pound-Dollar Attack Hikes Gold Price

PARIS (UPI)—The price of gold climbed again today on the Paris market amid reports of a new attack by President Charles de Gaulle on the pound and the dollar.

The price of a 2.2 pound (one kilogram) ingot rose to $1,237, a climb of $22 over yesterday's price. The unofficial high was $39 an ounce.

The demand was so great the market was forced into a second round of trading but supplies of gold were short and the market was described as overheated and under-supplied.

Reports De Gaulle would make another attack on the dollar and pound also affected the Zurich market where banks were selling gold at $39.50 an ounce and buying it at $38.50.

Yesterday's prices were $38.75 and $37.75.

Informed sources said De Gaulle's planned new attack meant he was heading for an open clash with his European Common Market partners.

Observers said De Gaulle would campaign against both the dollar and the British pound at a meeting next week in Stockholm of the world's 10 richest nations—the so-called "Paris Club."

De Gaulle, in a statement to the French Cabinet Wednesday, urged joint action of Common Market nations against the present world monetary system, which is based on large reserve currencies and the power of the dollar and the pound.

But so far all but Luxembourg have pledged a pro-American stance in the financial crisis.

Southern Marin Sanitary Areas Will Not Have Elections June 4

Those two Southern Marin sanitary districts boards — all up in the air since Monday, when they were advised by the county elections department they had to hold elections June 4 — won't have to do any such thing, the county counsel's office said today.

The confusion stemmed from a recent state law which attempts to unify elections of the state's sanitary, water, fire and utility districts.

Both Alto and Almonte sanitary districts agreed in early 1966 to unify their elections with the June primaries in even-numbered years. Previously, they had elected directors in November of odd-numbered years.

Both districts followed through and held elections in 1966.

Then, last July, the county counsel's office sent down a form letter, saying both districts had elections scheduled for November, 1967.

The districts went ahead with the election each having three directors sworn in for new four-year terms.

Asst. County Counsel Richard V. Godino said today that the two districts, by holding elections last November, had in fact returned to the odd-year election.

The districts should ignore the June election, Godino said, and plan to elect its other directors in November, 1969. This will shorten the present terms of directors elected in June, 1966, but will get all five directors in the districts onto the odd-year election system.

Godino said the elections office sent out election notices only because the districts had never officially rescinded their agreement of early 1966 to go onto the even-year election system.

The directors elected last November were sworn in for terms which do not end until December, 1971. Sworn in were Carl O. Heynen Jr., David G. Jones and Harry McNeill in Alto, and Edward J. Prosch, David J. Beasley and John J. Crncich in Almonte.

Today Is The Deadline For Primary Filings

With hours to go before the deadline, 49 candidates for the U.S. Senate, U.S. Congress, California Assembly, Marin County Board of Supervisors, Marin County Superior Court and Marin Municipal Water District and sanitary and community services districts have filed nomination papers with county clerks in districts which include Marin.

The deadline is 5 p.m. today. The filings are for the June 4 primary election.

William M. Bennett of Kentfield, who previously announced his candidacy for the Senate on the Democratic ticket, filed yesterday.

In the Sixth Congressional District, which includes all of Marin except Novato and West Marin, Philip Drath still was the only candidate to have filed on the Democratic ticket. The two other Democratic cnadidates, William W. Turner and James Canfield of San Francisco, have not filed. The incumbent, William S. Mailliard, a Republican, has filed.

In the First Congressional District, which runs from south of Stinson Beach to Oregon, five candidates have filed. The incumbent, Don H. Clausen, is unopposed on the GOP ticket.

Others filing for the seat were Barry Gill of Napa County and Donald W. Graham of Mendocino County, both Democrats, and Mrs. Gladys L. O'Neal of Sacramento and Adolph H. Hoffman of Santa Dosa, both American Independent Party. The state election code allows California residents to run in any congressional district in the state, thus Mrs. O'Neal is qualified to run in the First District.

In the race for the Seventh Assembly Districe seat, both the Republican candidates, incumbent William T. Bagley and Clay Barham have filed. The Democratic candidate, Robert E. Mertle, has not filed. James E. Pockrus of Rohnert Park had previously announced he would seek the Democratic nomination, but withdrew in favor of Mertle.

Al R. Bionda Jr. of Petaluma has filed for the Assembly seat on the American Independent Party ticket. Neither of the announced candidates for the Assembly seat on the Peace and Freedom Party ticket, Christopher Bratt and Earl B. Arnold, has filed.

In the supervisorial races, all 11 candidates have filed: Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. and incumbent Ernest N. Kettenhofen in the Second District; Ben A. Farlatti, Mrs. Margaret Azevedo, Michael Wornum, Rev. Samuel Banks, Carl Hepp and Donald J. O'Leary in the Third District, and Michael D. Healy, incumbent Thomas T. Storer and Louis H. Baar in the Fourth District.

A fourth announced candidate in the Fourth District, William W. Perry, withdrew and announced his support today of Baar.

Marin County Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating, the only one of the four superior court judges whose term expires this year, has filed.

In the Marin Municipal Water District, only incumbent William C. Herup has filed in District 2. In District 5, incumbent Robert G. Anderson and Arthur Crebassa have filed, with one seat open.

Filing in the 11 sanitary and community services districts were:

Bel Marin Keys Community Services District — No filings for three openings.

Homestead Valley Sanitary District — Gustaf F. Wolf, incumbent, and Louis G. Hardin and Medford J. Schwarz, with three seats open.

Ross Valley Sanitary District — Incumbents Peter A. Ribar and Ray I. Johnson, with two seats open.

Terra Linda Community Services District — Incumbents Richard Less and Neal Harding, with two seats open.

Muir Beach Community Services District — Richard C. Bain, with two seats open.

Marinwood Community Services District — Frank Solomon Jr. and Jack Nixon, with three seats open.

Gallinas Village Community Services District — Incumbents, Herbert C. Belben Jr. and Walter Rudolph, with two seats open.

Marin City Community Services District — Incumbents Jesse Berry and Arthur Miller, and Mrs. Doretha Mitchell, with two seats open.

Almonte Sanitary District — no filings, with three openings.

Alto Sanitary District — No filings, with two openings.

off sharply, headquarters reported this afternoon, and the area just south of the Demilitarized Zone was described as "real quiet."

The U.S. Command reported 108 raids into North Vietnam Thursday in the intensifying air war as the winter monsoon abated. Most jet bombers hit MIG airfields and troop convoys headed south.

Headquarters reported the loss of two U.S. troop-carrying helicopters along the northern coast of South Vietnam where heavy fighting yesterday killed 112 Communists. Four Americans were killed in two crashes, and a fifth was wounded. One of the choppers was shot down near Da Nang and the other hit a mine during a combat assault landing.

Mrs. McDevitt Seeks Separate Maintenance

A story in yesterday's Independent-Journal incorrectly stated that building contractor William H. McDevitt was sued for divorce by his wife, Carol A. McDevitt.

Mrs. McDevitt has filed an action for separate maintenance from her husband in Marin Superior Court.

Nixon 47 per cent to 40 per cent; McCarthy over Nixon 42 per cent to 40; and Nixon over Johnson 41 per cent to 38.

Field said the survey also showed Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York has more total-voter strength in California than Nixon. Rockefeller was preferred over both Johnson and McCarthy and cut Kennedy's margin to 4 percentage points.

George Wallace polls between 6 and 11 per cent of the total vote, while the Peace and Freedom Party averages about 2 per cent, Field said.

Wallets, Cash Taken From Parked Autos

Thieves stole wallets and cash from two cars parked in a Stinson Beach parking lot Wednesday afternoon, according to a report today from the sheriff's office.

Rodney H. Henning of Hamilton Air Force Base reported $73 stolen from his car. Lynda Ann Capehart of San Francisco reported $12 taken from hers. The windows of both autos were pried, deputies said.

Youth Freed On Carrying An Ax

Carl Lomas King, 19, of no fixed address, was freed in Marin Municipal Court yesterday when the district attorney reported that no complaint will issue as a result of his arrest for carrying a foot long ax handle Tuesday night at the Ark, near Sausalito.

King was arrested under a county ordinance which forbids carrying certain weapons.

Contra Costa Garbage Strike Countywide

MARTINEZ (UPI) — The Contra Costa County garbage strike was extended to all major areas except Richmond today, leaving 350,000 of the county's 550,000 residents without garbage service, and no truce moves in sight.

Authorities urged residents to burn what garbage they could, and take the rest to four dumps near the struck areas. One emergency dump has been set up in Walnut Creek, and authorities said more may be established if the walkout continues.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

3:37 p.m., Novato — Children playing with matches set fire to brush and fence back of the C. S. Schlag residence at 746 Plaza Amapola; minor damage to the fence.

6:21 p.m., Tamalpais Valley — Illegal burning at 1007 Erica Road by new resident unaware of burning hours.

10:14 p.m., Lucas Valley — Lamp fell on mattress at home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kaplan, 18 Zephyr Court, igniting it; residents put it outside and extinguished fire; $25 damage.

recreational facilities in Marin.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer said he is seeking a personal meeting with Mayor Alioto to urge him to reconsider the commuter tax.

"Mayor Alioto infers that San Francisco offers some tremendous value to the commuter," said Supervisor John F. McInnis, "But he overlooks the fact that San Francisco is absolutely dependent on commuters, both as high to top-level executive employee source and also as a base for a tremendous part of San Francisco's retail economy."

McInnis pointed out that a survey taken a few years ago showed that 15 per cent of Stonestown's entire business activity came from Marin patronage alone. "If he (Alioto) persists, I am going to suggest that a public campaign be developed to shop Marin. He should come to realize that we are all inter-dependent here."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss said he is disturbed by the one-two attack on commuters. "First we get Greyhound fare increases. Now this. Our commuters will be seriously affected. I believe the commuter tax is uncalled for. We should act to stop it."

Supervisor Peter H. Behr preferred to "wait for the dust to settle between now and next Tuesday" when the matter is formally discussed.

"I'm sure the mayor (Alioto) is doing what he thinks is politically palatable," said Behr. "It would be more sensible to take the matter up officially before the board than to cork off individually in irate fashion."

Marin County Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell joined the supervisors' criticism of Alioto's plan today, saying commuters support industry and business but are not able to receive the normal benefits of city residents and have no voice in San Francisco government.

Innocent Pleas On Marijuana

Three persons pleaded innocent in Marin Municipal Court yesterday to charges of selling or possessing marijuana.

Carter Hall (also known as Terry Thomas), 20, of Sausalito, arrested during last month's narcotics raids, denied that he sold marijuana to narcotics agents Dec. 20 and Jan. 20.

Ronald Sydney Johnson, 31, of San Rafael, arrested at the same time, denied that he possessed marijuana on Dec. 14.

Nina Louise Bredt of 108 Dominga Avenue, Fairfax, pleaded innocent to a charge that she had a marijuana cigarette in her purse when being booked for a traffic violation at county jail Oct. 6.

Preliminary hearings for all three were scheduled for May 1.

Kidnap Engineers

GUATEMALA (AP) — The kidnaping of Archbishop Mario Casariego was engineered by a right-wing terrorist group known as the Mano Blanco (White Hand), National Police Chief Col. Manuel Sosa said yesterday.

Maine Court Denies Appeal By Thoresen

PORTLAND, Me. (AP) — A Californian, facing federal charges stemming from possession of about 70 tons of firearms, yesterday lost an appeal to the Maine supreme court.

William Thoresen III, 31, of San Francisco sought unsuccessfully to void a 1959 Maine felony conviction that formed basis of the federal charge against him.

Thoresen and his wife are scheduled for trial May 6 in San Francisco's District Court on charges of interstate transportation of firearms and ammunition by a person convicted of a felony.

U.S. treasury agents said about 70 tons of firearms, ranging from pistols to an antitank gun, and ammunition were found in an April 1967 raid at Thoresen's home and warehouses.

In 1959 Thoresen, son of a Chicago industrialist, was convicted at Ellsworth, Me., of larceny—the theft of six posters valued at $150 from the Canadian National Railways Ferry Terminal at Bar Harbor.

In his appeal Thoresen said he had not been aware the larceny charge was a felony—he had thought it a misdemeanor.

The court ruled that the Maine law governing post-conviction relief applies only to persons jailed or under threat of jail.

Thoresen had been given a suspended reformatory sentence and placed on two year's probation.

Dog Controls Policy Sought

A proposed leash and antimess ordinance will be requested of the Novato City Council at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the Community House by the Citizens Committee for Dog Control.

This was approved by a meeting of 30 members of the committee last night at the conference room of the Novato Savings and Loan Association, said Mrs. Mary M. Allen, chairman.

The proposed ordinance will ask that dog owners be cited by police and fined for allowing their dogs to roam at large, Mrs. Allen said. It will also call for a fine for allowing a dog on a leash to defecate on someone else's property, she said.

Isadore Bentivoglio of 705 Sunset Parkway, Novato, will present the proposals for the ordinance for the committee, Mrs. Allen said.

Ross Trustees Slate Closed Hiring Session

Ross School District will precede its regular meeting Monday with a closed session at 7:30 p.m. to consider hiring of personnel for the 1968-69 school year.

Agenda for the regular meeting at 8:15 p.m., in Ross School includes a report on the Tamalpais High School District election June 4 and a report on teachers salaries.

BONNER

no record in the minutes of the raise for Bonner. The typewritten entry, however, was discovered subsequently.

Records of the county auditor-controller's office show that Bonner's salary became $1,350 per month on the March payroll of the Tam district, being increased from $1,001 the previous month. He subsequently received raises to $1,436 on July 1, 1966, and to $1,510 last July 1. These last two raises conform to percentage increases given non-teaching employees by the Tam district board in its annual salary adjustments.

REFLECTS INCREASE

The annual salary adjustment for the fiscal year 1965-66 was reflected in an increase of Bonner's pay from $949 to $1,001 per month. The $349 raise came four months before the annual raises for other employees — which, applied to Bonner's salary, increased it to $1,436.

School district salary lists are sent each month to the county superindentend of schools office, which then sends them on to the Civic Center, where the payroll checks are issued by the auditor's office. Districts submit the lists to the county superintendent shortly after the middle of the month.

There was thus perhaps 10 days between the March 7 meeting of the district board and the day the monthly payroll was made up for transmittal to the county superintendent's office.

LOOKING INTO COSTS

The inquiry into the special $349 raise for Bonner arose when Mrs. Melbostad started looking into costs of maintenance and operation in the district.

According to figures prepared by the California Teachers Associaton, operation-maintenance costs per student in the Tam district in the 1965-66 school year were $37.98. This, the CTA reported, was the highest in the Bay Area and third highest in the state.

For the 1966-67 school year, the Tam district's operation-maintenance costs per pupil rose to $52.43. A comparison with other districts for that year was not available.

Bonner, as director of maintenance and operation, is in charge of groundsmen, janitors, etc., as well as transportation, for the three schools of the Tam district: Tamalpais, Redwood and Sir Francis Drake High Schools.

CORRESPONDING PAY

The corresponding position in the San Rafael city school system is held by John A. Thompson Jr. With the same responsibilities, but for two high schools and 14 elementary schools, Thompson, a 20-year veteran in the city school system, is paid $1,061 per month.

This difference in pay, however, is not confined to the director of maintenance. For instancer, Carlisle receives $27,500 per year as superintendent of the Tamalpais district, compared to $23,500 paid John F. Plank as San Rafael superintendent.

Police Roughed Up By Drunken Driving Suspect

Two San Rafael police officers were treated in Marin General Hospital shortly after midnight last night after being assaulted, they said, by a man they had earlier arrested for drunken driving.

Booked in Marin County jail on suspicion of assault on a police officer, resisting arrest and drunken driving was restaurant owner Jerry Don Forkner, 26, of Glen Ellen.

Patrolman Barxdal W. Stinson said he arrested Forkner after he drove a truck away from the Alibi Club on Fourth Street.

The suspect struggled when Stinson placed handcuffs on him. Later at the jail, he kicked and fought with Stinson and Patrolman Donal A. Merkley. Both officers were treated for minor cuts and bruises.

Forkner was released on $2,220 bail to appear in Marin Municipal Court at 1:30 p.m. Monday.

Singer's Death May Be Murder

DALLAS (UPI) — Homicide detectives studied the possibilities of murder and a hit-and-run driver accident today in the death of Everett Martin West, 51, a singer who performed on Broadway more than 20 years ago.

The body of West, in white overalls and tennis shoes, was found face down in a gutter on the outskirts of Dallas Wednesday. The body was identified as that of West, a tenor, by fingerprints yesterday.

The county medical examiner said West died of internal injuries and police said he also had suffered a hard blow on his forehead.

Police were told that West, son of Norwegian immigrants, was to have performed in Chicago in April for King Olav V of Norway.

Recreation Panel Reviews Budget

The 1968-69 budget for maintenance and needed new equipment was discussed last night by the Sausalito Recreation Commission.

Last year's maintenance budget was $2,500 for parks and $4,619 for recreation. No figures have been developed yet for 1968-69.

In response to a request for resurfacing of tennis courts in South View Park, the commission asked city engineer Norman Wohlschlaeger to work out cost estimates and present them at the April 18 meeting.

Clivia In Bloom At Civic Center

Large, orange clivia blossoms are now in full bloom in the landscaped island on the ground floor of the Civic Center.

"They're the largest and most beautiful we've ever grown," according to landscape foreman, Floyd Hovland.

The blooms are expected to last for another three weeks.

OBITUARIES

CECIL VANTREASE

Cecil R. Vantrease, 60, of San Anselmo died yesterday in a local hospital after collapsing at home from an apparent heart attack, Keith Craig, deputy county coroner reported today.

Vantrease, a native of Ava, Mo., had lived in Marin about three years and made his home with a sister, Mrs. Della Goforth of 9 Oak Knoll Avenue.

Mrs. Goforth todl the coroner her brother complained of chest pains early yesterday and she drove him to the hospital after breakfast, on the advice of a doctor. He died there at 11:30 a.m.

Vantrease was employed as a railroad worker with the Northwestern Pacific Railroad until he retired several years ago.

He is survivied by his sister, and a brother Walter Vantrease of Yreka, Siskiyou County.

Funeral is pending an autopsy at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

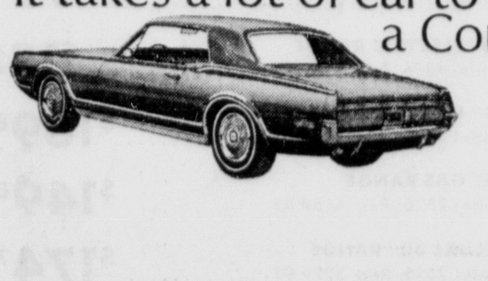
People-To-People Session Is Delayed

Last night's scheduled meeting of the Sausalito People-to-People Committee was postponed to mid-April after the city election. Chairman W. Bruce Shafer said the city election and school bond campaigns have kept Sausalitans too busy to work on the program.

Shafer will announce his appointments of other committee officers at the April meeting, and start planning observance of Chilean Independence Week. Date of the meeting is not set yet.

It takes a lot of car to follow a Cougar...



And Mercury's got it.

When you produce a car like the sensational Mercury Cougar, what do you do for an encore? Mercury's beautiful answer: Montego. This new car for '68 has all the excitement of Cougar with the kind of roominess that will turn it into a family pet. It offers you that fine car touch—in its smooth clean styling, its bold distinctive grille, its handsome interior with simulated wood-grain instrument panel. It offers the ride of a fine car too. (A full 116-inch wheelbase means extra riding comfort.) The price? Less than you'd think possible. In short: Mercury has really got it! So come in today and drive away one of the reasons why.

Montego.

Split By Supervisors On Advanced Planning

Does the Marin County Planning Department spend too much money on advance planning?

Marin County Board of Supervisors split sharply on this question yesterday during a discussion of the 1967 grand jury report. The grand jury had questioned the "wisdom of the extent of 'advanced planning' which is reported at 45 per cent of the work load."

Supervisor John F. McInnis asserted that too much is being spent on advance planning "which gets into the real of idealistic dreaming."

Chairman Ernest N. Kettenhofen said some advance planning may be getting too far ahead.

Supervisors Peter H. Behr and Thomas T. Storer challenged these statements.

Behr declared that Planning Director Paul C. Zucker was hired because the supervisors thought the county was not getting enough advance planning.

If the county had had advance planning 10 years ago, the county would not be faced with Kappas Yacht Harbor and Francisco Boulevard "looking like Los Angeles," said Storer. He added that ferryboats and railroad lines would not have been removed if adequate advance planning had been in effect.

Supervisors discussed the county department of public works briefly. Behr said Donald R. Frost, director, had made a blunt, but good response to the grand jury.

Supervisors asked Kettenhofen to draft a county reply to the grand jury, based on yesterday's discussions, and submit the draft to other supervisors for review.

Worldwide use of the telephone is expected to grow from the present 180 million subscribers to about 600 million by the year 2000.

Two Nabbed In Narcotics Raids To Superior Court

Two men arrested in last month's narcotics raids were held to answer in Marin Superior Court to charges of marijuana violations after a Municipal Court preliminary hearing yesterday.

David Allen Ward, 23, of Mill Valley, was bound over to the higher court on two charges of possessing and one charge of selling marijuana.

Scott Miller English, 24, of Novato, was held on a charge of possessing the weed.

Both are to appear for arraignment in the higher court April 1.

An agent from the Marin County Drug Abuse Bureau said he bought $45 worth of marijuana from Ward Dec. 17 in the men's room of a Novato service station.

The agent said that, during his four-month undercover stint, he told people he was buying large quantities of marijuana in Marin and shipping it to the eastern states for profit.

"Did anyone believe that?" snapped San Francisco attorney Molly Minudri.

"Yes ma'am. Apparently an awful lot of them did," he said.

Time Break On Pollution For District

The San Rafael Sanitation District Board learned yesterday that it has more breathing room to meet new requirements of the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board.

District Engineer Ely Caillouette said when the board notes a deficiency the district will be permitted to start a study to determine what steps should be taken.

Under the past policy, the district was immediately placed on notice that it was in violation of regulations.

"This gives time," and means the district won't be "right under the gun," Caillouette said.

Directors continued until April 4 public hearings on changes in boundaries between the district and the Ross Valley Sanitary District in Bret Harte Heights, to provide better sewage flow in the hill area.

The proposal is for annexation of 38 parcels to the San Rafael Sanitation District and detachment of 79 parcels.

Directors appointed Caillouette as temporary district administrator, in the absence of Norris M. Rawles, district administrator, who is on sick leave.

Booking Made On LSD Sale

SANTA ROSA (AP)—A Mendocino State Hospital psychologist has been arrested on charges of giving LSD to an undercover agent.

Dr. Rudolph Holzinger, 54, of Santa Rosa was arrested and released on $2,500 bail yesterday.

Assistant Dist. Atty. John W. Hawks said the arrest stemmed from a three-month investigation.

The three-ball pawnbroker emblem was inspired by the family coat-of-arms of the Medicis of Florence, Italy.

NEW I-J OFFICE BUILDING IN NOVATO

This is the new Independent-Journal building (left) at 1535 Grant Avenue, in Novato. The $25,000 building houses classified, display advertising, circulation and news departments, serving more than 6,000 subscribers in north Marin. Formally dedicated today, the slump stone and wood building is compatible with other buildings on the block, Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and, under construction, Wells Fargo Bank. The new I-J building was designed by Bushell, Jessup, Murphy and Van de Wegh, San Francisco. Theron Newell, Independent-Journal reporter sits at his desk inside the new building. Newell puts his news on teletype that goes directly to I-J editorial offices in San Rafael.

Personnel Panel Deadlocks On Union's Certification

The application of Social Workers Union 535 to be certified as an official county employee organization got bogged down yesterday by a 2-2 split of the Marin County Personnel Commission.

Commissioners readily agreed that the union should be certified as a representation unit. But they deadlocked on whether "supervisors" in the Department of Public Social Services should belong to the union or should be a part of "management."

Chairman Margaret M. Lucas and Victor P. Reed contended that supervisors in the department have an effective voice in hiring and firing of social workers and therefore belong to management.

Commissioners Bella Aaron and Muriel Appenzeller took the opposite view that supervisors have no real voice in hiring and firing but merely evaluate the work of employees and therefore should belong to the union.

After two hours of discussion, commissioners tried unsuccessfully to reach a fifth member, Hugh G. Marchant, who was absent because of other commitments.

At 5:15 p.m. commissioners tentatively set an adjourned meeting for 8 .m. next Tuesday in the hope that Marchant can attend to break the tie.

Social Workers Union 535 is the first group to apply for certification under a new employer-employee relations policy adopted by the county last January. The union would have 78 members, including 11 supervisors whom the union wants included.

Another Soviet Satellite Aloft

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union today announced its seventh space launching of the month.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Cosmos space ship No. 209 went into a nearly circular orbit ranging from 155 to 175 miles above the earth's surface.

Russias first space shot this month was the Zond 4 "mystery ship." The Soviets have never said where it went or what it did.

Readers League Gets Judgment Of $20,258

A Marin Superior Court jury yesterday awarded $20,258 to the Mutual Readers League of Des Moines, Iowa, from William Kennebec, former Tamalpais Valley magazine subscription operator.

The jury ended a five-week trial by determining that this is the amount Kennebec owes the league for unpaid contract loans.

Mutual Readers League claimed Kennebec collected money from magazine subscribers and appropriated it for his own use before the suit was filed in 1964.

The jury rejected Kennebec's claims that the league discriminated by conspiring to refuse to allow him to sell magazines to Negroes in Marin City, Hunters Point and the Fillmore district.

During the trial Kennebec produced a map which allegedly showed those areas blacked out, as areas where subscriptions could not be sold.

League officials responded that it was not a matter of racial discrimination. On an average, residents in those areas are considered poor credit risks, they said.

The jury also rejected claims by Kennebec that the league violated its contract with him and disparaged his credit and business reputation.

Pagni Hits Minority In Viet Voting

The silent majority is "the backbone of democracy" and should not let a small minority speak in its behalf, Fairfax Mayor George A. Pagni said Wednesday.

Pagni addressed the Flag Wavers, a Mill Valley group formed to oppose the anti-Vietnam war resolution on the Mill Valley ballot April 9. Pagni this week proposed the Fairfax City Council put on its ballot a resolution offering support to the president "and to the Americans fighting for freedom and for the cause of world peace in Vietnam."

Pagni's resolution also says "the anti-Vietnam demonstrators do not have our support or sympathy . . . the anti-Vietnam demonstrators . . . are giving comfort to the enemy."

Carl Hepp, leader of the Flag Wavers, gave an orientation lecture on the Vietnam situation and the history of Indo-China and Ho Chi Minh. He said the U.S. position in Vietnam is both legal and moral.

Plans were made for a door-to-door campaign against the resolution. Hepp said approximately 75 persons attended the meeting, and that from 200 to 300 have signed up as interested in helping the campaign.

Santa Cruz Area Temblor Felt By Marinites

Marin County shuddered slightly yesterday when a mild earthquake jolted the area for several seconds at 1:55 p.m.

It was not enough to do any damage and police departments reported no inquiries from Marin residents.

The sharp, rapid jolt however was felt in several places including the Independent-Journal news room of the College of Marin at Kentfield.

In the college's geology department, Stephen C. Bruff said the seismograph registered a "sizeable shock" which he estimated centered about 100 miles away and between 3 and 4 on the Richter scale.

The seismographic station at Berkeley later confirmed the quake was centered near Corralitos, a small town betweeen Watsonville and Santa Cruz and was recorded at 3.8 on the scale.

Novato Panel Picks Firm For Planning

Sedway and Cooke, San Francisco planning consultant firm, last night was selected to make the study of downtown Novato by the downtown study committee after reviewing three applications, according to City Mgr. J. Julien Baget.

The unanimous vote of the committee came after it reviewed the firm's proposal, and Williams, Cook and Mocine of San Francisco and Duncan and Jones of Berkeley, Baget said.

Recommendations of the committee will go before the Novato Planning Commission Monday night for its approval and before the Novato City Council on Tuesday night, Baget said.

If accepted by the council, the firm would prepare the application for a federal planning grant for $40,000 to $50,000.

The city would pay one-third of the cost of the proposed study and the federal government two-thirds, Baget said.

If the application is approved by the federal government, then a contract would be given the firm to make the study.

Preliminary work before the contract was signed would be done on an hourly basis, with the cost not to exceed $500, according to Baget.

The committee will next meet April 4, Baget said.

Steel Union Reveals Bargaining Platform

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The United Steelworkers Union (USW) has put the steel industry on notice: it wants more of everything it now has and then some in contract negotiations this year.

The same message went out to the aluminum industry.

The USW's basic steel industry conference and aluminum industry conference met here separately yesterday and approved nearly identical demands to be made at the negotiating table.

Contracts covering 480,000 USW members in basic steel expire Aug. 1 talks begin next month on local issues and in June of major economic matters.

Negotiations start next month in aluminum where contracts within five companies covering 30,000 USW members expire June 1.

From steel and aluminum, the steelworkers want:

A guaranteed annual income.

"A substantial wage increase."

Higher pensions for both present and future retired workers, lower retirement age, and pensions for widows and widowers of USW members.

Protection against automation.

Shorter work week.

More time and money for both regular and extended vacation plans.

Additional paid holidays. There are seven now in aluminum and eight in steel.

Improvements in insurance payments and sick benefits.

Cost of living adjustments.

The recommendations did not mention specific money figures nor did they make precise proposals in the other areas.

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics workers in basic steel now earn an average $3.63 an hour. The steel industry estimates its hourly production costs at $4.88. Aluminum workers earn an average $3.33 per hour.

Both aluminum and steel now have forms of guaranteed annual incomes in the supplemental unemployment benefit (SUB) program, first negotiated in the can industry. Under this plan furloughed workers receive about two thirds of their regular wage for 52 weeks.

17 Marinites Into Service This Month

The Marin County Selective Service board announced today the induction of 17 young men into the armed services for March.

Marin's quota for the month had been 50, Mrs. Joy M. Kinzer, executive secretary of Local Board 25, said. The quota is seldom reached, however, because some of those scheduled for induction enlist or obtain deferments.

Inducted were Michael A. Dolio Jr., Melvin L. Lafranchi, Walter M. Lack Jr. and Edward H. Reuter, all of San Rafael; George G. Phelan, Dennis C. Eastman, Michael E. Jenkins and Bruce R. Biedebach, all of San Anselmo; Marshall F. Collins Jr. and George F. Curtis, both of Novato.

Also, James G. Pauloo and John S. Reed, both of Mill Valley; Dennis E. Bonini of Inverness, James F. Stocking of Kentfield, David R. Seward of San Francisco, James H. Lucas of Larkspur and Dennis P. Tsigelatos of San Quentin Village.

The April quota is 39.

AID TO FAMILIES

Broader Welfare Slashes Sought

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A sweeping shakeup proposed by Gov. Ronald Reagan for California's welfare program would mean a big cut in aid for large families in the trouble-plagued urban slums.

The program sent to legislators yesterday also would get back some of the money the state spends to support elderly or disabled persons. The governor said that if relatives of such persons are unwilling to help them financially, then the state should take a share of whatever estates the recipients leave when they die.

In all, the estimated annual savings from the governor's program would be almost $29 million annually.

Its effect would be felt most by the families getting aid because the parent or parents are jobless. This is the biggest welfare item of all, covering about 600,000 youngsters and estimated to cost $190 million in state funds for fiscal year starting July 1.

Reagan proposed that no family be allocated more than $275 a month, based on the minimum wage of $1.60 an hour. He said this would stress the "significance, necessity and urgency of employment" and remove the "incentive to remain on aid."

Most affected by this limit would be families with five or more children, which make up a large segment of the program and constitute a sizable segment of residents in the festering urban slums.

For example, a family with six children now gets about $330 a month and a family with 15 children, roughly $424.

If Reagan's plan were adopted, the difference between the $275 maximum and what would be needed to actually live on would have to be made up by county general relief — in turn financed by local taxpayers.
ers.

In addition to limiting the aid to families, Reagan also urged:

A property lien that would allow the state to collect the aid it had contributed to a disabled or old person, once the recipient and his or her spouse are dead.

Disabled persons who live with parents don't always need all the state aid they get, so a $3.5 million reduction can be made here.

Anti-Smut Bill Wins Major Test In Senate

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Ronald Reagan's proposed crackdown on those who peddle dirty books and show lurid movies to youngsters faces the full Senate after sweeping through its first legislative test.

The Senate Judiciary Committee on a near-unanimous voice vote last night approved the bill which the author says is "quite similar" to his measure which died in an Assembly committee last year.

Atty. Gen. Thomas Lynch last year reported that obscenity was a $19 million business in 1967.

"This year, there is every indication that the returns are the same or higher," Assistant Atty. Gen. Gordon Rinnger told the committee. "This year the materials are even more blatant, and the solicitations even more offensive."

The bill by Republican Sen. Robert Lagomarsino of Ojai would make it a misdemeanor crime to supply a person under 18 years old with "harmful matter."

The definition of such material is that "whose description or representation . . . of nudity, sex or sexually deviant practices taken as a whole predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful or morbid interests of minors" in those subjects.

The law also would require that the material not be "patently offensive" to contemporary adult standards" in respect to minors having it and that it have more than "slight redeeming social importance for minors."

He said changes in the bill are designed to overcome objections of the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee which killed last year's version.

Saving Park Lands A New Road Policy

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The California Highway Commission has a new policy today stating it will try to avoid using public park lands in state highway projects.

The policy, adopted yesterday, provides for consultation with local park officials when highways near them are planned.

The commission will seek to provide special design treatment and landscaping for any highways which cross park lands so the roads will mar the environment as little as possible, Commission Chairman Vernon Cristina added.

Senate Advances Anti-Smog Bill

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Assembly - passed legislation permitting California to set tougher air pollution control standards than required by the federal government advanced in the Senate yesterday.

The Senate Transportation Committee unanimously approved a measure by Assemblyman James A. Hayes, R-Long Beach, to forestall federal pre-emption in auto smog control. The bill received no opposition at the hearing.

The committee also gave unanimous approval to a bill by Sen. Alfred E. Alquist, D-San Jose, to require all care purchased or leased by the state starting next year to meet proposed 1970 smog emission standards.

Home Is Looted

Beverly Hall Ehrman of 148 Bret Harte Road, San Rafael, reported yesterday the theft of $120 cash, clothes worth $260 and a hair dryer from her home. Police said thieves gained entry through an unlocked window.

New Enzyme Technique May Solve Problem Of Cavities

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A new enzyme technique that has been used successfully to wipe out tooth cavities in hamsters and rats may be available for humans in three or four years, dental researchers have reported.

The enzyme, dextranese, "unglues" tough masses of bacteria which cling to teeth. It could conceivably be added to tooth paste or administered by other means.

The dental specialists disclosed the new possibility at the opening of the 46th general meeting of the International Association for Dental Research.

The theory behind the use of dextranese is that it could dissolve acid producing bacteria that creates cavities.

The experiments on hamsters and rats have been carried out at the National Institute of Dental Health at Bethesda, Md.

Dr. Robert Fitzgerald, head of the project at Bethesda, has applied to the Federal Drug Administration for permission to test dextranese on humans.

Doctors attending the conference expressed cautious optimism dextranese would work for humans.

Dr. Sigmund S. Scoransky of Forsyth Dental Center, Boston, said clinical testing would take two or three years. If successful, researchers would then need to reach agreement on the best way to administer dextranese to humans.

Scoransky said dextranese is manufactured relatively easily with a mold.

Marion C. Ibach is chairman of the board of Marin Hospital District.

On another subject, Dr. Robert Hertz, of the University of California at Los Angeles, told the conference cobalt radiation may make practical teeth transplants from one person to another.

Radiation not only preserves a tooth for indefinite storage, but may also solve the problem of rejection, Hertz said.

Thursday Session

The San Rafael Fire Commission will meet at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in city hall to discuss proposed building code changes which are related to fire control.

H. Dieter Schugt is president of Marin Committee for Fair Play.

Three Proposals For Aid To BART's Financial Woes

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayors of cities in Contra Costa and Alameda counties, meeting with Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco, have proposed three ways to rescue the Bay Area Rapid Transit District from a $144 million shortage.

The mayors said after the meeting yesterday they favored two or more of these methods to keep the unfinished BART under construction:

A 10 cent increase in the 25 cent tolls on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge.

A sales tax on gasoline in the three counties involved.

An increase in the automobile "in lieu" tax of $5 per year car and $8 per year per truck.

The bridge toll increase was the unanimous choice.

The mayors' group, calling itself the Ad Hock Committee of Mayors and Supervisors on BART's Financial Problems, will meet next Thursday in Sacramento with legislators of the three counties.

"No one in this roo mis committing his city or county," said Alioto. "We are trying to agree on a common aproach to this urgent problem."

One estimate was that a 1 cent sales tax on gasoline sold on vehicles registered in the three counties could raise $8.7 million annually.

If Italy's 2,294-mile coastline were stretched out in a single one, it would reach from Rome beyond the northern tip of Norway.

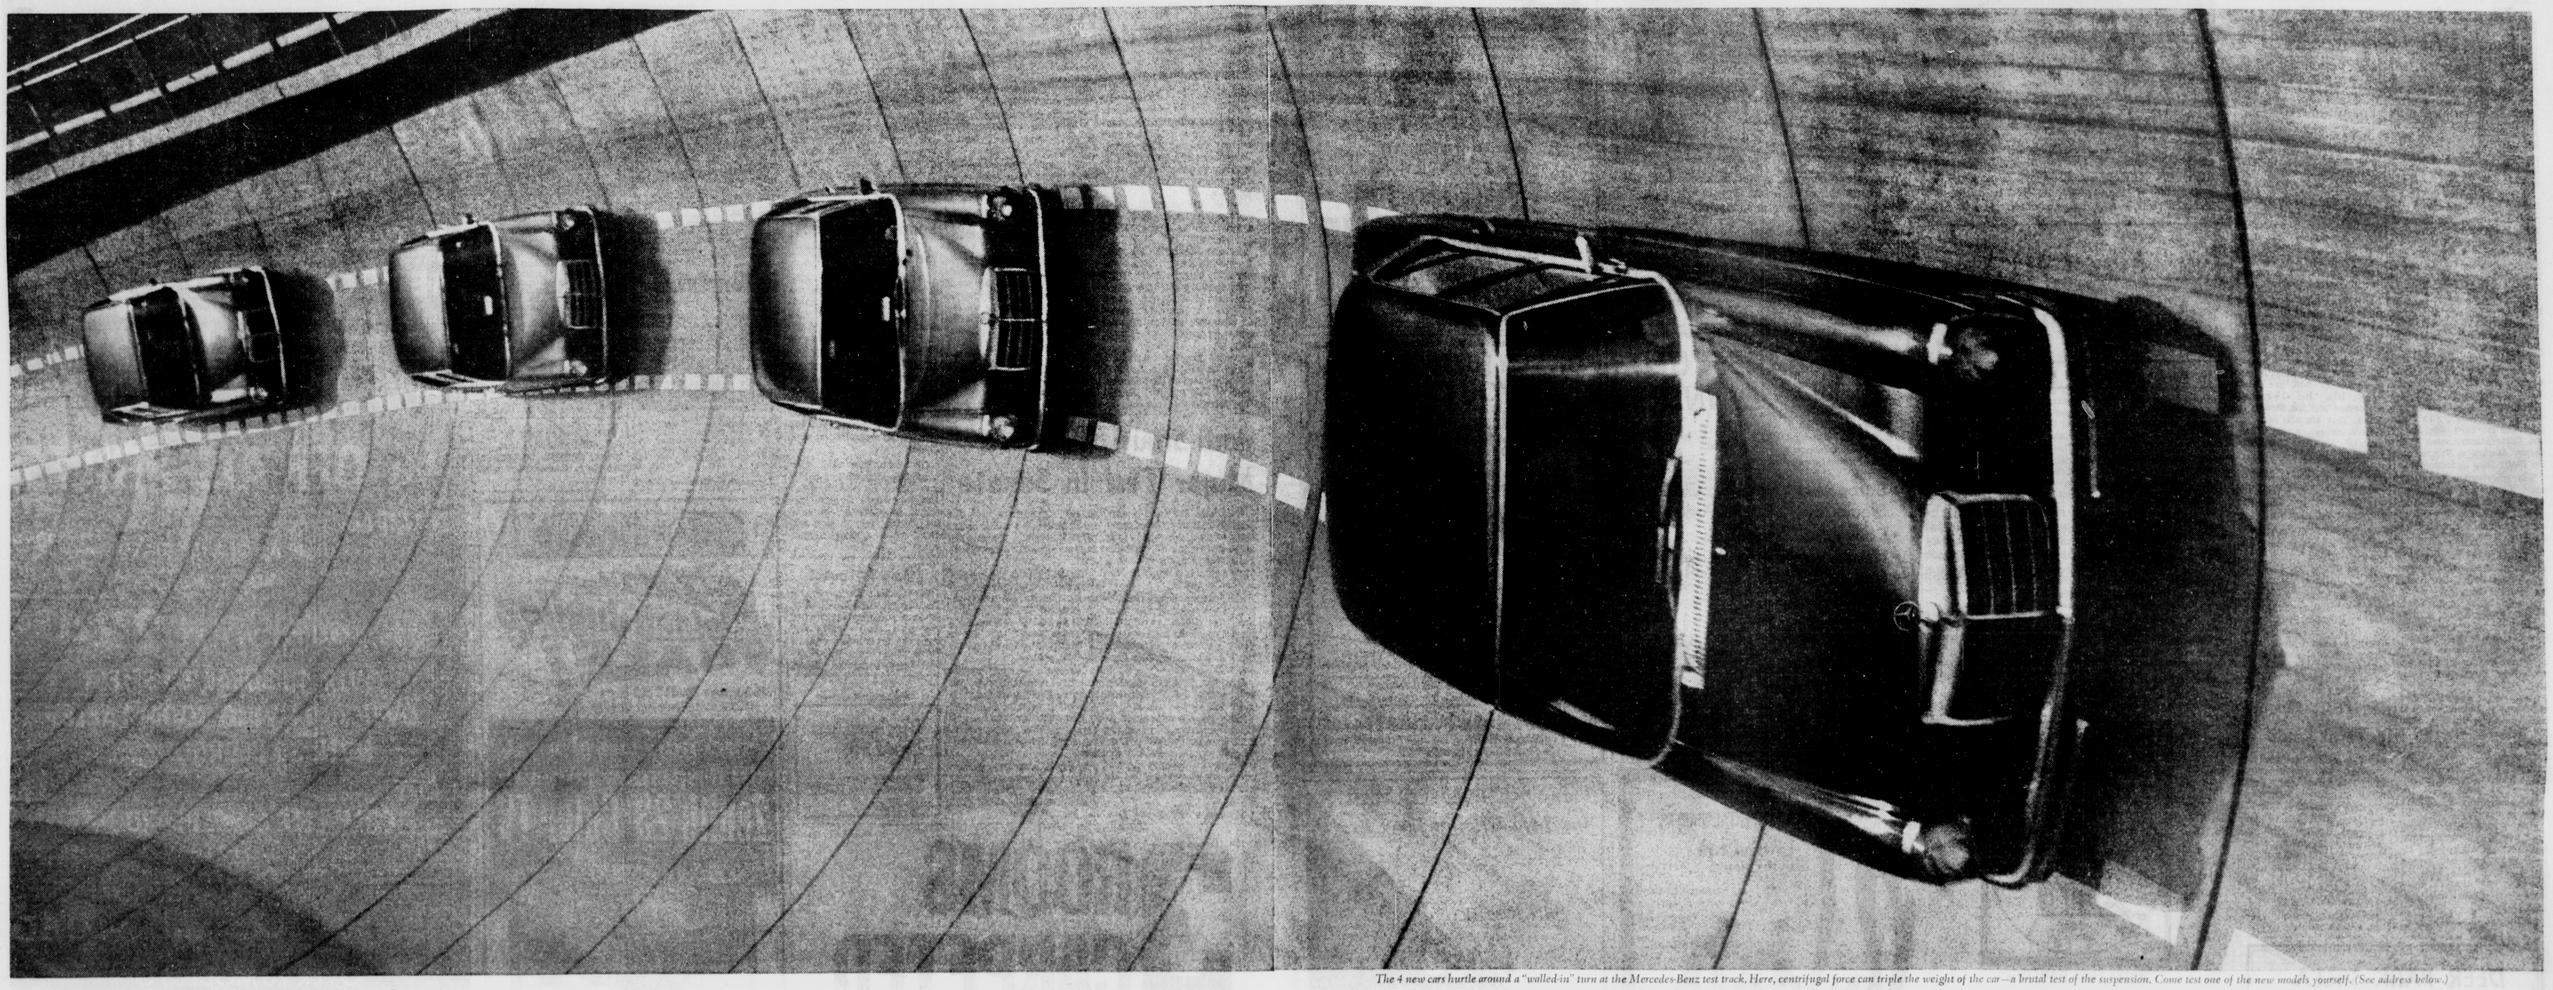
Police Laugh Off Nude-In

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Reports that San Francisco's police are watching the hippie residents of the Haight-Ashbury District like hawks apparently have been grossly exaggerated.

A police spokesman at a station in Golden Gate Park laughed off rumors that a large number of flower children welcomed spring Wednesday with a "nude-in."

"We had a few unconfirmed reports of people taking their clothes off in the park," he said, "but the guys who went over said they saw only a few men without shirts on."

However, news photographs which circulated yesterday showed about 2,000 hippies gathered to welcome spring — including about 50 men and women sunworshippers who were naked.



The 4 new cars hurtle around a "walled-in" turn at the Mercedes-Benz test track. Here, centrifugal force can triple the weight of the car—a brutal test of the suspension. Come test one of the new models yourself. (See address below.)

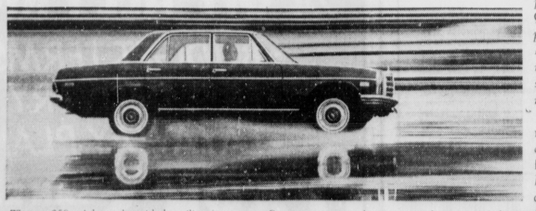
Announcing 4 defiantly "over-engineered" cars from Mercedes-Benz. On display today.

An automotive expert previewed the 4 new Mercedes-Benz motor cars in our picture. His sum-up: "Over-engineered."

He was right. By most standards, these Mercedes-Benz motor cars are "over-engineered." They go far beyond the requirements of conventional automotive engineering.

Example: Every one of the 4 new Mercedes-Benz cars has power disc brakes on all 4 wheels. The same braking system used on 180-mph Grand Prix racing cars. Some critics would say this is too much of a good thing—needless in most driving situations. Mercedes-Benz engineers say, "Nonsense. Caliper-type disc brakes have proved, in test after test, that they provide the most precise braking possible—at all speeds. Put them wherever you've got a wheel."

Incidentally, Mercedes-Benz doesn't believe in naming its cars after animals, fish, and miscellaneous wildlife. After all, a car is a machine. It shouldn't sound like it belongs in a zoo. The names of the four new Mercedes-Benz models (the 250, the 230, the 220 Diesel, and the 220) simply indicate engine size. The 250, for example, displaces 2.5 liters.



The new 250: a 4-door sedan with the agility of a sports car. One reason: a patented suspension with two anti-sway bars.

What "over-engineering" means to you.

"Over-engineering" isn't a jazzy, hoked-up advertising phrase. It has meaning for anybody who's ever been dismayed by the lack of genuine engineering and craftsmanship in a contemporary motor car. It has meaning for anybody who's ever driven a car with mushy steering, lazy brakes, annoying rattles, and seats that leave you feeling like you took a long spin in a cement mixer.

"Over-engineering" is reflective of a basic Mercedes-Benz attitude, best expressed by Automobile Quarterly Magazine: "The prime concern of Mercedes-Benz has always been engineering—not styling, or sales, or what the rest of the industry is doing."

"Over-engineering" makes the new line of Mercedes-Benz cars handle differently, steer differently, brake differently than any conventional automobile on the market. They are, in fact, decidedly *un*conventional motor cars. Here are some facts to prove it:

- Unitized Body and Chassis. Most conventional automobiles have a separate body and chassis, held together with bolts. After a while, the bolts can work loose and rattle. On a rough road, the racket can be deafening.

Mercedes-Benz engineers insist that their cars deliver rattle-free performance. That's why the body is welded to the chassis with 10,000 individual welds. The result: a single structure of immense strength and rigidity. After 50,000 miles or so, you may begin to wonder if your Mercedes-Benz will ever rattle.

- Independent Suspension. On some cars, you get an alarming sensation if you brake or accelerate suddenly on a washboard road. The rear wheels shudder, and the whole car shakes violently. This can happen if the car has a conventional rigid "beam" axle.

Mercedes-Benz engineers patented an all-independent suspension that gives each wheel the freedom to move up and down without disturbing the others. On a washboard road, the suspension is soft enough to smother road jolts. On a tight curve, it's firm enough to fight body sway.

This unique suspension system is one of more than 5,200 basic engineering patents held by Mercedes-Benz.

- "Fatigue-proof" seats. Take a day-long trip in some cars and you'll come out feeling like a damp washrag. Those seats that felt so good at first turned out to be too soft in the long run.

Mercedes-Benz cars are built to be as comfortable as they are roadworthy. Orthopedic physicians were called in to help design the seats so that you'll have proper back support on cross-country tours as well as short hops to the shopping center. When you slip into one of these carefully contoured seats, it will feel firm at first, but once you get used to it, you'll never settle for "marshmallow" seats again. Mercedes-Benz engineers have respect for your backbone.

- Indefatigable engines. If it was possible to cruise for hours in your car at full throttle, what do you think would happen? Chances are, you'd reduce the motor to a smoking ruin.

Mercedes-Benz engines are designed to cruise at full throttle all day long, because on the wide-open highways of Europe, they often do! The engine of every Mercedes-Benz automobile is assembled to aircraft tolerances. The bearings, for instance, are machined to 4/10,000ths of an inch—about one-eighth the size of a human hair.

To help you decide.

The only way to appreciate Mercedes-Benz features and philosophy of "over-engineering" is to take a demonstration drive.

Here's a fact-capsule on each of the four new cars, to help you decide which one you'd like to test drive:

Give the steering a real workout. The new Mercedes-Benz 250 goes exactly where you aim it—doesn't wander, weave, or wallow—even on hairpin turns.

The 250: "A 3,000-pound sedan with the handling ability of a sports car."

The 250 is the premier model of the new Mercedes-Benz motor cars. Top speed of the 250 is comparable to a standard V-8, yet its fuel economy is that of a Six. Its outside dimensions are close to a domestic compact, but inside measurements are nearer to those of a full-size luxury car. "Over-engineering" makes it worth every penny of its $5,150.*

The 230: "For those who want superb engineering in a modestly priced car."

The 230's engine is a little smaller, simpler, and less powerful than the 250's, but its overhead camshaft engine still squeezes power and economy from every drop of gas. If you like the 250 but don't demand its highly sophisticated engine, you could pocket a tidy saving. The 230's price is a modest $4,631.*

The 220 Diesel: "So economical, it doesn't even use gasoline."

This is the one car in the Mercedes-Benz line that runs on Diesel fuel. The sturdy Diesel engine does away with carburetors, spark plugs and other paraphernalia of the conventional gasoline engine, yet has enough power to cruise at 80 mph (where the law allows). The 220 Diesel is more expensive than conventional economy cars, yet it could save you more money in the long run (say, 100,000 miles or more) than the flimsiest little economy car you could buy. Price: $4,580.*

The 220: "For people who are diffident about Diesels."

The 220 is exactly the same car as the 220 Diesel except that it does not have a Diesel engine. The 220 has a ruggedly powerful engine that sips gasoline at a miserly rate. Price: $4,446.*

Take a test drive

We invite you to test drive these models yourself. Right now, they are on display in our showroom—ready for your inspection. Kick the tires. Slam the door. Raise the hood. Get behind the wheel. Then make your own decision about "over-engineering." You'll probably find it boils down to this: "Do you want more engineering than most cars offer you these days? Do you want a car that's built to run long after 'planned obsolescence' has antiquated conventional cars? Do you want a car that has more in reserve than you may ever need?"

If that proposition sounds interesting, come in today—and see 4 new motor cars that were "built to be the best, not the best seller."

A word about that word "Announcing"

Mercedes-Benz does not announce new models very often. There are no annual model change-overs. And "planned obsolescence" has never been part of the Mercedes-Benz philosophy. Nor will it be (the engineers are pretty defiant about that, too).

When a new model is introduced, it is only when significant engineering advances can be most fully realized by designing an entirely new car.

Even then, new models are not introduced to meet the frantic schedules of the "announcement season." They are put on the market when Mercedes-Benz engineers say the cars are ready—not a day sooner.

For these 4 new models, the engineers spent 5 years making sure—from drawing board to the test track to the dealer's showrooms today. The wait is worth it. These are the best automobiles Mercedes-Benz has ever built.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Tiburon Restaurant Couple Hunting For Iberian Wines

Kirby Atterbury of the Caprice waterside dinery in Tiburon and his wife Renee are traveling in Europe. If not in Spain or Portugal, they should be there soon.

This excursion should probably be referred to as "Project Winecellar." The Atterburys have a big one at the Caprice and they take great pride in stocking it with rare vintages.

They are particularly enthusiastic about the wines of Spain and Portugal. They now have a number of these Iberian wine bottlings under their own label, both at the Caprice and at several Marin Stores.

There are also three different ports, a Spanish sherry and a liquer from Andalusia. So far I've tried only the Vinho Verde. You may enjoy it more than champagne. I did.

All are imported for the Caprice by Max Sobel Wholesale Liquors and will be found at the Bourbon Shops in Northgate, Marinwood, Montecito Shopping Center, San Rafael, Sil's Shopping Center, East San Rafael and Corte Madera, also at the Corner Market in Tiburon and the Bottle Shop in Sausalito.

You may order them with your dinner at the Caprice, where maitre Roger Bracali and chef Candido are keeping the fires up while the Atterburys are away.

I THINK every community of any size must have its downtown Chinese restaurant. San Rafael has three of them.

The midtown one, where everything is going on, is Eng's on B Street, near most Fourth Street shopping and business. Shoppers and business workers alike have become loyal patrons over Glenn Eng's seven years here.

He is never quite satisfied with the way his restaurant is laid out, though it's tidy, clean and pleasant. He's already remodeled it three or four times and now is talking about stretching the kitchen — but in which direction I'm not exactly sure.

The size of the place isn't really important.

When you eat Glenn's crisp (and unwrapped) chicken rolls, his pork spareribs or his sauteed asparagus with prawns (or with crab or anything else you like with this) — that's what's important and also good food.

NEW ATTRACTION at the historic Blue Rock Inn in Larkspur is English pianist - Johnny Robinson, only about nine months out of Britain but already no stranger to Marin County lounges.

The Blue Rock has installed a piano bar for sing-along enjoyment and Johnny officiates there on Friday and Saturday nights from 9 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.

CONSTRUCTION of the new Denny's Restaurant in Novato may begin soon; there should be an opening around June, at the east side of Highway 101 between Grant and De Long Avenues on property purchased through Redwood Realtors.

HUNGARIAN-BORN GUITARIST Gabor Szabo opened at the Trident in Sausalito this week and will be there through the rest of the month. He has several record albums out, some best sellers. Appearing with him are Louis Kabok, bass; Hal Gordon, percussion; and Jim Stewart on guitar. They are also heard on Szabo's newest album "Bacchanal," his first for Skye Records.

WITH THIS KIND of weather, Bill Bisson has been eying the outdoor patio at Bill and Adolph's West End Villa, San Rafael. I wouldn't be surprised to find it opening early this year.

And that might be good; Bill and his maitre d' Harry Auda can stop exchanging those burning looks when one or the other cooks up a raging flambe. Harry's forte has always been everything from a steak Diane to crepes Suzette — but Bill has taken to challenging him lately. The way they go at it, don't be surprised to hear the fire siren any day. With the patio open, and with one inside and the other outside they might be tempted to set up just an ordinary crossfire — not a conflagration.

THERE IS LIVE SOUND for listening and dancing every night at Taberna in San Rafael. Thursday, Friday and Saaturday find the Johnny Allair Trio, with Johnny at the piano, Pete Lind on drums and Pierre Joseph on bass, from 9:30 p.m.

Sunday, of course, is Taberna's jazz session time starting at 7 with its spaghetti feed. Singer-pianist Frank Meza is still there Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights with his bongos, maracas, castanets and Latin numbers.

JEAN DENNING is the featured organist now at San Rafael Joe's — not Larry Vannucci. Apparently Larry's name was not removed from Joe's ad on this page last week, causing some confusion. Jean plays Tuesday through Saturday nights. Something new starting tonight: Sing-along words flashed on a screen to match her music.

RECENT ENTRIES in the Greatest Fish Story Ever Told contest at Sabella's are keeping Tiburon author Kenneth Lamott occupied trying to decide on a winner. He promises to have a selection by April 1.

Lamott, by the way, had an article, "The Making of California," in the January issue of Holiday. Another, "Rich Men of Los Angeles," is due to appear in a forthcoming Harper's. His recent book is "The Bastile Day Parade."

APPEARING TONIGHT and tomorrow at the Ark in Sausalito from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. will be The Boogie. Breakfast show from 2 to 6 a.m. features the Whispering Shadows.

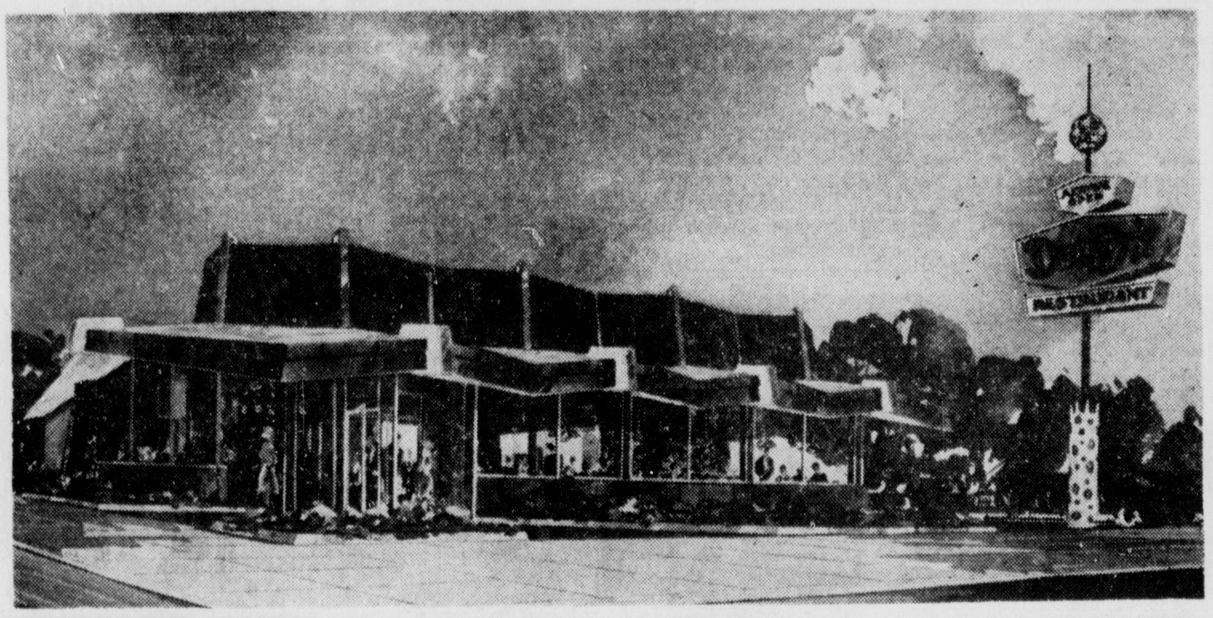
NINETEENTH CENTURY copperplate etchings, engravings and lithographs by European artists from 1825 to 1925 are being shown starting next week at the Musee d'Art International in Dominic's, San Rafael and will be there through April 14. Gallery hours are from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. seven days a week.



TO OPEN THIS SUMMER—Work is expected to begin soon on this proposed Novato outlet of Denny's Restaurants, Inc. Headquartered in Los Angeles, the company is 81st in size among 400 restaurant chains in the country. It has 120 units and does $31 million in annual sales.

Rec Posts Open In Terra Linda

Summer positions are open for recreation leaders in the Terra Linda Recreation and Park District, recreation supervisor Larry Wolfe announced today.

Positions available are playground leaders, arts and crafts specialists, and day camp director. Those interested should apply at the Terra Linda Community Center at 670 Del Ganado Road between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., said Wolf.

The summer recreation program will start on June 15.

KENNEDY DECLARES LBJ DIVIDING U.S.

Californians Hold Rockefeller Dropout Adds No Push To Nixon's Bandwagon

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Political strategists of both parties started over again today, with new vehemence in the Kennedy presidential challenge confronting Democrats and the prospect of an uncontested Nixon nomination in the Republican camp. (See also Kennedy story, page 1.)

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., cut loose on President Johnson yesterday in a quick dash through the Deep South, lashing the President personally for "dividing the country" by pursuing "misguided policies."

YOUTHFUL CROWDS

Tumultuous, youthful crowds cheered him at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn., and the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa as Kennedy scored Johnson's foreign and domestic policies and equated Johnson's response to dissent with dictatorship. Official Democratic leaders cold-shouldered his appearance.

"Who is it that is truly dividing the country?" Kennedy said at Vanderbilt. "It is not those who call for change, it is those who make present policy . . . who have removed themselves from the American tradition . . . "

At another point Kennedy said, "Every dictatorship has ultimately strangled in the web of repression it wove for its people, making mistakes that could not be corrected because criticism was prohibited.

"For now we hear, from men in the highest places, that the 'time for debate is over'; that 'the time has come to unite'; we are asked 'which side are you on?'"

LBJ AIDE JEERED

In Madison, Wis., meantime, antiwar protesters in a crowd at the University of Wisconsin heckled and jeered Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman, blocking his attempt to finish a campaign speech in Johnson's behalf.

About half the crowd of 600 youths joined in the disruption, but a coed who stood up and apologized for the others received a standing ovation. Freeman appeared unruffled by the disorder.

In the Republican camp, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller stunned GOP moderates with a surprise announcement taking himself out of active competition for the GOP presidential nomination. But he again affirmed he would accept a convention draft.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, preparing for more campaigning in Wisconsin's April 2 primary, said a Rockefeller convention draft was unlikely unless he made some mistakes in his own campaign before them. "I'm not saying at this point that we've wrapped it up," Nixon said. "I don't take anything for granted."

GLOOMY GOP

Rockefeller's withdrawal left Nixon's staff jubilant, but brought gloom to Republican moderates.

Gov. George Romney of Michigan, who dropped out of the GOP race to leave room for Rockefeller or another moderate, withheld comment, but his wife, Lenore, said she believed her husband would have stayed in the contest if he had thought Rockefeller would decline to campaign.

Gov. Ronald Reagan of California said Rockefeller's decision would not cause him to "reassess" his own status as a noncandidate. "I still hold to the belief that the decision will be made at the convention," he said.

State GOP chairman James W. Halley agreed, saying that as yet "I don't think there's any bandwagon to get on."

Peace candidate Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., said in Milwaukee that his campaign for the Democratic nomination might be boosted in Wisconsin by Rockefeller's decision to stay out.

Some Republicans may cross over to him in the primary to show their disapproval of the war, he said.

Bay Heiress Wins Battle For Daughter

LONDON (AP) — England's high court today granted San Francisco heiress Dolly Fritz Cope the right to take home her 4 and one-half-year-old daughter Isabella, taken from a school in California by the child's father two months ago.

A 10-day legal tussle behind closed doors ended with the high court judgment.

The child's father, London antique dealer Donald MacMasters, 39, was described in the high court as "a plausible and glib adventurer, living on his wits."

Judge Sir Dennys Buckley said Isabella's abduction was part of a campaign by MacMasters against his former wife, a Nob Hill heiress.

This, the judge added, involved not only their two children but claims made by MacMasters on property.

The gestation period of the elephant is 645 days.

Humphrey Reports LBJ Reviewing Viet Stand

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Johnson Administration has begun an "intensive review" of its Vietnam policy, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey disclosed today.

"Over the past number of days, an intensive review has been undertaken within our government to find some better or more effective way to peace," Humphrey said.

The vice president's statement came eight days after Sen. Robert F. Kennedy urged Johnson to name a special panel to reevaluate U. S. policy in Vietnam.

The President rejected the idea, and Kennedy announced Saturday, two days later, that he would challenge Johnson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Humphrey, in what appeared to be a reference to Kennedy, said in the text of his speech today that "others feel more could somehow be done to bring peace today."

He observed, however, that "their concern has yet to be matched by their specifics."

Humphrey also accused "a candidate of the other party" — obviously meaning Richard M. Nixon —of failure to say how he could deliver on a pledge to end the war.

"A candidate of the other party says he has a plan for peace in Vietnam but he can't unveil it until next year," Humphrey said. "What kind of cynical partisanship is this?"

Humphrey said Johnson was following a course in Southeast Asia set by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and President John F. Kennedy.

The Marin steering committee of the Eugene McCarthy for President Committee will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in the home of Mrs. Harold Watkin, co-chairman, at 10 Acorn Way, Kent Woodlands.

Proposed Texts On Display In Two Libraries

About 100 school textbooks, recommended for statewide use, are on display at the county public library in the Civic Center and the Mill Valley public library on Throckmorton Avenue.

Under state law, all prospective textbooks must be displayed in 50 libraries throughout the state for 60 days before they are adopted by the State Board of Education.

Marin County Library and the Mill Valley library are among the 50 selected in the state for the textbook displays.

Forms are available at both libraries for the public to make comments or criticisms and send to the State Curriculum Commission.

On May 9 and 10, the State Curriculum Commission will meet in Los Angeles to determine which textbooks are acceptable.

President of Marin Radio Control Group is Sam Crawford.

Delivery Man Accused Of Looting AEC Petty Cash

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Robert B. Moynahan, a delivery man for the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center in Menlo Park, was charged yesterday with stealing petty cash from the Atomic Energy Commission.

Authorities said as much as $50,000 may be missing.

A criminal information in 14 counts was filed against Moynahan, 26, Sunnyvale, charging him with taking a total of about $1,000 between October, 1964, and October, 1967.

The FBI said Moynahan was sent on errands to pick up supplies and took money from petty cash, returning a receipt. Agents said he obtained blank receipt forms and over the three-year period turned them in for items that were never purchased.

Moynahan was charged with nine misdemeanors, each of which carry a maximum penalty of one year and a $1,000 fine, and with five felonies, punishable by 10 years and $10,000 fines.

U.S. Dist. Judge Alfonso J. Zirpoli released Moynahan on his recognizance and ordered him to return for plea April 11.

Waste Controls Policy Delayed

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — The San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control board yesterday deferred to April 30 action on proposed tighter standards for discharge in to the bay by Ross Valley Sanitary District, San Quentin Prison and San Rafael Sanitation District.

No action was taken because of a lack of time on the board's long agenda, a spokesman reported. The April meeting will begin at 9 a.m. in the State Building, 1111 Jackson Street, Oakland.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, March 22, the 82nd day of 1968 with 284 to follow.

The moon is between its last quarter and new phase. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Mars and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1794 Congress passed legislation forbidding slave trading with foreign nations.

In 1820, Commodore Stephan Decatur was mortally wounded in a duel with Commodore James Barron near Washington.

In 1874, the Young Men's Hebrew Association was formed.

In 1941, the Grand Coulee dam on the Columbia River began producing electrical power.

A thought for the day: British novelist Gleghorn Gaskell said, "A man is so in the way in the house."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Logic Can Be Quite Profitable In Bringing Home A Big Defeat

Few defenders are logical enough to make startling plays. Perhaps we're afraid of being scoffed at as the mad professor, so we put up a conventional defense instead of following our logic wherever it leads us.

TAKES KING

West opened the four of hearts, and East won with the king. The defenders had agreed to lead the lowest card from x-x-x-, and this together with South's violent bidding told East that South had a singleton heart. It was clear also that South had the ace of diamonds and the king of spades. In short, East had a very accurate picture of the South hand.

If East tamely returned a diamond, South would take the ace of diamonds, lead a spade to the ace and return the queen of hearts to ruff out East's ace.

South would next take take the king of spades, ruff a spade in a dummy and discard his last spade on the jack of hearts. He could then cheerfully give up one trump trick to the king.

CAN STOP RUFF

East could stop the ruff by leading a low club at the second trick. But South would win in dummy with the queen of clubs, ruff out the ace of hearts, take the ace of clubs and give up a trick to the king of clubs. South would get to dummy with the ace of spades to take two discards on the jack and ten of hearts.

EAST'S LOGIC

East's logic told him that he not only had to kill dummy's ruffing trick but also dummy's trump entry. Only one card could do the job, so at the second trick ast returned the king of clubs.

This startling play cost East his trump trick but enabled him to win two spade tricks instead. Logic can be quite profitable.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one club.

Do not open with a shutout bid of three or four clubs when you have such fine high-card structure. You might easily miss a game or even a slam.

Brazilians Planning Super-Dam Project

RIO DE JANEIRO (UPI)—The Brazilian Engineering Association has sponsored studyy of a proposed dam on the Amazon River at Obitos, a point where it narrows midway between Manaus and Belem.

The dam would be 200 miles long and cost $35 billion. It would generate at least 60 million kilowatts of electricity, 20 times that projected for the Aswan Dam in Egypt.

Americans In Plane Hijacked To Cuba

CARACAS (UPI)—Armed passengers hijacked a Venezuelan airliner with 50 persons aboard and forced it to fly 900 miles to Cuba where it landed with its fuel tanks almost empty, officials said today.

They said between five and ten Americans were on the plane.

Officials at Caracas airport said the twin-engine Avensa Airlines turboprop was on a flight from Caracas to Maracaibo when controllers heard the pilot send a radio message to Cuba.

"I have three passengers who want to go to Havana," he said.

Later reports from Venezuela said four men with machine guns were involved.

They said the plane had fuel for about four hours and was in the air four hours and 16 minutes when it finally touched down at Santiago De Cuba, a city at the eastern end of the island.

An airline spokesman said almost all of the passengers were non-Venezuelans and he said there were "five to 10" Americans aboard the plane.

The Americans were identified as Richard Sandy, his wife Essie and their children 2 and 3; Frank Lipscomb and U.D. Clay. The men were oil company employees.

The spokesman said the Foreign Office began negotiations today through the Swiss Embassy in Havana for their return and return of the $1 million plane.

The hijacking was the third in as many weeks and one of dozens which have occurred since Premier Fidel Castro came to power.

Cuban authorities normally release the planes within a few hours but Castro said in a speech last week that he may confiscate U.S. planes. He said he would hold them for Cuban boats and aircraft taken to the United State by refugees and never returned.

Nevada Test Detected In Washington

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission set off a nuclear blast deep underground today, touching off an earthshock.

It was recorded on seismographs in Washington and was felt in high rise buildings here.

The blast, described as a low intermediate yield equalling 20,000 to 200,000 tons of TNT, was the seventh weapons retest announced this year.

Seismologists at Washington's National Earthquake Center said the shock, recorded at 7 a.m. PST, was estimated to be of magnitude between 5¼ and 5½ on the Richter scale.

And they said a natural earthquake of such magnitude, if it occurred in a populated area, "probably wouldn't be damaging in the United States because of the type of building construction used here."

Seismologists at the University of California had previously estimated that the earthshock was centered in the Utah-Nevada border region.

But a seismologist at the National Earthquake Center said it definitely came from the nuclear blast.

Ghilotti Fund Papers Are Filed

A foundation to administer funds given in memory of the late William A. Ghilotti, who was president of the San Rafael construction firm, Ghilotti Brothers, filed incorporation papers as a non-profit corporation this week in Sacramento.

Contributions will be given to Healds College in San Francisco for scholarships to enginering students. Directors of the foundation are Mario and Dino Ghilotti, brothers of William A. Ghilotti, and B. R. Kirchner.

Ghilotti died Feb. 15, 1967, at the age of 53.

$50,000 Allocated For Median Barrier

The California Highway Commission yesterday allocated $50,000 to install three miles of median cable barrier on Highway 101 in Marin County between the Pacheco Creek overcrossing and a half-mile north of Route 37 in Novato.

State Highway Engineer John A. Legarra said the money will come from a special $4,000,000 fund in the state highway budget for correcting points of accident concentration by engineering methods costing between $5,000 and $50,000.

Employees Group General Manager Will Resign Post

Frederick H. Ward, general manager of the Marin County Employees Association, submitted his resignation to the association Wednesday night.

Ward had announced last month that he would leave the job July 1 to seek parttime consultant's work.

Paul Brusseau, president of the association said that a job description will be advertised to get a successor for Ward, who is the association's first general manager.

About 50 employees at the meeting in the Civic Center cafeteria also heard Gail Cooley, director of the Social Security office in San Rafael, discuss the latest changes in social security laws.

Fire Victim Still Listed As Critical

A 63-year-old woman, burned in a fire in San Rafael early yesterday, remained in critical condition today in Marin General Hospital.

The woman, Mrs. Esther Kerr of Helena, Ark., was burned when she apparently suffered a heart attack and fell into bed with a lighted cigarette at the home of a cousin, Mrs. Martha Olson, at 322 Highland Avenue.

Case For Payroll Tax, And Role Of Commuter

San Francisco's Mayor Joseph Alioto has proposed his version of a commuter tax, in the form of a one per cent payroll tax on those employed in San Francisco who live outside the city.

It is called an earnings tax. Mayor Alioto feels confident it is constitutional, noting that something similar exists already in 141 cities in the United States. He holds that city services which are provided for those who earn their living there justifies the tax.

INTERESTING along this line was some testimony before the United States Commission on Civil Rights during its hearings last May in San Francisco and Oakland, the voluminous transcript of which has just been published.

During the Oakland hearing, the commission heard from Donald P. McCullum, a lawyer who is president of the Oakland branch of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

Speaking of the problem of Negroes in Oakland McCullum said:

"The problem of the central city is that suburbia still desires to control the central city, and at night time they desert it to the natives and then return again the next morning for their own economic security."

He was asked by Commissioner Robert S. Rankin whether he thought the people who live outside the city should join in paying the expenses of the city. He replied, "That's a wonderful idea."

"A payroll tax," declared McCullum, "would be getting to the very heart of what I am crying about, which is the people who come here and make the money, and take it back to suburbia, and they are the ones that have us enslaved. We are their colonies."

THAT'S ONE VIEWPOINT.

Get a group of Marin retailers together and you hear another viewpoint: The complaint that too many Marinites' dollars are spent in San Francisco.

This complaint is heard also from city and county officials, many of whom maintain that property taxes are forced up because too many dollars go for out-of-county purchases, diminishing city and county sales tax revenues.

THERE IS STILL ANOTHER facet to this.

It is demonstrable that in commuter communities, participation in local government is at lower level than in more isolated communities. This is reflected in the vote at local elections.

For instance, in local school board elections in Marin County last year, in which there were contests, the percentage of registered voters who cast ballots ran as low as 20.4 per cent (in Fairfax). The only districts with turnout exceeding 50 per cent were three rural districts outside the big city commute range: West Marin, Tomales Bay and Laguna.

School bond elections last year drew only 28.3 per cent turnout in Dixie district, and ranged below 50 per cent in five other school districts with heavy commuter population. But in Tomales High School District, three such elections drew voter turnouts of 83.5 per cent, 85.8 per cent, and 80.1 per cent.

IF, AS ATTORNEY McCullum told the civil rights commission, commuters seek to control the cities where they work, it would seem they are correspondingly uninterested in controlling the cities and districts where they live.

Hilarita Resident Says Pledge Broken

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We residents of Hilarita Housing were promised and assured that we would not have to move before 1972. Now some 30 families have been notified they must move before Dec. 31, 1968, although to some other apartments here. It is very confusing to the remaining residents when the ax is going to fall.

We assumed that the supervisors had some control over the housing authority, as they appoint them to their posts. It does not seem so by the letter I received (from County Administrator Alan Bruce). It would appear that they are a dictatorial entity unto themselves.

To whom may we appeal for aid in our situation?

Some of us were born in Tiburon, others residents for 20-30-40-50 years.

What can we do?

Yes, we have a voting power, but by the time the elections are over and counted, it could happen that we will be dispersed to other climes. Does anyone have an answer? we do not want to move.

Can U.S. Be Guardian Of World?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

There have been many times in the history of our country when the American people have been forced to participate in an unpopular war. In each case we failed to win a complete victory. This does not necessarily mean that we did not have the required forces, but instead that might does not always make our policies right.

How can any country regard itself as the guardian of the world? Is this decision made by the people of our country or is it approved and accepted by the countries encompassed by our protection? Can men willingly choose to have their destiny decided by someone else? Can the people of a nation forget the responsibility they have to themselves? The answer must be no if humanity is to survive. Man cannot live on war becuse war can only produce a decadent society.

Is it possible that for once in our history we are wrong? If we are, would it not be better to swallow our pride and admit to the fact? Now is the time that we must make a decision.

Strange Situation On Fairfax Bonds

Editor, Independent-Journal:

A strange situaation arose at the Fairfax Council meeting of March 11. At the previous meeting the council decided to put the Fairfax civic center project in three parts on the June ballot, (A) firehouse, (B) city hall and police, (C) council chambers.

A the March 11 meeting a motion was made to delete the council chambers of the project.

A resolution by the bond attorneys was already made up The question is, did the council instruct the city administrator to have this resolution prepared before the motion or does the city administrator make the policies for the city?

To my knowledge there were no other meetings between above-mentioned council meetings.

Was there a violation of the Brown Act?

Contractors Back Tax Proposal

Editor, Independent-Journal:

It has come to our attention that with all the discussion of property tax relief to the homeowner, we as taxpayers can actively get behind a bill now pending in the legislature.

We actively support Casey Bill H.R. 358 which would permit a deduction on federal income tax up to $750 in any one year for money spent by the taxpayer on maintenance and repair of his principal place of residence. Also, owners of rental housing may use this same deduction of $750 but amortized over a 60 month period.

Not only would this give the homeowner an opportunity for a tax deduction, but at the same time allow him to beautify and keep the appearance of his home in good condition. . . .

Debates Prove Inspiring To Judge

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The next time that you think of today's teen-ager, of the student protesters, drug addicts, and potential victims of racial conflict; do not stop here to form an image of tomorrow's men.

Satauday, March 16, I was privileged to particiapte as a judge during the four rounds, and the final, of the Golden Gate Speech Association's debate tournament, Mrs. Lenn B. Bragg and Terra Linda High School as host. Approximately 100 two-member teams (boys and girls) from 50 schools in Marin, Contra Costa, Alameda, Sonoma, San Mateo, and San Francisco county not only were in active participation; but all did so well that, among the fellow judges, I heard only inspired optimism and justified trust in these teams' insight and open-mind ability to present sound individual opinion and welcome rebuttal.

These are students today that will make the decisions of tomorrow. We all have heard the pessimistic predictions expressed by those who see hopelessness in objective effort, and are aware of their lack of initiative.

Conflict has always been the biography of man. Now there is the fear of man destroying himself, or becoming programmed to obedience to machines.

The participants of Sturday's debate tournament very aptly represented man's authority over any and all computer systems. They made clear the reality that only man possesses emotional stimuli-response variant and will use cybernation to its best advantage to man, not over him. But!

In the days to come, it is the responsibility of youths' parents and society that will determine whether youth uses primitive physical violence or realistic, simpler, and more challenging methods of participation (such as debate) to solve situations of conflict.

We have been shown the power and influence of debate; are we to settle for crude retarding methodds, from which our youth are confined to choose? The people dictate how conflict is resolved. The teams of this tournament have shown the most effective method, and deserve the people's recognition and moral support, for they have earned it.

Sausalito Stinketh? No, School System

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Political Scene Comes To Life -And It's Thanks To The People

WASHINGTON — There's a real happening on the political scene — to the public benefit.

The renomination of President Johnson can no longer be taken for granted. He should earn it, not command it. We are beginning to get a meaningful debate on Vietnam. What looked like a dull, routine pre-convention campaign is coming alive.

And what is most significant is that it is not the politicans who have forced this new and vibrant climate on apathetic voters; it is a deeply concerned public opinion which has forced it on the politicians.

THE UPTHRUST of public opinion forced George Romney to quit the Republican race. The voters in New Hampshire showed they were sufficiently anti-Johnson to give Sen. Eugene McCarthy a chance of taking the nomination away from him and, when Senator Kennedy saw these signs, he decided it was now-or-never for him.

These events suggest that we are going to have two open conventions in which anything can happen — and that's good.

Thousands of college students are finding how rewarding and effective it is to join zestfully in using the democratic process — as they did in working for McCarthy in New Hampshire — instead of trying to picket to death by protests and alienation — and that's good.

I SEE NO reason to fault Robert Kennedy for suddenly reaching out for the Democartic presidential nomination after he saw McCarthy beginning to make it. Some are suggesting that there is "opportunism" in his decision. Let the politician without opportunism cast the first stone.

Only one politician I can think of is entitled to do so. That's Senator McCarthy, who quietly pointed out the Kennedy's argument is pretty thin: that the only reason he didn't challenge Johnson earlier is he didn't want it to appear to be a "personal struggle" with the president.

Bobby could have avoided exactly that by simultaneously announcing that he would not enter the race and would back McCarthy all the way.

I am not suggesting the Bobby should not go after the nomination with both hands from here to Chicago. I am not arguing against opportunism in politics — only against such obvious Kennedy pretense. Such overly polite generosity and treacle as Kennedy extended to McCarthy were laid on too thick to be creditable. It is my conviction that Kennedy ought to just be himself — tough, direct, get-out-of-my-way — and ought not to try to create a "new Bobby" image exuding humility and bonhomie.

KENNEDY is quite right in saying he has not chosen the easy road. It would be easier and more cautious to wait another four years. As it is, he is risking everything on the prospect that he can take it away from the president.

He may have waited too long. McCarthy is now the hero of the student peace groups and the Democratic liberals. They may well not desert him for RFK. If Kennedy wrecks the Democratic party, he could get the nomination and lose the election—and be out of the running for another time. By dividing the peace vote in California, he could ruin his Nebraska, Oregon, and own cause by assuring Johnson's renomination and producing a Republican victory.

Tpat is the gamble Bobby is taking — and he is taking it deliberately. Why shouldn't he?

There is some talk about a Kennedy-McCarthy ticket. The Democrats are not ready to put forward an all-Catholic ticket.

There is some talk about a Johnson-Kennedy ticket. Not at all likely. I am convinced Johnson would have no part of it. And it would be so patently contrived and inconsistent as to be self-defeating.

Low-Income Subsidy Proposed With Motorists' Gas Tax Funds

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — One of the most popular methods of keeping in good with the voters is to dispense public tax money to the so-called "disadvantaged" in any way it can be done and whenever there are funds to finance the project.

Late developments indicate Gov. Ronald Reagan may have succumbed to the popular trend in his support of a measure authorizing the use of state highway funds to construct housing for persons displaced by highway construction.

THE BILL, AB 1072, is by Assemblyman Leon Ralph, D-Los Angeles, and is co-authored by Assemblyman Paul Priolo, R-Santa Monica. It would allow the state Department of Public Works to acquire unimproved, unoccupied and non-residential property for use as sites for replacement housing.

However, the measure applies not to all individuals displaced because a freeway chops through their living room, but only to those who are in the low-cncome groups.

This, says the governor in announcing support of the measure, is "precedent-setting" legislation, which signals a "new concept in urban housing for low-income persons."

The plan could, the governor said, have an immediate effects in the Watts area of Los Angeles, where right-of-way acquisition for the future Century Freeway is scheduled to start soon.

Generally speaking, the state's current laws relating to eminent domain and condemnation provide that the citizen whose property in acquired for public use be reimbursed fairly and equitably.

The Department of Public Works has made every effort to keep citizens at least non-belligerent by paying fair prices for their property.

BUT, SO FAR all citizens have been treated at the same level. In effecting the changes needed for location of highways and other public works, there has been no discrimination on the basis of income groups.

Comes now the Ralph bill which in effect puts the Department of Public Works in the urban housing business with state gas tax money, which is designated for the acquisition of rights-of-way rather than for replacement housing.

Fundamentally, if such a law is applicable to all citizens, it no doubt should require that the state provide equal and comparable quarters to all displaced persons, rather than attempting to use highway funds to further urban development projects.

Swedes Keep Neutrality, But They Take Sides

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The Swedes like to point out the difference between neutralism and neutrality.

Neutrality in their case means that since 1809 they have managed to avoid wars and have profited therefrom.

It also means that Sweden grants asylum to anyone it believes is being persecuted for political or religious beliefs.

However, neither the government nor the people are neutralists.

THE GOVERNMENT and all political parties in Sweden are critical of U. S. involvement in Vietnam and have not hesitated to let their opinion be known.

Last year, the government permitted the so-called "International Tribunal on War Crimes to convene in Stock-Stockholm despite a warning from the United States it would "not improve Swedish-American relations."

The tribunal, organized by British philosopher Bertrand Russell, found the United States guilty of acts of aggression contrary to law and of bombing civilian targets. The decision of the self-appointed tribunal was a foregone conclusion.

Sweden, much to the distress of the United States, also has granted asylum on "humanitarian" grounds to 28 American servicemen either opposed to the Vietnam war or seeking to avoid service there.

But it also must be said that there are in Sweden now some 80,000 refugees representing all Communist nations, according to unofficial sources.

THE SWEDISH argument is that if they are to admit Communist defectors they also must admit Americans to conform with their neutral policy.

Another example was this week's disclosure that temporary asylum had been granted to Col. Riad Haggag, a one-time Egyptian intelligence officer.

During World War II, Sweden became a temporary haven for Willy Brandt, who fled Nazi Germany and today serves as foreign minister of the West German Federal Republic.

Sweden also admitted thousands of Jews from all over Europe and resistance fighters from Denmark and Norway.

In the 1950s, Sweden admitted Frenchmen who refused to fight in Algeria.

EARLY THIS MONTH, as a sign of its displeasure, the United States recalled Ambassador William W. Heath to Washington for consultation. Adding further complications have been attacks on the U.S. Embassy, burning of the American flag and physical violence against a U.S. diplomatic representative.

The issue also is dividing Swedes. Conservative party members have demanded the resignation of Education Minister Olof Palme, who marched in an anti-American parade. Palme could be the next prime minister.

Swedish neutrality is deeply ingrained. After World War II, the Swedes bowed to a Russian demand for the return of Baltic refugees who had served in the German army. It nearly resulted in the fall of the Swedish government.

Solution For School Board: Form Own Private District

This week the Mill Valley Teachers Association backed up the school board on its closed meeting policy. The association commended the board for its intention "of discussiong the effectiveness of the superintendent confidentially."

There has been a great deal of cannonading about the aborted closed meeting of the board to evaluate Supt. James A. Collins's first year on the job.

The board contends it was acting within the letter of the Ralph M. Brown Act, while the Independent-Journal was told by county counsel that the meeting was not within the Brown Act.

One trustee said no good superintendent would submit to being evaluated in a public session. Maybe he's right. And maybe that's one thing wrong with our school systems.

THE SUPERINTENDENT, you see, is not working for the school board. He is working for the voters of the district who put up the money. His job is not to please the school board. It is to provide the best possible education for the kids in the district.

The way to find out if someone is doing a good job is to ask him questions. At a closed session, the public can't ask questions.

If the board members want to hire their own superintendent, they could put up $4,000 a year apiece to pay his salary and start their own private school district.

While they are conducting public business, the man in charge should be responsible to the public.

THE BIG ARGUMENT against the Mill Valley City Council's Vietnam resolution was that the council had no business voting on foreign policy. Only a handful admitted opposing the resolution itself, which calls for "orderly withdrawal from the present untenable position of the United States."

I am now waiting, but not holding my breath, for the people who opposed Mill Valley's action to flock to Fairfax and oppose the proposal by Mayor George A. Pagni. Pagni's motion is in support of the Vietnam war, and includes a charge that anti-war demonstrators "are giving comfort to the enemy."

Contrariwise, I don't expect the people who supported the Mill Valley Council to rush out and back Pagni. Consistency is rare quality among advocates of any stripe.

SAUSALITO POLICE CHIEF Edward S. Kreins may be right in his contention, recently printed in Playboy magazine, that most complaints of police brutality are unjustified.

But sometimes it is a matter of definition. Here is a quote from a Berkeley patrolman who recently arrested Black Panther official Bobby Seale:

"We walked in and Mr. Seale became very excited. I drew my gun, put it in his ribs and told him we would not harm him."

Black humor doesn't get much blacker than that. Seale was not brutalized in the usual sense. He wasn't shot, or beaten so far as anyone knows.

And no one would propose an officer tackle a known armed militant barehanded. But anyone who sticks a gun in someone's midriff and says "we won't harm you" just isn't tuned in to the same wave length as the rest of us.

ART BUCHWALD

It's Obviously All A Plot Dreamed Up To Confuse Hanoi

WASHINGTON—If you think people in this country are confused about what is happening on the American political scene, you can imagine how confused they are in Hanoi.

Just the other day, Ho Chi Minh's cabinet called in North Vietnam's expert on American political affairs. He was in chains and two guards threw him to the floor.

"All right, Dao Tri," one of the ministers said, "are you gong to tell us the truth about American politics or are we going to have to get it out of you some other way?"

"Honorable ministers," Dao Tri cried from the floor, "I have told you the truth. I did not make one word of it up."

"Well, let us hear it again," another minister snarled. "What exactly has happened?"

DAO TRI, his head bowed, began: "Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York has decided to run against President Johnson because he is opposed to President Johnson's policies in Vietnam."

"But," said a minister, "we thought Senator McCarthy was running against President Johnson because he ooposes his policies in Vietnam."

"Senator McCarthy is running against President Johnson. As a matter of fact, he came within 200 votes of beating President Johnson in the province of New Hampshire."

"Then why is Senator Kenedy running against President Johnson?" a minister asked.

"Because he says he wants to help Senator McCarthy defeat President Johnson."

A MINISTER turned to one of the guards and said, "Hang him up by his thumbs."

Dao Tri was hung by his thumbs. The minister said, "Now continue."

Dao Tri, between screams, continued: "Senator McCarthy said he doesn't need Senator Kennedy's support in his fight against President Johnson, but Senator Kennedy says he's going to support McCarthy whether he likes it or not."

"Raise him off the ground a little," a minister said to the guard. "Didn't you tell us Senator Kennedy said he would not oppose President Johnson?"

Dao Tri screamed. "Honorable ministers, hear me out. Kennedy announced it before the primary elections in New Hampshire, because he said he did not want to split the Democratic party. After the primary, Senator Kennedy said the party was split anyway, so he thought he would have a better chance of splitting the Democratic party than Senator McCarthy would."

"A LITTLE HIGHER," a minister ordered the guard. Dao Tri's toes were barely touching the ground. "Now tell us about the Republican party."

"Former Vice President Nixon won very big in New Hampshire," Dao Tri gasped, "so Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of the province of New York, who said he did not want to be president, has decided to run against him."

"Why?" a minister asked.

"Because the polls show that Rockefeller could beat President Johnson, but Nixon can't. Therefore, the majority of the Republican delegates are for Nixon and against Rockefeller."

A GUARD PULLED the cord and Dao was barely conscious.

"Why would the Republicans support a candidate who could not beat President Johnson, when they have a candidate who could?"

Dao Tri, his face white, screamed: "I don't know."

"He's still sticking to his story," one of the ministers said.

"The fool!" another minister said. "He thinks we are so stupid that we will believe his pack of CIA fairy tales. String him the whole way."

The guard pulled and Dao Tri passed out. They cut him down a few minutes later and he collapsed in a heap on the floor. As he regained consciousness he gasped:

"Would you believe Harold Stassen is going to run again?"

Heavy Taxes For Transit— To Underwrite Greyhound Lines?

The final paragraph of the column last Friday had to do with the fact that you have been taxed close to half a million dollars during the past two years for one activity out at Brasilia and have received nothing but rhetoric. This is the same profile as the administrator's short-lived Office of Economic Development. However, it is costing 10 times as much per year.

Fusselman

It has the title of Marin County Transit District. It was voted into being by our people as a safety measure.

We were told a number of years ago by the legal department that the county had no authority to engage in this sort of thing, althouth the cities had.

From time to time I suggested that this be remedied by new legislation which would unlock the handcuffs. This was accomplished and one of the last things I did as a supervisor was to make the first contribution to a kitty to make a full explanation of the need to the voters. The effort was successful and the district was formed. It was distinctly represented to the voters that the power to tax would not be abused and that things would be handled in a discreet and careful manner.

THIS HAS NOT been done. Through the recommendation of County Administrator Alan Bruce, a former employee of the Greyhound Lines was hired to bring in a recommendation. He did. It was to take over the Greyhound service in the county.

Bruce went all-out for the idea and urged the supervisors to have the county either buy or lease the facilities of the service even though the company had testified that they had been losing $500,000 a year on the operation. He urged immediate action and said the county would be operating the service in a few months, by the first of the following year. This was quietly shelved and long debates followed as to the type of service and the routing.

Supervisor Peter H. Behr pushed for a route over the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge and then a viaduct in a dog-legged arrangement over the shallows east of Angel Island to the city. He also pushed for a ferry service or a hydrofoil system and at another time to run buses from Corte Madera over the old railroad right-of-way through some six or seven important areas of Mill Valley. Then there were the second deck arguments.

NOW THEY HAVE a manager for the district who has had the backing of the administrator. You have been taxed, in round figures, $448,000 during 1967-68 and the current year 1968-69 — $215,000 and $233,000 respectively. The manager receives a salary of $21,000 a year and his secretary $6,588 or a total of $27,588. There was spent during 1966-67 and 1967-68, in hiring various individuals and firms, $66,678.30.

Bruce and Seymour Kashin, the manager, appeared before a local civic group recently and Bruce is quoted as saying that the district should begin immediately to set up a system of new buses that could be running by August. "I'm tired of waiting," he said. He's at it again. Did you hear something that I thought I did? Something about a deep freeze?

Irish Patients Receiving LSD

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — LSD has been given to about 100 Irish men and woman as part of a government psychotherapy program at St. Brendan's Hospital in Dublin, the chief psychiatrist of the Dublin Health Authority says.

Dr. Ivor Browne said in an interview yesterday he adopted the radical treatment five years ago because psychiatrists at the hospital were swamped with patients needing long-term treatment.

Use of psychadelic drugs, he said, provided treatment that probably would have taken weeks or months of individual psychotherapy.

Library Needs Questionaires Are Available

Questionnaires to aid a nine-member committee determine the library needs of the lower Ross Valley are available at county branch libraries at Corte Madera and Greenbrae, the Larkspur Library, and city halls at Corte Madera and Larkspur.

Designed by the committee to disclose what readers want in library service and selection, the questionnaire is a result of an original query by Larkspur whether a joint library service of the two branches and Larkspur might be feasible.

The committee, four appointed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors and five by Corte Madera, is scheduled to meet again at 9:30 a.m. next Friday at the Corte Madera Town Hall to evaluate the answers and hear reports from sub-committees on library service levels that readers want, potential sites for a possible joint library or libraries and methods of financing any joint undertaking.

Committee chairman is Mrs. John J. Ramsey of Corte Madera.

Britain, with one-sixtieth of the world's population, drank one-tenth of its beer in 1966, reports the Brewers Society of London.

JAPANESE GIRLS' TRADITION

Mill Valleyan To Lend Treasured Doll Set

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

A Japanese Hina doll set that was mourned by Japanese artists as the loss of a national treasure when Mrs. Doreen Peterson of Mill Valley brought it to this country, has a fascinating history.

The set is of interest not only to lovers of oriental art but to little girls, for this kind of set still plays an important part in the life of young Japanese girls.

The set consisting of many dolls is a Hina — meaning replica — of court life of a princess as it was over 100 years ago when Tokyo was known as Edo, and this particular set is over 100 years old and in remarkably good condition.

The brilliant colors and 18 karat gold in the exquisite silk costumes and various objects are still bright.

THE DOLLS, however, are not toys. They are ceremonial objects collected according to prescribed custom and displayed on National Girls' Day in Japan on March 3.

Explaining how the dolls are acquired Mrs. Peterson said. "A bride's mother is supposed to buy her daughter's first girl child the Hina doll set by presenting her with a doll each year until she has the basic set. The dolls' possessions may be added later.

"The first March 3 on which the little girl completes her basic set becomes her first Girls' Day, and her father is supposed to send a gift of food and wine to the home of the grandmother who gave her the set. Thereafter the doll set is displayed once a year on March 3, and when the girl marries, the set goes with her to her husband's home.

"On this special holiday little girls dress in their best kimonos and attend parties for girls only, where traditional foods, such as diamond shaped rice cakes are served."

There is also a national Boy's Day on May 5, Mrs. Peterson noted. "They get dolls too," she says, "but not so many, and they are warrior dolls with the appropriate armor and equipment."

MRS. PETERSON obtained her set when she was in Japan in 1950 working for the United Seamen's Service, a private agency which during wartime was under the War Shopping Administration. Her particular job was running a club similar to those maintained by the Red Cross to provide social welfare services for servicemen. She is now employed at the United Jewish Community Center in San Francisco.

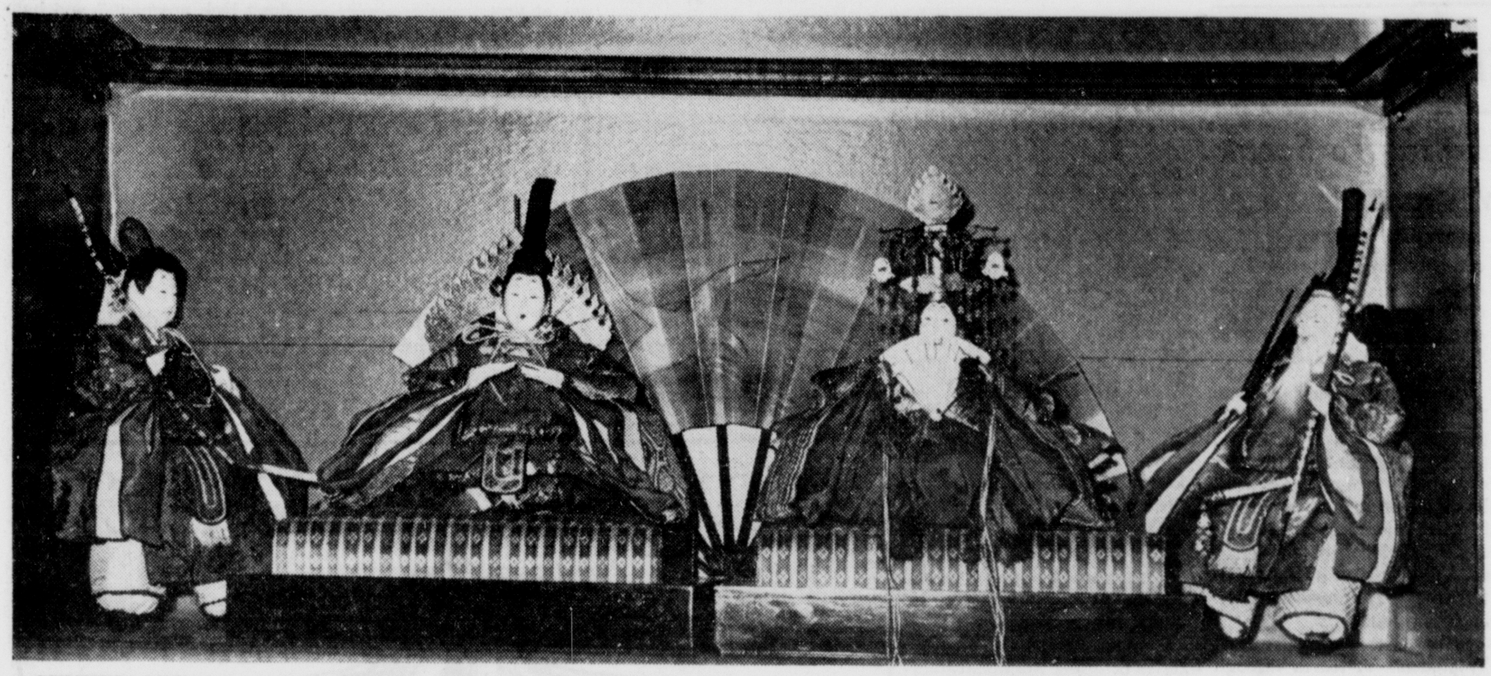
"I was crazy about auctions," she says, "and at this time during the occupation there were many fine things available because many formerly wealthy people needed money.

"When I saw the set I just had to have it and kept raising my bid until I got it. And when I did, some of the men who were artists and knew its value actually cried because it was an exceptionally fine set made by a famous artist, and they knew it would be leaving Japan. But I promised never to sell the pieces separately.

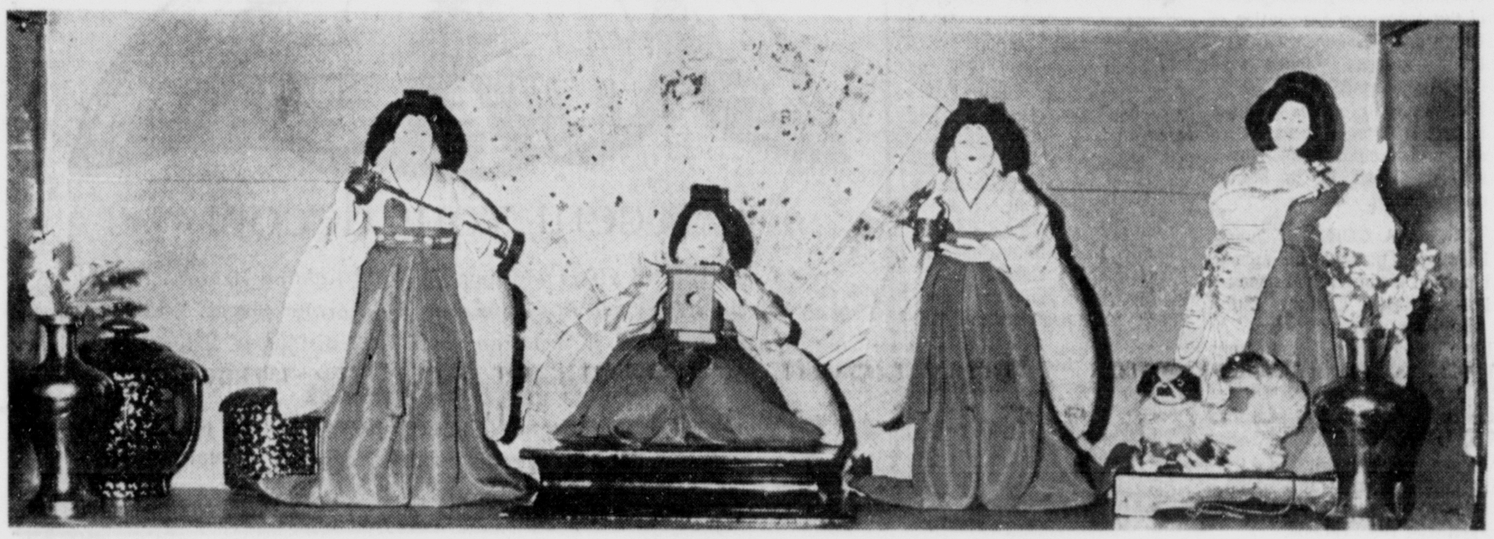
"EVENTUALLY I will give the set to a museum interested in oriental art," she said.

During this time in Japan Mrs. Peterson met the young Japanese woman, Mrs. Jo Fowler, who lives with her in Mill Valley. She is a valuable source of information on Japanese traditions, since her mother is writing her 10-page letters every week giving her the history of Japanese customs.

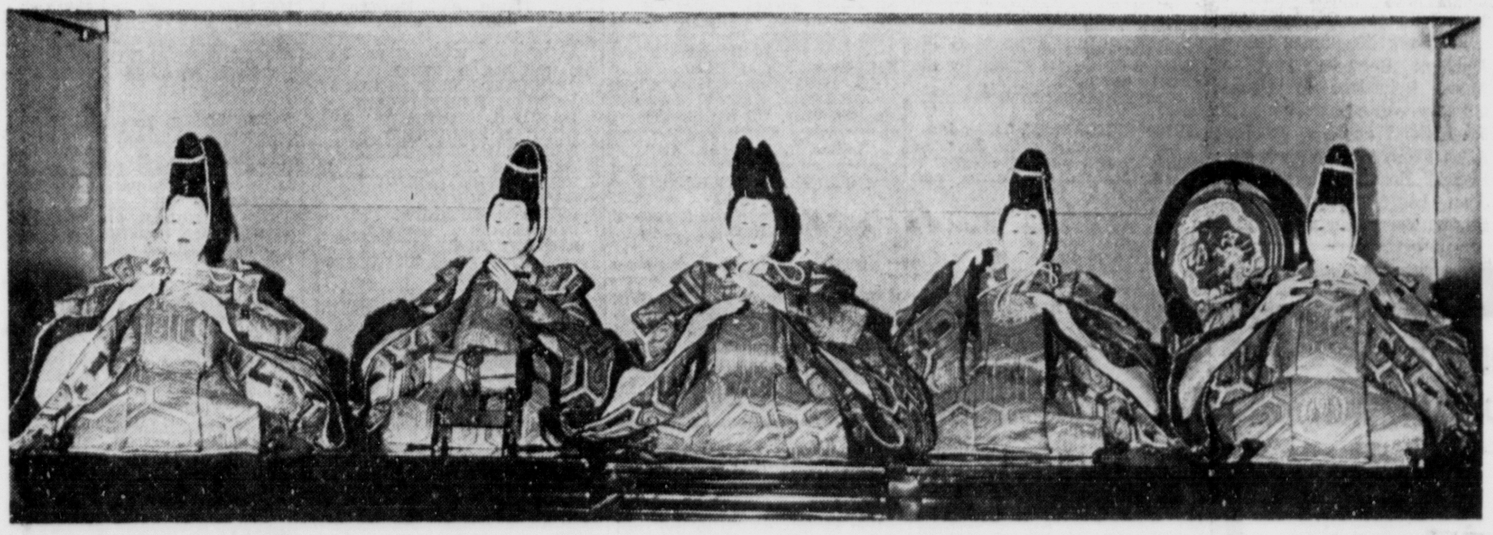
The set will be on display at the Ikebana Spring Flower Show to be held March 29, 30 and 31 at the garden center of San Francisco in Golden Gate Park. It is to be the focal point of decor for the show.



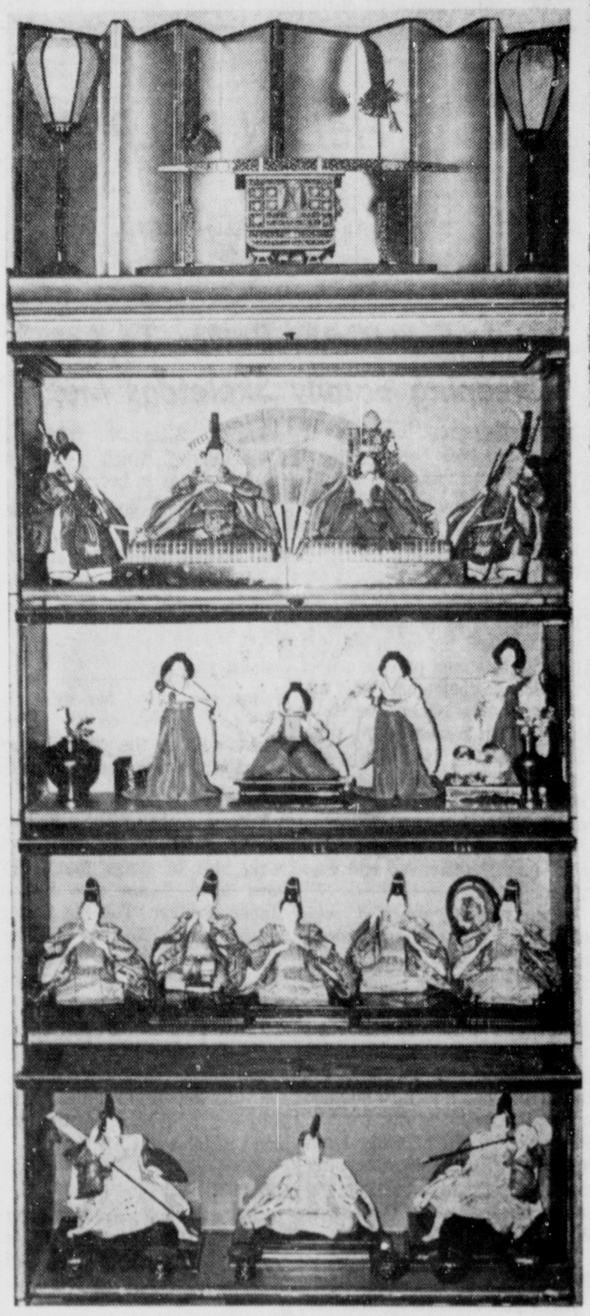
CENTER ARE the prince and princess. The other two dolls are their highest counselors in the court and bodyguards. Left is the one who is traditionally a young man and on the right the one who is traditionally an old man.



THESE DOLLS are the princess's ladies in waiting. The sole duty of the one on the right is walking the princess's dog, the little Pekingese sitting on the footstool. On each side is a traditional pewter vase.

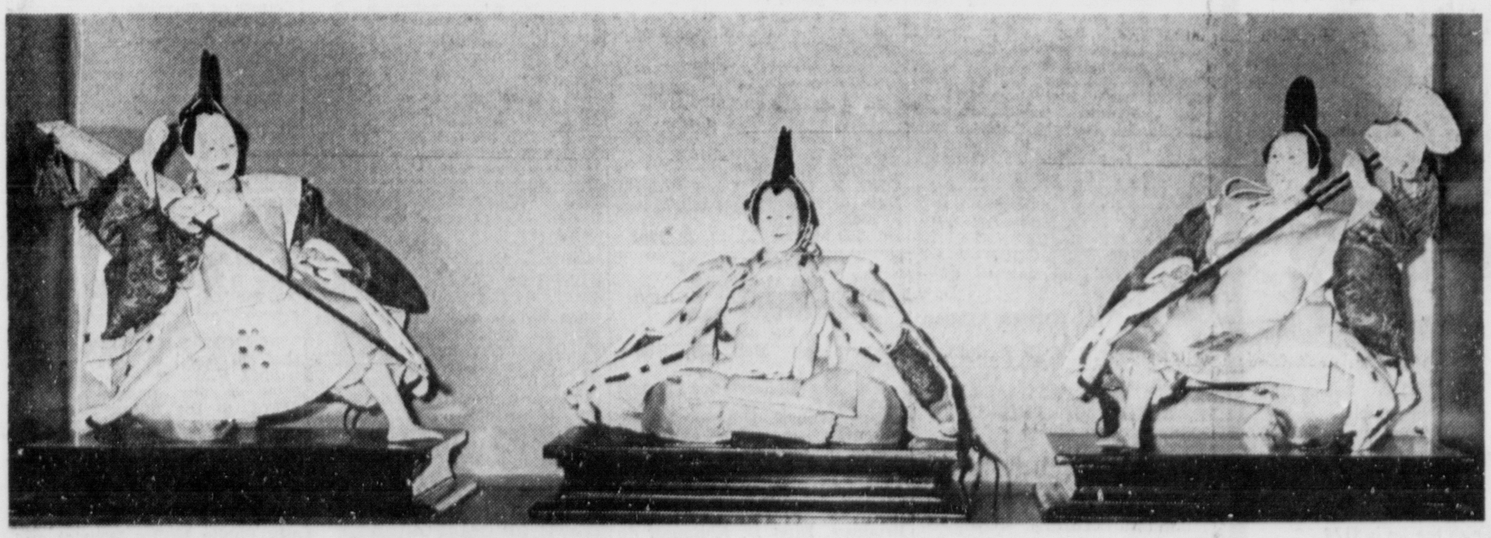


THE TRADITIONAL FIVE court musicians are shown here. No two faces of the entire group of dolls are alike, for each was individually made by a famous artist over 100 years ago.

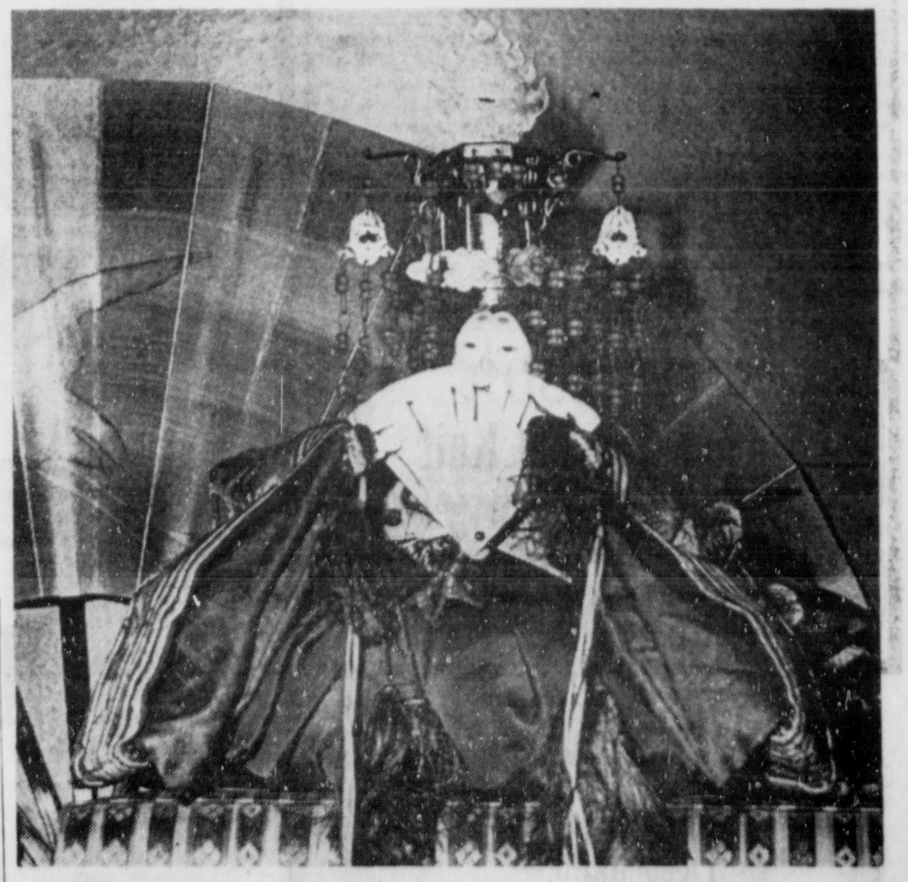


THESE FOUR SHELVES of ceremonial dolls are a basic Hina set of court life that is displayed in Japanese homes on Girls' Day, March 3. On top of the cabinet are some of the accessories which may be added, such as the gold screen and lamps. On either side of the palanquin in which the princess is carried are two long handled woman's swords in their cases. Details of the four shelves are shown in separate pictures at left.

MRS. DOREEN PETERSON of Mill Valley, left, owner of the Hina ceremonial doll set, and her friend, Mrs. Jo Fowler, get the princess's possessions, such as cups, food bowls, trunks and wardrobe, ready to be taken with the set to the Ikebana spring flower show in San Francisco. The display will be the focal point in the March 29, 30 and 31 show in Golden Gate Park.



LOWEST IN THE hierarchy of dolls are these three slaves. They were never allowed in the house. In front of them is a row of food bowls. (Independent-Journal photos)



CENTER OF THE whole Hina doll set is the princess herself. The faces of the dolls are of baked clay painted realistically. The brilliantly colored silk costumes have 18 carat gold threads. They are bright and in excellent condition though they are over 100 years old. The fan is ivory.

Lynda Bird, Capt. Robb Have Luncheon In Tiburon

By MOLLY MARIN

Capt. Charles Robb and his bride, the President's daughter, Lynda Bird, had lunch at the Windjammer Restaurant in Tiburon yesterday. They came over from San Francisco on Dan London's yacht Adventuress, and were also accompanied by Cyril Magnin.

Asked what Mrs. Robb was wearing, Don Altenberg, Windjammer proprietor, said "She was so well surrounded by secret service men, I could hardly see her."

The couple arrived in San Francisco Wednesday for a visit and Captain Robb will report to Camp Pendleton March 29 for assignment to Vietnam.

Like other Marin visitors, Capt and Mrs. Robb enjoyed lunching outside on the deck of the Windjammer Restaurant in Tiburon, admiring the spectacular view of San Francisco Bay. Lynda Bird, tall and slender, was wearing a bright, dark blue coat-dress costume, with a matching bandeau in her long hair. She wore textured hose of a darker blue and low heeled beige pumps with large buckles. Also in the party was Cyril Magnin's daughter, Mrs. Walter Newman. Although the restaurant was busy at the height of the luncheon hour, no one interrupted their private party.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

It Is Sometimes Better To Let Sleeping Family Skeletons Lie

DEAR HELEN:

My daughter believes she is my sister. I want to set the record straight but our mother — correction, my mother, her grandmother, says "no!" The need is great.

Here's the story. At 13 I got pregnant. The boy never knew. I was whisked out of town, supposedly to attend private school. the strange coincidence was that my mother expected her third baby within a week of my time. She planned it so that she was visiting her folks when her child arrived. My baby, only a few days older, became the other twin. There was a legal adoption, quietly done. No one ever suspected.

I am now 30, married, with two children. My husband knows part of the story, though he thinks the baby was adopted out.

My 16-year-old daughter-sister has always listened to me as her older sister, but now she met a man I despise. I can't get through to her that he's no good and will only bring her trouble. Perhaps if I tell her that I am her mother, I can warn her. My experience might shock her into some sense. — MOTHER WITHOUT THE NAME.

DEAR MOTHER:

Have you considered that the truth might shock your sister-daughter into running off with the first man who offers escape?

You can help her far more as an understanding older sister than as a foolish, frightened child-mother, which is how you might appear to her.

Let sleeping family skeletons lie and don't feel guilty when you say our mother. Legally, she is. Moreover, this is the way you've wanted it for 16 years. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Butt out, baby! My wife pinned your answer on my pillow about getting the "big baby" husband to walk the floor with the squawler.

I'm not about to lose my sleep over a baby! If my wife can't train him to sleep, that's her hard luck. I am also not a diaper changer. The big father bit is a put-on. No man can like his kid that well, not when the kid is too young to recognize him.

Please stop encouraging these dames to turn their husbands into flunkies and nursemaids. Are you trying to emasculate us? Next you'll be suggesting we make beds! — REAL MAN

DEAR REAL:

What's wrong with making beds? You learned how in the Army. Keep talkin' chum, and you'll be booted out on yours. — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Maybe I can help "Exasperated" who must get up with a colicky baby while her husband fumes.

When my baby was two and one-half months old she got colic every night. Thanks to my wonderful mother-in-law, I cured her.

If "Ex" will give her baby a teaspoon of ice cold water when he gets those crampy pains, he will soon be fast asleep. After the water, be sure to give the baby plenty of time to burp.

I have confidence in old wives' tales. They work! — M.C.T.

DEAR M:

I don't share your confidence in old wives' tales, but a teaspoon of cold water can't hurt the baby, and the added burping might help.

Biggest help of all for a colicky baby are loving patience, and time. He usually outgrows true colic before he is four months old, but the mother should always check with her doctor to determine the real cause of pain — H.

Shoulderstraps Return On Bags

PARIS (UPI)—Shoulder bags really are coming back, particularly for the young. Nearly every one of the handbags on sale in the Miss Dior ready to wear boutique have detachable shoulderstraps.

One of the most interesting ones looks like a navy briefcase with dyed navy linen sides. The purse opens out like a book with lots of compartments. Dior planned it as a beach bag, but it looks smart enough to go to town, particularly because it has two handles exactly like those of a briefcase to hold it when its owner doesn't want to use the shoulder strap.

Barbara Gilliland Recites Vows With Albert Hunter

Barbara Gilliland and Albert J. Hunter were united in marriage at the Novato Community Methodist Church in Novato on Saturday.

Barbara, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Gilliland of Novato, chose as her matron of honor, Mrs. Clyde Ahern of Novato. Bridesmaids were Nancy Jordan of Novato and Mrs. Phil Sciacca of San Rafael.

Best man for the bridegroom was Clyde Ahern and ushers were Wayne Gilliland, brother of the bride, of George Air Force Base in Victorville and Phil Sciacca.

A reception was held at the Red Vest Restaurant in Novato. The couple are on a wedding trip to Southern California and Las Vegas. They will live in Terra Linda.

The bride was graduated from Novato High School and is employed with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph in San Francisco. She is a past worthy advisor of the Novato Assembly 194, International Order of Rainbow For Girls. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Gates of Hyampom are the bride's grandparents.

Albert is the son of Mrs. Pauline Hunter of San Rafael. He attended San Rafael High School and is employed with Stanger Manufacturing Co. in San Francisco. Mrs. Hilda Bieser of San Rafael is his grandmother.

ON THE AGENDA

Ramparts Senior Editor To Speak On Garrison's Investigation Case

William W. Turner, senior editor of Ramparts magazine, will speak to the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. on the Garrison investigation into the assassination of President Kennedy.

WLLIAM W. TURNER

An FBI agent, Turner was terminated by the bureau following his accusation that the agency was "soft on organized crime" and his requests for a Congressional investigation of the bureau.

Since 1962 he has been a free-lance author and editor, contributing articles on police science to the legal press and general articles to magazines. He has three books due for publication, one on the Garrison investigation. Turner lives with his wife, Margaret, and son, Mark Peter, 2, in Mill Valley and has been a resident of Marin since 1964.

IRENE COWAN, milliner, will teach the millinery class at Tamalpais Evening School beginning Monday at 7:30 p.m. Planning ahead to Easter, Mrs. Cowan will offer suggestions on styles, shapes and colors to her students, and show how to achieve the desired effects by making their own creations. Signups will be the first night of class.

THE ROSS School Parent-Teachers Association will present its annual art and poetry program on Tuesday evening, at 7:30 p.m. Art work by all classes will be on display in the school's multi-purpose room during the evening. Chairman is Mrs. Richard Gatterdam; P-TA president is H. Jack Wyman.

Poetry has been submitted by students in fourth through eighth grades and will be judged by the Creative Writing Workshop of the Marin Branch of the American Association of University Women with Mrs. Ruth Murray Jones as chairman assisted by Mrs. Lothar Salin, both of San Rafael. Three prizes are awarded in each grade, plus a special award for a humor classification.

MADERA GUILD of Sunny Hills will present its spring luncheon Wednesday at noon at Peacock Gap Country Club. The leap year theme is "A Leap Into Fashion." Chairman is Mrs. Lee Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Frank Wessel. Other chairmen are the Mesdames Walter Long, tickets; Jack Oldis, decorations; Jack Campbell, awards; Jim Tonge, table favors; and Jarvis O'Daniels, reservations.

Modeling in the fashion show will be volunteers from other guilds under the direction of Mrs. Charles Gondak. The models are Mesdames Harold McGlynn, Belvedere 1; W. A. Main, Belvedere 2; Donald O'Leary, Belvedere 3; Fredrick Trigon, Fairfax; Allen Thomas, Glenwood; Ronald Horn, Loch Lomond; John Little, Madera; Hugo Bower, Terra Linda 1; Phillip Collischonn, Terra Linda 2; Wesley Bidgood, Terra Linda 3; James Collins, Terra Linda 4; and Edward Dill, Strawberry guild.

A PANEL discussion "Is My Child Being Prepared For the Future?" will be held Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. in the multi-purpose room of Wolfe Grade School.

Sponsored by the joint Parent Teacher Associations of the Kentfield School District, this program is the last of a series of three. Administrators of the Kentfield School District will answer questions which have already been submitted through a questionnaire sent to the community.

Panel memebers will be Mrs. Anthony Bacich, superintendent of the Kentfield School District; Jack Williams, psychological consultant to the district; the principals of the three schools; Mr. Roy L. Smith, Greenbrae; Mr. Thomas H. Smith, Adeline E. Kent; and Mr. Gene Hendsch, Wolfe Grade; and Mr. Robert Shore, vice principal at A.E. Kent School.

Moderator for the discussion will be Mr. Lawrence Goldberg, president of the Kentfield School District Board of Trustees.

SINGERS OF the Marin Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc. will compete tomorrow in the annual competition which will be held this year at the Thunderbolt Motel in Millbrae.

Thoughts On Waiting Game

By JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (UPI)—It must have been a man who first said there was no such thing as being a little bit pregnant.

There is—and it is very frustrating.

When the obstetrician confirms what you were already pretty sure of anyway, it's still a little hard to believe.

For myself, I looked in the bathroom mirror, expecting to look expectant. I studied my face for tell-tale maternal softening or something. Nothing. No neon lights appeared flashing the word "mother."

This business of becoming a mother is such a slow process.

All sorts of minor and major miracles may be going on silently inside, but on the outside little if anything changes at first.

Then suddenly the mother-to-be receives her first communication from the dear little thing. It's a well-placed kick.

My obstetrician had told me it would happen, described what it would feel like, explained that at first I might be uncertain but that as the kicks became stronger, I would be sure.

I have become an inveterate kick-awaiter, announcing all such developments to my husband across the living room. "Kicks coming in at 10 o'clock high," I called out once, but I don't think he appreciated my humor.

I decided maybe I was having twins and was very disappointed to read almost all expectant mothers think they are having twins.

My friends long since have stopped telling me, "My, you don't look pregnant," and have switched to, "My, you don't look THAT pregnant."

Weight Control Classes Will Open Tuesday As Help For The Overeater

A series of weight control classes will get underway Tuesday and continue for 12 succeeding Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Sponsored by the Marin County Heart Association, the course will be instructed by Pamela Gilroy, registered dietitian.

The series is planned for overweight persons whose problem is based on improper diet and over-eating.

Both men and women may register for instruction sessions and all are eligible upon physician referral as a 1200 calorie base will be used throughout the 12-week course. Based on previous class results, anticipated weight loss is expected to be one and one-half pounds per week.

SHOPPING POINTERS for low calorie foods, cooking tips for meats and vegetables, dietary helps when eating out and keeping saturated fats down will be among areas of study. Also, budgeting of food bills and how to entertain with low calorie foods.

Sessions will also include films and speakers. Among those scheduled will be a physician noting dangers of overweight; physical therapist demonstrating exercises for muscle tone, and a personal grooming expert.

REGISTRATIONS FOR class are taken at the Marin County Heart Association, or registrants may enroll during opening night of the course at Ross General Hospital.

MOLDED GRAPEFRUIT-COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD

- 1 one-pound can (2 cups) unsweetened grapefruit sections
- 2 envelopes lemon-flavored low-calorie gelatin
- ¾ cup dry cottage cheese
- ¼ cup finely chopped celery
- 3 maraschino cherries, cut in fourths

Drain grapefruit and add enough water to the juice to make 2 cups. Heat half the juice mixture to boiling; add to gelatin and stir until gelatin dissolves. Add remaining juice mixtures; cool. Reserve best grapefruit segments (about half) for top layer. Arrange remaining segments in an 8½x4½x2½ inch loaf pan.

Carefully pour half of the gelatin mixture over grapefruit in pans; chill until almost firm. Stir cottage cheese; if needed, add 1 to 2 tablespoons skim milk to make spreading consistency. Add celery to cottage cheese and spread over gelatin layer to make "filling" for salad. Meanwhile, chill remaining gelatin mixture until partially set. Arrange reserved grapefruit and the cherry bits on top of cheese, so each serving will have a built-in trim. Carefully pour remaining gelatin mixture over top. Chill until firm (at least 4 to 5 hours or overnight). Cut in squares, makes 6 servings. Calories per serving — 70.

TWO-TOMATO SALAD MOLDS

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 2 cups mixed vegetable juice
- 2 whole cloves
- 2 whole allspice
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- 1 small cucumber
- 1 cup shredded cabbage
- ¾ cup chopped celery
- 3 small tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon low-calorie mayonnaise

1. Soften gelatin in ½ cup of the vegetable juice in a medium-size bowl.

2. Combine remaining vegetable juice, cloves, allspice, and lemon juice in a small saucepan; heat to boiling; simmer 5 minutes. Strain over gelatin mixture in bowl, then stir until gelatin dissolves. Chill 30 minutes, or until mixture is as thick as unbeaten egg white.

3. Cut off ¼ of the cucumber; pare; chop coarsely. Fold into gelatin mixture with cabbage and celery. Spoon into 6 individual molds or custard cups. Chill several hours, or until set.

4. Score remaining unpared cucumber with fork; slice thin. Cut tomatoes into thin wedges.

5. When ready to serve, run a small knife around tops of salads, then dip molds, one at a time, very quickly in and out of a pan of hot water; invert onto centers of 6 salad plates; lift off molds. Arrange cucumber slices, dividing evenly, in rings around salads; top with an overlapping ring of tomato wedges. Spoon mayonnaise on each mold; tuck parsley around bases of molds, if you wish.

Weight-watcher's serving: 1 salad mold, plus cucumber and tomato garnish and ½ teaspoon mayonnaise. Recipe makes 6 servings — 47 calories each.

TOMATO DRESSING
(Nicely herbed to dress salads and cooked vegetables)

- 1 eight-ounce can (1 cup) seasoned tomato sauce
- 2 tablespoons tarragon vinegar
- 1 teaspoon onion juice
- 1 teaspoon worcestershire sauce
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon dill seed
- ½ teaspoon basil

Combine all ingredients in jar. Cover and shake well. Chill. Shake again just before serving. Makes 1 cup. Calories per tablespoon: 5.

PINEAPPLE BUTTERMILK FROST

- 1 cup drained canned unsweetened crushed pineapple.
- 2 cups buttermilk
- 1 egg white, stiffly beaten
- 1 teaspoon non caloric liquid sweetner

Combine pineapple, buttermilk and sweetener and pour into freezing tray of refrigerator. Turn refrigerator to coldest point and put tray into freezing compartment.

When firm (about 1 hour) turn into chilled bowl, mash with fork and add beaten egg white. Beat until fluffy but not melted.

Return to freezer, covering with waxed paper. Freeze until firm (about 2 hours).

Makes 6 servings. Calories per serving: 67.

SUBURBAN

SAILING ABOARD the Lurline from San Francisco to Hawaii on Monday will be Mrs. Robert C. Carpenter of Greenbrae.

MRS. EDWARD TUBACH (Vicki Emerson) and her husband are visiting her parents, the Lyman Emersons of Mill Valley, en route home to San Diego from a 'round-the-world tour that they started on Nov. 1.

The first part of their trip took them to Tahiti, New Zealand, Australia, India and the Philippines. New Zealand, Vicki said, was her favorite country because of its fantastic beauty and because the people were the most friendly of any in the countries they visited.

In the Philippines they were the guests of Mrs. Lloyd Clarke, formerly of Mill Valley, who introduced them to vice president Fernando Lopez. He took them with him on his private plane to the province of Ilo Ilo, where he was making a series of political talks.

In Hawaii they were guests of Susan Bayley, Vicki's maid of honor, when they were married last July.

The Tubachs went next to the Orient, where Vicki was delighted with the shopping in Hong Kong, and Cambodia, where they followed practically in the footsteps of Jackie Kennedy. They were thrilled with the ruins of Angkor Wat.

An interesting part of their tour of Thailand, Pakistan and Nepal, was being the guests of the private secretary to King Mahendra of Nepal.

In the Middle East, Iran Lebanon and Turkey were on their itinerary before they continued to Greece and then to Annemase, France to visit Mr. Tubach's sister.

Africa — including Ethiopia, Kenya, Tanzania and South Africa — will be memorable because of the safaris on which they took pictures

They returned to the United States via Rome, Madrid and Lisbon.

For Vicki the most important outcome of the tour was making arrangements to have a 14-year-old Turkish girl, Guler Kazancioglu, live with them next year. Guler was one of Vicki's young students when she taught school in Turkey from 1964 to 1966 as a member of the Peace Corps.

LT. COL. and Mrs. James Walton Lee entertained at a dinner party at Hamilton Air Force Base Officers Club for longtime Marin friends. The couples who were guests met 20 years ago when the wives were all members of the Dioc-to Club at College of Marin. The Lees have been stationed for 16 years in various parts of the world and are now back at Hamilton. Among the guests were Supervisor and Mrs. John Ertola of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Trimbley, Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Starr.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH E. HOLCHESTER honored their niece, Ruth Marie Mossler, and fiance, James H. Dance, with an engagement cocktail party in their San Rafael home on March 16. Among the 30 relatives and friends attending were Ruth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Mossler of Salinas. The bride-elect, who is employed as a secretary in Oakland, has set the wedding for late summer.

SEVERAL BUFFET supper parties are planned following the Animal Aid of Marin wine tasting and spring fashion show to be held at the Marin Country Club tomorrow. Entertaining in their homes will be Mrs. Joseph B. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Chester MacPhee and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindauer of the Marin Country Club Estates, Novato, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bataiff of San Rafael.

THE FAMILY of Mrs. C. L. Gibbs of Novato gathered Sunday at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant in San Rafael for surprise dinner in honor of her 75th birthday. Born in San Francisco, Mrs. Gibbs lived most of her life in San Rafael. Attending were her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Phelps of Richmond, and Leonard Gibbs, another son, who resides with her in Novato. Other guests were Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Burns, Dudley McCamish and Ronald McCamish of Fairfax, Richard McCamish of Novato, and Mrs. T. M. Axelberg of San Luis Obispo.

Harmonic Painting

Instead of trying to match the color of wall paints exactly with drapery or upholstery fabric, select paint colors that will harmonize with furnishings. The difference in texture between flat walls and cloth makes each reflech light differently, making an exact color match virtually impossible.

Expect Symptoms

NEW YORK (UPI)—The first six hours after a child suffers a head injury are suggested as the definite period in which to expect symptoms pointing to a serious, even fatal, outcome.

From a study of the medical records of 1,206 young accident victims, Swedish surgeons conclude that after six hours an injured child can be watched by parents at home. The report on the time beyond which life-threatening complications are unlikely to develop appeared in "Medical World News."

U.S. GRANT ENDS

Wanted: Angel For School-Theater Plan

By ELIZABETH VON KAHL

The final curtain may be coming down in August on an experimental program shared by the Festival Theater and the Marin County Superintendent of Schools office.

The program, in which the schools go to the theater and the theater goes to the schools, has been financed under a U.S .Office of Education grant which runs out next fall. A reapplication, if granted, would probably carry the project only as far as March 25, 1969. It was originally set up as a three-year program with a prospective grant of $300,000.

"We are looking for foundations, which would support the program on a long-term basis," according to Gene Edward Turtle, project director at $13,500 a year.

Of the $96,658 allowed the program this year; $33,442 is budgeted for student tickets for plays at the theater, located on the grounds of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo.

Since the program started, 15,200 students have witnessed plays in the theater.

The theater staff also visits the schools several times a year to present assembly programs including excerpts from plays and post performance discussions with students.

A council of two teachers from each high school helps coordinate the program.

In the summer, apprentice programs for advanced drama students teach the more technical aspects of the theater. Special events, such as guest artists and field trips to the theater, occur as they develop during the season.

Contacts with the plays and the actors not only provide classroom work for high school English and drama students but they bring a slice of life to the pupils as well.

As one student put it, "(theater) relates to living as much as literature or any other art. It tells us something about ourselves and our world if we listen."

A report being prepared to accompany the application to continue the grant will cost $1,545 and be presented to the federal government in June, Turtle says. A citizens committee is preparing an evaluation to be included in the report.

The committee includes Mrs. Robert Bolt, Mrs. Robert Houston and Lawrence A. Lindberg of San Rafael; Arthur W. Smith and Ernest N. Kettenhofen of San Anselmo; Carroll Snyker of Ross; Mrs. Kitty Oppenheimer of Kentfield; Mrs. Jack Craemer and Mrs. Hugh Pessner of Greenbrae; Martin Hazlik and Thomas W. Smith of Novato.

Patricia Garlan, formerly on the theater staff and now the publications director for the joint project, is responsible for study guides for each play, used by the students.

The guides have expanded out of discussions with students, in which they have asked for more background information about the plays, their philosophies, their casts and their authors, according to director Garlan.

Some students have criticized period plays and language presented by festival actors.

One girl said a performance stimulated her imagination and "teen-agers haven't been brought up to imagine much."

One boy was impressed by the actors' poise because "I'm used to actors (in school plays) stumbling over their lines."

In Christopher Fry's play "The Lady's Not for Burning", students found it difficult to identify with a leading character who had committed murder and was bent on arranging his own execution.

If the teachers and pupils involved in the program, the theater staff, the county schools office staff and the citizens find the program has been educationally worthwhile, it may possibly be continued through private financing after the federal monies end.

If not, it will have been "an interesting worthwhile experiment," in the words of director Turtle.

LIGHTS—ACTION — Festival Theater founder Elizabeth Berryhill (left above) gives a lessor in lighting techniques to David Brookman, senior and Bruce Kingsley (right) sophomore, both of Redwood High School. A summer apprentice program gives students such technical training. Festival Theater actors below (clockwise) Douglas Saxby and Carol Brumm rehearse a scene which Marjorie Casebier directs.

MAKEUP TECHNIQUES — "Is the beard real?" asks Carole Martin, freshman at Terra Linda High School, as Festival Theater's artistic director Robert Adler demonstrates makeup technique to Carol and Curtis Lee, a freshman at Drake High. Both students and Adler are active in the joint county schools—festival theater project for high school English and drama students. (Independent-Journal photos)

Cuba, Kremlin Sign Skimpy Trade Pact

MOSCOW (UPI)—Cuba and the Soviet Union, bitter ideological enemies, have signed a 1968 trade agreement providing for a scant 10 per cent increase in trade, it was announced today.

The increase contrasted with a 23 per cent boost in trade negotiated last year before relations deteriorated between the self-styled center of world communism and its only Communist protege in the Western Hemisphere.

Marin County Heart Association has Dr. David J. Constanza as president.

Merl D. Mauroni is president of Novato City Employees Association.

Sewage Fund Needs Put At $7.7 Million

An estimated $7,784,000 should be spent in Marin on constructing sewage facilities in the next five years if county waters are to be adequately protected for beneficial use, George B. Maul, chiarman of the state Water Resources Control Board said yesterday.

This figure is included in a report of sewage needs statewide which Maul is to submit to the legislature at its request.

Money necessary throughout the state in the next five years is estimated to total $1,123,000,000. Present federal grants amount to about 30 per cent of sewage projects with local agencies paying the rest.

The report also states local government is contending it is becoming more difficult to finance sewage projects because of increasing responsiblity in other areas.

Also a setback are limitations on bonding capacity, unfavorable bond markets and existing high property tax assessments, says the report.

Local government agencies have spent $1,641,000,000 statewide on sewage facilities since 1947, the report reveals.

Helicopter Site For Civic Center Is Given Backing

A helicopter site should be provided at the Marin County Civic Center, Marin Aviation commissioners agreed Wednesday night.

The commissioness, headed by Tris Coffin, asked the Marin County planning staff to make a study of the Civic Center grounds to see where the helicopter site should go.

The commissioners asked Ray W. Foreaker Jr. and Albert Solnit, chief of advance planning in the planning department, to start work on a county general plan for airports.

"Such a plan is required before we can get state assistance for future development of the existing county airport," said Forcaker.

Planning technician Raymond Smith reported that under a general plan for Richardson Bay, the existing heliport may be moved onto piers developed by private interests.

The commissioners said they prefer to see the heliport pad located on public land, not on private structures.

MOTION PICTURE GUIDE

Marin Motion Picture and Television Council provides these reviews and ratings of movies currently being shown in Marin County. The council findings are from California Parent-Teacher Magazine, the national P-TA Magazine and the "Film Report" of the Film Estimate Board of National Organizations. More complete reviews may be obtained by calling the San Rafael or Mill Valley libraries.

FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

"FANTASTIC VOYAGE" — "Extraordinary science fiction adventure film stands in a class by itself, both because of its plot and treatment, it is 1995 . ."

"JACK OF DIAMONDS" — "Socialite jewel thief embarks on theft of necklace from a heavily guarded Paris bank vault . . excitment in athletic prowess of agile young burglar. Excellent cast."

"MAGNIFICENT MEN IN THEIR FLYING MACHINES" — "Flying machines in 1910 vintage are the stars in this humorous farcical adventure comedy extravanganza."

"TAMING OF THE SHREW" — "Colorful version of Shakespeare's comedy with Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor . . 8-14 years if interested."

"THROUGHLY MODERN MILLIE" — "Julie Andrews, sparkling cast in infectious musical spoof. Styles, fads, foibles and naivities of 1920 take a ribbing."

ADULTS AND TEENS (14 years and up generally)

"DR. ZHIVAGO" — "Magnificent scenery and musical background . . story of Dr. Zhivago's life in Russia during the revolution."

"FIVE MILLION YEARS TO EARTH" — "Excavators from London Underground uncover missile . . huge insect-like creatures enclosed. There is much death and destruction before science finds a means of control. Good science fiction."

"PRESIDENTS ANALYST" —"President of U.S. employs a psychiatrist . . plot is developed as a biting satire which devastates the establishments of modern society . . . intriguing though controversial."

BORDERLINE (Most sources say adults only)

"BONNIE AND CLYDE" — "Young man teams with pretty waitress, one grand spree; they wantonly kill and rob . . . treating armed robbery and cold-blooded murder as comedy will offend many people . . . explicit sex and sadistic violence are revolting."

"NAKED RUNNER" — "American businessman is induced by British Intelligence to shoot and kill an English defector . . chases, kidnapping and harrowing escapes make a tense spy story, Frank Sinatra brings authority to the leading role."

ADULTS ONLY

"SMASHING TIME" — "Two "mod" girls from rural England go into swinging section of London for a holiday . . plot is used to tie together a series of situations which many will think in very bad taste . . dialogue is difficult to understand."

"STRANGER" — "Murder without apparent motive . . man is condemned, not for murder but because he is an atheist and did not love his mother . . excellent production."

"VIKING QUEEN" — "Early Britain under Roman domination is setting for pseudo-historical melodrama. Queen agreed to rule jointly with Roman, corrupt official opposed to union sets off a gory uprising. Bloodthirsty indulgence in flogging, torture and violence."

Teen-Age Band Battle Date Changed

The teen-age battle of the bands, originally scheduled for Saturday night at the Santa Venetia Armory, has been changed to April 6 at the armory, according to Robert Anderson, chairman of the event for the sponsoring Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Seven teen-age bands have thus far entered the contest which is limited to 10, Anderson said.

The winning band will get $100 and a chance to compete in the state championship in Garden Grove in May. Winner of the state title will compete in the national contest in Boston in July, he said. The second place band will get $50, he said.

Bands which have entered so far are Froatis Baggins, I. Defini, Crystal Subway, Nervous State and Blues Trayne, all of Novato, and Moving Violations and Standard Railroad Bean Bag from San Rafael.

Dancing will be permitted during the playing Anderson said.

Polish Shakespeare Scholar To Lecture

Polish scholar and author Jan Kott will speak on "Shakespeare" Tuesday at 8 p.m. at Guzman Hall on the Dominican College campus, San Rafael at a lecture sponsored by the Marin Shakespeare Festival and the college.

Kott, author of "Shakespeare —Our Contemporary," is in the area as a guest of the University of California.

Contract Is Awarded For New School

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District Wednesday night awarded the contract for construction of the new San Geronimo Valley School to E. H. Chapman Co. of San Rafael. Chapman bid $296,000 and was low bidder among four firms.

The new school will be constructed adjacent to the existing Lagunitas Elementary School, and will house about 190 children in the kindergarten through third grades. The other elementary grades will remain in the Lagunitas school.

Glen E. Twitchell, president of the school district board, said construction on the eight classroom school will be started in April and will be completed the latter part of September.

Total cost of the new school, including land purchase, is $500,000.

Five Bands Planning Wide Range Of Styles

An opportunity for Marin citizens to observe Marin County's instrumental music program and to assist a musical cause will be offered Sunday at 3 p.m. in the main gymnasium of San Rafael High School.

Five high school bands will each present a short program, covering a wide range in musical styles, including some original music for bands, some transcriptions and several Sousa marches. The program is called "The John Phillip Sousa Memorial Concert."

School bands participating will be San Rafael, Redwood, Drake, Tamalpais and Terra Linda. All proceeds are to be contributed by the five bands to a fund being raised by bands and their directors all over the country.

This money will be used along with matching federal funds for the stage of the concert hall of the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. The stage will be dedicated to the memory of Sousa when it is completed.

Wheels Stolen

All four wheels and tires were stolen from a car at DeLong Chevrolet, Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, by thieves who left the vehicle jacked up on oil drums, said police today. The loss was put at $325.

To Install Fire Detection Alarms

The Tamalpais Fire District board agreed last night to take an elementary precaution.

The district will install fire detection systems in both fire stations at a total cost of approximately $100.

Directors acted after hearing a report on the loss of many fire stations throughout the nation last year, four in New York City alone being destroyed by fire. In most cases the fire burned without detection until too late to save the building.

The board also set a preliminary work session for the 1968-69 budget for 8 p.m. April 2, at the Tamalpais Valley fire station.

Dixie Killing Jury Unable To Decide

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP) — The murder trial of Henry DeBoxtel, accused of the firebomb death of Negro leader Vernon F. Dahmer Sr., ended in a mistrial last night when a jury reported itself deadlocked 6-6.

"Do you think you all will stay that way if I leave you in there for a week?" asked State Circuit Court Judge Stanton Hall.

Each juror, in turn, including the one Negro on the panel of 12, nodded and said, "yes."

"I declare a mistrial," Judge Hall said, ending the four-day trial.

DeBoxtel sighed. His wife smiled. They met at a railing in the paneled courtroom and hugged and kissed. Their five children clamored for their father's attention.

Mrs. Cecil Victor Sessum, whose husband was convicted and sentenced to life in prison last week on a murder charge growing out of the firebomb attack on Dahmer's home in 1966, burst into tears.

Judge Hall ordered DeBoxtel back into custody and directed that he be taken to Jackson and the case continued until the May term of court.

DeBoxtel, 31, still faces a charge of arson in the case.

He was one of eight men charged with murder in the case. Five others are charged with arson alone. Last week, an all-white jury convicted Sessum. The remaining trials will be called for the term of court starting May 6.

Traffic Court Easing Sought

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Legislation to east court congestion by making minor violations of the vehicle code "infractions" instead of misdemeanors was introduced yesterday by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

The bill, requested by the State Judicial Council, would create the new category of offense, and would remove the defendants' rights in minor traffics offenses to have counsel or a jury trial. Serious traffic offenses would remain misdemeanors or felonies.

The only penalty that could be levied for conviction of an "infraction" would be a fine.

Veteran Property Tax Challenge Is Denied

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The California Supreme Court has refused to hear a taxpayer's suit challenging the method of determining veterans' property tax exemption.

The high court yesterday denied a hearing for a writ of mandate filed last week on behalf of two Monterey County taxpayers and "all other property taxpayers in the state."

The suit claimed administration of the exemption was "unfair and discriminatory" because it taxed real estate at assessed value, usually one fourth of market value, while taxing property such as stocks and bonds at full market value.

The suit, filed by attorneys Kenneth A. Ehrman and Sean Flavin, named the state Board of Equalization and Monterey County Assessor Donald P. Stewart.

Gary Grant Divorced But Wins Visits

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Cary Grant's wife was granted a divorce yesterday but the actor, whom she accused of taking LSD and beating her during drug-induced temper tantrums, was awarded 60 days a year visiting rights with their daughter.

The judge granted the divorce to actress Dyan Cannon, 30, although he described the graying, 64-year-old Grant as "a devoted father." In giving the movie idol generous visiting rights with his daughter, Jennifer, 2, Judge Robert A. Wenke said Grant no longer was using the drug LSD and the violence described in the sensational divorce trial was directed "only toward his wife."

A witness for Miss Cannon charged Grant had tried to cause his wife to have a nervous breakdown so he could mold her personality to his liking with drugs and therapy.

Miss Cannon was awarded alimony amounting to $57,000 during a three year period. She also will receive $2,000 a month child support and wages for a governess.

Grant was permitted to keep his daughter overnight "at reasonable times" and will share her with Miss Cannon on alternate holidays. A nurse or governess must be present during extended visits.

Dinner Is Set For Clay Barham

A fund-raising dinner for Clay Barham, candidate for the Republican nomination to the state Assembly, will be held at 7 p.m. March 29 at the Corinthian Yacht Club in Tiburon.

Harry E. Rice of Tiburon, co-chairman of the Barham for Assembly Committee, is handling reservations for the event.

Barham is opposing the incumbent, William T. Bagley, for the Republican nomination.

Nerve Gas Suspected As Sheep Killer

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Sen. Frank E. Moss has asked the Army for a full report on tests conducted at western Utah's top-secret Dugway proving grounds on the day before 6,000 sheep began dying on adjacent rangeland.

"What we rather suspect is they're using some exotic, even unnamed agents in the area and this has caused the deaths in the animals," the Utah Democrat said today in New Orleans. "If this is so, we ought to know about it so there won't be any danger for human lives as well as to eliminate further injury to the animals," he added.

The Army chemical and biological test area is located about 50 miles southwest of Salt Lake City.

Moss said the Army on March 13 conducted nerve gas tests at Dugway. Sheep were found dead the next day within 35 miles downwind from the tests.

State Agriculture Commissioner David R. Waldron said he and other representatives of state and federal agencies will meet today in emergency session with Gov. Calvin L. Rampton at the state Capitol.

Waldron is seeking help from federal officials in determining whether humans might be susceptible to whatever killed the sheep.

Waldron said that an unknown poison which affects the central nervous system apparently killed the animals, but it might be two weeks before laboratory tests could pinpoint a cause.

President of Marin County Board of Education is Mrs. Edith Kanoff.

Bogus Currency High In Bay Area

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Federal officials have reported a flood of altered and counterfeit money in the San Francisco Bay Area.

Special Agent Tom Hanson said yesterday altered currency increased nearly 100 per cent in the last three months, and counterfeit bills have increased about 40 per cent.

The greatest increase is in raised currency, $1 bills which have been altered to look like a $10 or $20. Corners from real bills are torn off and pasted on the $1 bills, Hanson said.

He warned merchants in the Bay Area to be on the alert for the phony money. "If the face on the bill is George Washington, it's worth $1," he said.

OUTING ON BAY

The Robbs Tour Tiburon

Capt. and Mrs. Charles Robb visited Marin briefly yesterday.

President Johnson's elder daughter, Lynda Bird, and her Marine husband had luncheon at the Windjammer restaurant in Tiburon as a highlight of a bay cruise aboard the motor yacht, Adventuress.

Dan London, owner of the yacht, which is the flagship of the Great Golden Fleet, and frequently used for hospitality to distinguished visitors, accompanied the couple, as did Cyril Magnin, San Francisco's official greeeter, and Magnin's daughter, Mrs. Walter Newman. A Coast Guard cutter followed the yacht.

TABLE ON DECK

The party of five shared a table outside on deck of the Tiburon waterfront restaurant. According to Secret Servicemen traveling with the couple, they preferred a quiet visit to the Bay Area. Although the Windjammer was busy with the luncheon trade on the pleasant spring day, the pair was left to enjoy their luncheon undisturbed.

The tranquil Marin excursion was in contrast to an incident in San Francisco earlier in the day, when Lynda Bird and Mrs. Newman were ordered off a Hyde Street cable car by the conductor, Machell Bell, for eating double-decker ice cream cones.

Bell, evidently anaware of the identity of his passengers, asked the two women to throw away their ice cream cones or get off. Lynda Bird declined to get rid of her butterscotch cone, and left the cable car at the next stop. The Magnin limousine picked up the women, and took them to the St. Francis Yacht Club, where they boarded the Adventuress and headed for Tiburon.

The Marine captain and his bride have been on a vacation trip which has included stops in Texas and Acapulco. They were to leave the Bay Area today for Camp Pendleton in San Diego County, where he will report for duty. He is expected to leave soon for Vietnam.

The strain of the farewell journey was expressed by Lynda Bird, who clung tightly to the arm of her husband as they walked along Tiburon's Main Street, and descended the long ramp to the dock where the yacht was waiting to take them back to San Francisco.

After a brief rest at their suite at the Huntington Hotel in San Francisco where they have been staying during their San Francisco visit, the newlyweds went on to a reception at the M. H. de Young Memorial Museum last night. They danced to the music of a lively band, and made two requests of the orchestra: "Two Sleepy People," and "Thoroughly Modern Milly." Magnin was host.

The couple greeted San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto, other civic dignitaries and Bay Area socialites in Hearst court at the museum.

Novato Post Office Move Hits Delay

Remodeling of the McAfee department store building in the Nave shopping center into a Post Office for Novato, has been delayed six weeks for approval of remodeling plans by the regional office of the Post Office in San Francisco, Novato Postmaster Harry Overly reported yesterday.

Originally the $125,000 remodeling job was scheduled to start about February, with the post office moving in about April 15.

"Now it will be the last of May or the first of June before the Post Office can occupy the space," Overly said.

Richard Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross is doing the remodeling.

The post office leased the building at $49,254 per year for 10 years, according to Raymond German of the regional estate office of the Post Office in San Francisco.

Bicycle Riding Request

The Tiburon Parks and Recreation Commission last night agreed to ask the State Division of Highways about the possibility of widening Tiburon Boulevard so that it would be safe for bicycle riding.

The widening was the suggestion of George T. Draper of 11 Main Street, Tiburon, who earlier this week described to the Sausalito City Council a plan for a network of bicycle paths extending from San Francisco to Mill Valley and Tiburon.

Draper told commissioners that he thought the highway between Tiburon and Trestle Glenn Drive would only need to be widened about 10 inches.

Commissioners also discussed with county senior planner Walter S. Horchler possible routes for trails on the Tiburon peninsula.

The commission unanimously endorsed a proposal by the Landmarks Society of Belvedere-Tiburon that three parcels of adjoining land on the hillside in back of old St. Hilary's Church be purchased the county as a "living memorial" to Caroline Livermore.

Also appearing before the commission last night was Mrs. Helen Newman of 841 Tiburon Boulevard, who said that she other residents of her neighborhood are opposed to any landscaping of Tiburon Boulevard that would cut off marine views.

Donald K. Loomis, new commissioner who replaced Joseph H. Bacheller III, who has been appointed to the Tiburon Planning Commission, was present for his first meeting.

Tot Is Treated

Fifteen-month-old Cynthia Freeman was treated at Marin General Hospital this morning after drinking half a cup of liquid bleach at her home. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Freeman of 8 Cole Drive, Marin City.

ABAG POSSIBILITY: RECOVERY AVENUES

Legal Aide Remains Vague On Solution Contained In Unreleased Audit Of Books

By PAUL E. PETERZELI.

BERKELEY — The Association of Bay Area Governments, scandalized last month by the theft of $511,000, has a "reasonably good" chance to recover much of the money, its special counsel said last night.

Berkeley attorney Arthur Harris was hired by ABAG's executive committee after the theft was discovered following the disappearance of the association's assistant director, Thomas N. Truax. He has been charged with taking the money over a 17-month period, but has not been found.

Harris, reporting before the executive committee at the Hotel Claremont, said a special audit of ABAG's books had been completed Wednesday, but persuaded the committee not to release it "because there are certain legal postures that we should not completely divulge."

Heeding his own warning, Harris remained vague in describing "the various avenues of recovery," but said he was "in contact with other parties." After the meeting, committee members said the "other parties" were banks and financial institutions involved in the complex theft.

The theft "could have occurred anywhere in local government," said Harris, "given a clever, dishonest but trusted employee like Truax."

San Leandro Mayor Jack D. Maltester, vice president of ABAG and chairman of its special committee investigating the future of ABAG in light of the theft, said the audit would remain secret "until Harris decides on legal suits which may be filed within the next few weeks."

Maltester and Harris assured the committee that cities and counties which are members of ABAG would have no "legal liability" for the missing funds, but Harris stressed the word "legal," apparently indicating ABAG's members might have a moral obligation to replace the funds.

The recovery, Harris cautioned, may take a long time.

Alameda County Supervisor Joseph P. Bort added that if recovery ends up in the courts, "it may be one or two years before we know where the liability lies."

The committee voted unanimously to accept Harris' report, and endorsed an agreement with the state Division of Highways to waive the one-year statute of limitations on the division's claim against ABAG. The agreement was necessary so the state will not seize new funds coming into ABAG's treasury, Maltester said.

The stolen money included $396,000 which was to have reimbursed the division for its payment of bills for the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission, which are channeled through ABAG.

The committee also asked Alameda County to be ABAG's fiscal agent for new federal funds.

The committee endorsed Marin County's application to the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development for grant to pay half the $220,000 cost estimated for flood control and drainage improvements on Meadow Way in Santa Venetia.

Irate Taxpayers Of Marin Hear Varying Reform Calls

Three speakers, two of them candidates for public office, issued varying calls for tax reform last night before the Irate Taxpayers of Marin.

Clay Barham of Novato, a Republican who seeks to oust Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, objected that Californians paid $32 billion in taxes out of $70 billion earned last year. He said $70 per family was being spent on law enforcement and $1,500 on welfare and education, and called that inequitable.

He said welfare and education should be supported by the state but controlled to a greater degree at the local level.

Rev. Samuel Banks, pastor of the Village Baptist Church in Marin City and a candidate for supervisor, supported reforms to help senior citizens. He said the elderly had been taxed all their lives but were receiving little help.

Banks criticized San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto's plan to tax commuters. He said Marinites had already paid two-thirds of the cost of the Golden Gate Bridge.

John Winters of Larkspur, a representative of United Organization Inc., a Southern California group advocating abolition of property taxes, also spoke at the Irate Taxpayers' meeting in the San Rafael courthouse.

He said the property tax should be abolished, except for payments on bonded indebtedness, and it should be the task of the Legislature to draw a substitute levy.

Life Sentence For An Inmate

San Quentin convict Daniel Smith was sentenced to life in prison, without possibility of parole for nine years, in Marin Superior Court today.

Smith, serving five years to life for robbery, was convicted by a jury March 7 of attacking a fellow prisoner with a sharp instrument.

He stabbed inmate Tommy Sumner several times in the face, arms, chest and back. Sumner survived.

APRIL 9 BALLOT

Planning Is Again Big Tiburon Issue

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

When Tiburon incorporated as Marin's 11th city four years ago, a principal argument for incorporation was that the community needed to control its own planning.

In the contest for the April 9 city council election in Tiburon, planning is again the principal issue.

NOT RUNNING

Neither of the two councilmen whose terms expire is seeking re-election. But two who were members of the original Tiburon City Council are seeking to return to it: Fred C. Hannahs and Anne L. Ellinwood.

The five-candidate field also includes Stephen H. Nash, former chairman of the planning commission; Fred Mantegani, who once headed a committee to disincorporate the city, and Denis T. Rice, president of Tiburon Ridge Property Owners Association.

All are talking about planning in general and about the Tiburon waterfront in particular.

Miss Ellinwood, who lives at 1810 Mountain View Drive, also is making issues out of the heavy expense of city officers and the propensity of the council to decide matters in secret.

NO DIRECTOR

Despite spending almost $50,000 in four years for planning consultants, Tiburon does not have its own planning director. It has instead, a "development administrator" at $10,260 per year.

Miss Ellinwood proposes that this job and the job of assistant city manager be abolished and a planning director be hired instead.

Hannahs, who makes his living from investments and who resides at 440 Ridge Road, did not often agree with Miss Ellinwood when both were on the council; but he agrees with the need for the city to have its own planner.

Hannahs is also critical of expenses of the administration, calling Tiburon "a paper city." At a candidates' forum Wednesday night, he asserted, "The city budget for stationery is probably twice what it is for parks and recreation."

Nash, a stock broker who lives at 90 Taylor Road, feels lack of communication between city council and administration and the people has become a critical issue.

WANTS LAND

Nash is strong for city purchase of waterfront lands — long discussed and subject of one of the several plans purchased from consultants. He feels a bond issue for the purchase should be proposed.

He also thinks the city should build a city hall — or "civic center complex" — rather than keeping its offices in rented quarters.

Rice, an attorney who lives at 117 Hacienda Drive, joins Hannahs and Miss Ellinwood in being critical of the administration, saying Tiburon "has to be run more tightly."

His concern with planning involves fear that tourists will take over Tiburon, changing the character of the community.

EXPENSE FOE

Mantegani is also critical of administrative expense and lack of planning, contending the city is not fulfilling the purposes of incorporation, which is why he headed the move to disincorporate.

Mantegani's public service has been on the boards of the Tiburon Fire District and Tiburon Sanitary District rather than on the city council. He is owner of the Corner Market in downtown Tiburon and lives at 879 Tiburon Boulevard.

LARGE FAMILY WILL LOVE THIS SPECTACULAR
We have a dream home in lovely Fairhills of San Rafael. Custom designed by Henry Hill, it features 5 bedrooms, and maid's quarters. As you would expect there are both a family room and a dining room. One outdoor area includes heated and filtered pool, cabana and large patio. The other outdoor area, off the children's wing of the house, is an enclosed play area. The screened-in lanai provides a lovely inside-outside area. The designer has used glass for maximum enjoyment of the view and to frame in the outdoors.

NEED a PLACE to HIDE?
Then come see this hide-away we're offering for the first time this weekend. Very close in location, but up among the trees with a delightful view. The house is older, but in fine condition, with a brown shingle exterior and the kind of charm that only an older house can have. Upstairs there's a nursery or den, and downstairs, there's a big bedroom — sitting room with its own full bath. Big living room with redwood paneling and large family kitchen. Wide sunny deck. $18,950.

A big country style kitchen with a Dutch door and Franklin stove will attract you immediately to this home nestled on the East side of Belvedere Island. A large living room with high beamed ceilings and a huge deck with a truly spectacular view will undoubtedly make it more appealing. A small bedroom or den upstairs is another plus. If you are less than delighted with the 3 rather small bedrooms downstairs we wish to point out that one of them can be expanded rather easily into a lovely master bedroom. The downstairs also has a huge deck and a charming garden extends to the street below. This is worth seeing at just $55,500.

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE
Loan No. 7504-7
Default No. 1649

On Friday, April 5, 1968, at the hour of 11:00 A.M. at the Fourth Street entrance of the County Courthouse, between A and Court Streets, San Rafael, California, GUARANTY SERVICE CORPORATION, a California corporation as trustee, will sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, the following described real property, lying being in the County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

PARCEL ONE:

LOT 24, as shown upon that certain map entitled, "MAP OF SLEEPY HOLLOW HEIGHTS, UNIT TWO IN THE COUNTY OF MARIN, CALIFORNIA," filed in the office of the County Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California, on March 22, 1957 in Book 9 of Maps at page 72, Marin County Records.

PARCEL TWO:

A NON-EXCLUSIVE EASEMENT for driveway purposes, for ingress and egress over a portion of Lots 23 and 24, map above referred to in PARCEL ONE above, said easement being a strip of land 11 feet in width, the center line of which is described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point on the Southwesterly line of Lot 23, map above referred to, distant thereon on a curve to the left, radius of 674.16 feet, a distance of 18.86 feet from the most Westerly corner thereof, running thence North 75° 35' East 30.55 feet, South 67° 25' East 46.57 feet, South 55° 02' East 93.83 feet and South 64° 32' East 28.83 feet to a point on the Northwesterly line of Lot 25, said point being distant thereon North 16° 48' 35" East 50.85 feet from the Westerly corner thereof.

EXCEPTING THEREFROM that portion lying within the lines of Lot 24, herein referred to.

THE ABOVE EASEMENT is for the use and benefit of Lots 23, 24 and 25 and that any future maintenance or repairs of said easement to be borne equally between the owners of Lots 23, 24 and 25.

Said sale will be made without warranty or covenant regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed by JOHN W. McDANIEL AND CAROL N. McDANIEL, his wife, as Trustors to PACIFIC COAST TITLE COMPANY OF MARIN, a California Corporation, as Trustee and NORTHWESTERN SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, a corporation, as Beneficiary, the beneficial interest under said deed of trust now being owned and held by said Association, and which said deed of trust is dated October 7, 1964 and was recorded on October 9, 1964, in the office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California in Book 1869 of Official Records, at page 261 Marin County Records.

Notice of default and election to sell the described real property under the above deed of trust was recorded on October 25, 1967 in the office of the County Recorder of Marin County California in Book 2167 of Official Records, at Page 225, Marin County Records.

GUARANTY SERVICE CORPORATION WAS substituted as Trustee by Substitution of Trustee dated September 29, 1967 and recorded on October 25, 1967, in the office of the County Recorder of Marin County, California, in Book 2167 of Official Records at Page 223, Marin County Records.

Escalle Station Plan On Agenda

Application by A. B. Copeland for architectural approval to reconstruct a recreation building on Escalle Station property, 771 Magnolia Avenue, will be considered at the 8 p.m. meeting Tuesday of the Larkspur Planning Commission.

Copeland also is seeking a variance to erect a 6-foot fence in front of the property. City officials said the fence and building are planned for use with proposed private swimming pool.

The commission also will consider a use permit application by the Soroptimist Club to construct a clubhouse on the northwest corner of Baltimore and Monte Vista Avenues. The area is zoned single family residential.

TV Station Purchase Is Historic One

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission narrowly approved yesterday the $1 million sale of a San Francisco television station to a firm which already owns four other television stations in some of the nation's largest metropolitan areas.

It was the first time the FCC had approved the sale of a television station under conditions which would have been forbidden under its so-called top-50 policy which the commission formally abandoned earlier this year.

In its latest action the commission approved the sale of KSAN-TV Channel 32, San Francisco, from S. H. Patterson to Metro Media, Inc., for $1 million. Metro Media now owns VHF television stations in New York, Los Angeles, Kansas City, and Washington.

The commission said there is a compelling public interest for approving the transaction.

Atomic Plant Embezzle Count

STANFORD (AP)—An Atomic Energy Commission employee has been charged with embezzlement at the Stanford Linear Accelerator.

Robert Bruce Moynaham, 26, was accused yesterday of making off with nearly $50,000 between October 1964, and last November.

His job at the accelerator was to buy supplies. The government charged that he filled out bogus receipts claiming he had picked up supplies when he had not.

UCLA Rated 7½ Points Better Than Houston

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Houston and UCLA battle tonight in college basketball's game of the year where one coach expects a high scoring showdown and the other looks for a defensive struggle.

The NCAA championship tournament semifinals brought the big rematch to the Los Angeles Sports Arena where North Carolina meets Ohio State in the opener.

"I think we'll have a higher scoring game then the first time we met," declared Coach Guy Lewis of Houston. "I don't think 71 points will win this one. The tempo will be faster and the shooting should be better."

SEASONS

Houston edged UCLA 71-69 in the Astrodome on Jan. 20 and went on to an undefeated season while the loss proved the only blemish on the Bruins' record.

Oddsmakers this time favor UCLA by 7½ points and Coach John Wooden said yesterday.

"We've been hoping for the opportunity to play them again. There is a basis of doubt in my mind that they are the better team based on that one game and the circumstances surrounding it."

He added, "It is unlikely for two teams as defensively sound and so capable on the boards to have a high scoring game."

In addition to matching teams rated No. 1 and No. 2 nationally the game continues the duel between All-Americans Elvin Hayes of Houston and Lew Alcindor of UCLA.

Game On Television

Tonight's UCLA-Houston game will be televised on Channel 2, beginning at 9 o'clock.

Hayes scored 39 points in Houston where 7-foot-1½ inch Alcindor tallied 15 while still suffering efefctes of an eye injury.

A year ago in the NCAA semifinals, UCLA whipped Houston and went on to win the title with Alcindor voted the tournament's outstanding player.

Houston has averaged 99.1 points in posting its 31-0 mark while UCLA stands 93.7 and 27-1.

North Carolina, paced by All-American Larry Miller, compiled a 27-3 record through the regional playoffs, ranked No. 4 nationally in the Associated Press poll and has been established the favorite over Ohio State by 5½ points.

STRONG

The Tar Heels face the task of countering the physical strength of the Buckeyes, who came on fast for a 20-7 record including victories in the Big Ten playoff and over Kentucky in the regionals.

"Ohio State has more weight than we do," said North Carolina Coach Dean Smith. "We have a little height on them. One main reason we're here is an outstanding defense in our last four games. We hope to represent the East better than we did last year."

North Carolina lost both games in the 1967 tournament.

Coach Fred Taylor of the Buckeyes counts on the leadership of Bill Hosket, the 6-7 sharpshooting senior.

"We had to win to stay alive in the Big Ten and our team proved it was competitive. But I was never exactly sure what we were going to do."

JIM GILMARTIN

It Was An Embarrassing Day For Britain's Best

COCKELL-DOODLE-DOO — The April 27 World Boxing Association heavyweight championship fight in Oakland between Jerome Quarry and James Ellis reminds me that Marin County figured prominently in a heavy title go a dozen years ago.

I refer to when Britain's Don Cockell trained at Bermuda Palms, San Rafael, for his abortive challenge of Rocky Marciano's title.

Now there was a mismatch. Poor Cockell couldn't carry Marciano's gloves and it was obvious in the training gym. He was just an overweight plodder, slow of foot and glove. In addition to his fistic ineptitude, Cockell was a sullen, colorless character. His reticence was deafening; interviewing him was like talking to a wall.

Promotional Gimmick Backfired

Because of this, promoters had one heckuva time selling the fight. They dreamed up all kinds of promotional gimmicks, one of which backfired on them.

I refer to their "Great Britain Day" at Bermuda Palms in honor of the great, flabby Briton. They packed the place with curious customers. Following a thrilling session of rope skipping and bag punching (wow!), Cockell was to spar three rounds with some ham'n'egger.

Well, here it was, "Great Britain Day" and what did Cockell do? Cockell got decked by his sparring partner, THAT'S what Cockell dood.

You can imagine the hush that fell over the audience, puctuated only by a few giggles as the blubbery Cockell struggled back to his feet, red of face.

No Question, It Was Knockdown

"Slips, slips!" cried a few publicity agents. But we all saw the punch. It was a legit knockdown.

In fact, guess who had a photographer at ringside to record the embarrassing event for the world to see?

Well, with such hot property I hustled our I-J photog back to the darkroom where he deveioped the most beautiful picture of Cockell's deck-bound annyfay, arms and legs flying.

Nervous publicity agents approached me and wept, "Now, that was just a slip, son. You wouldn't go and publish a silly picture like THAT, would you?"

Heh-heh-heh. I'm a dirty old man.

Anyway, the publicity men solved the problem rather neatly, if sneakily, I thought. A few days later at his Calistoga training camp, Marciano just happened to be decked by his sparring partner.

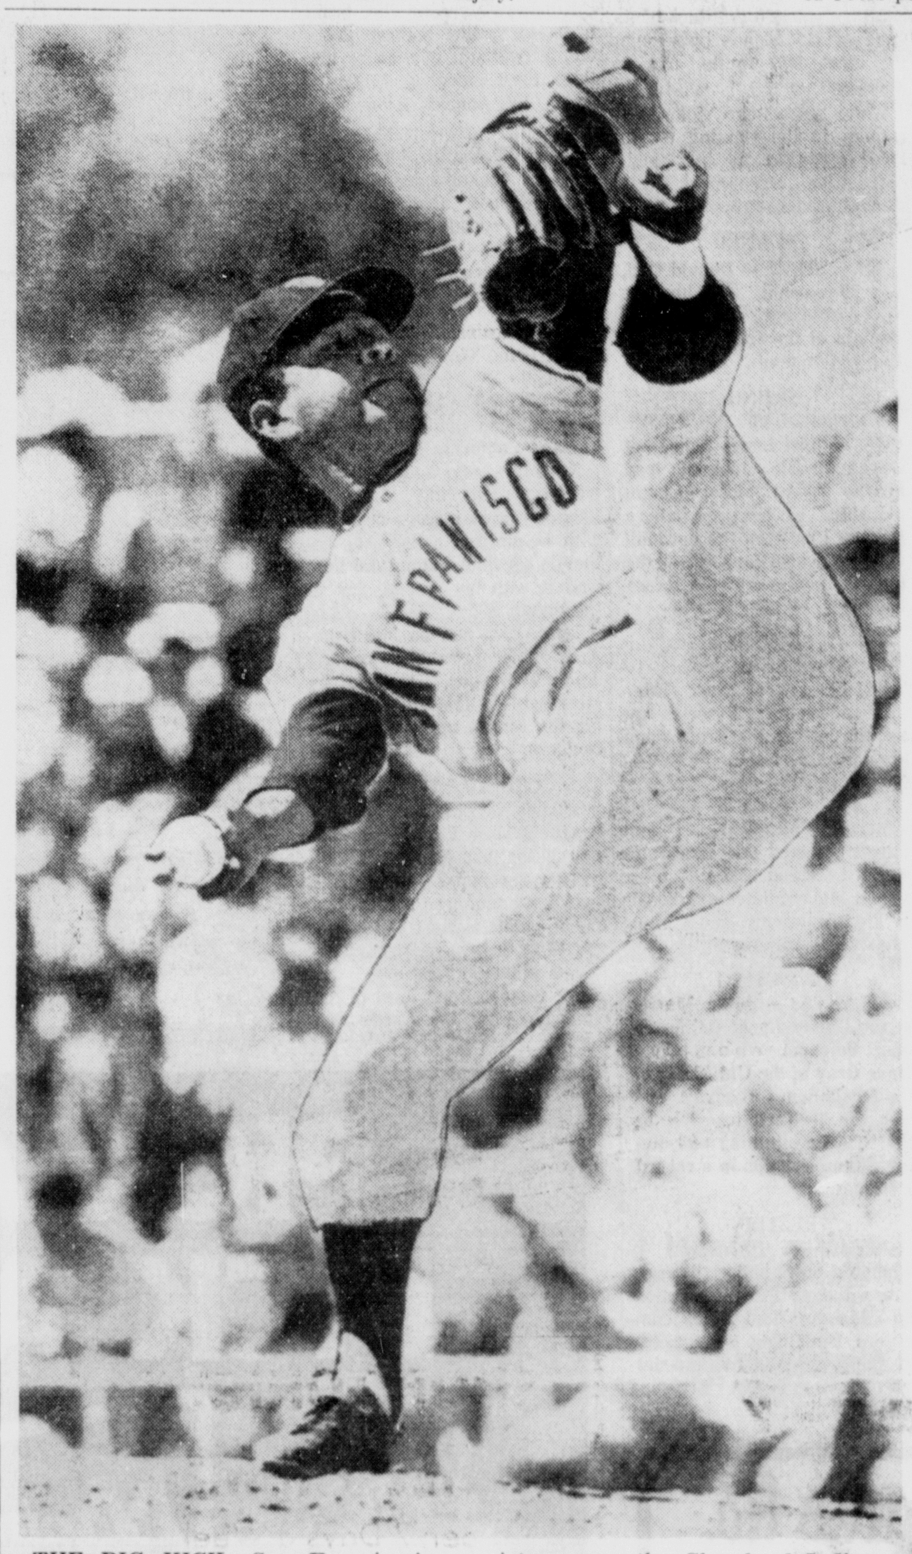
Marciano Evened The Score

But nobody yelled "slipsies." That sort of evened the score.

Marciano went on to demolish Cockell and the great Briton went back home to his rightful niche in obscurity.

BODY GUARD — Little Bill King of Sausalito and 6-foot, 11-inch Nate "The Great" Thurmond will share broadcasting (KNBR) chores for the Warriors' playoff games against St. Louis beginning tonight (6:05).

Last season, you may recall, the Warriors had to hire guards to protect players from hostile St. Louis fans. Now, with Thurmond's imposing figure at the broadcasting table near the bench, maybe those Missouri nuts won't be so feisty.



THE BIG KICK—San Francisco's ace righthander Juan Marichal was his old high-kicking self yesterday as he pitched the Giants to a 14-3 victory over the Cleveland Indians at Tucson, Ariz. Marichal went seven strong innings, allowing six hits. (AP Wirephoto)

Juan Mows Down Cleveland Indians

A 14-Run Uprising By S.F.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Juan Marichal pitched effectively for seven innings and said: "I feel good. I felt as if I could go nine before the season starts."

Marichal saw the Cleveland Indians' Lee Maye power one of his pitches out of the park in the sixth inning yesterday. But the Giants bombarded four Cleveland pitchers for 16 hits and a 14-3 victory in Tucson.

That put the Giants back on the plus side, 7-6, in the Cactus League and evened the Indians at 6-6.

McCORMICK TODAY

Manager Herman Franks sent Mike McCormick to the mound today against the Indians. He nominated Bob Bolin or Ron Herbel to open a three-game series against the California Angels at Palm Springs tomorrow.

Marichal gave six hits and no walks and struck out two. In 15 innings over 3 games, he has allowed 15 hits and 4 runs but only 3 earned.

His control was excellent and his curve was working well yesterday. Sports writers said they counted only 51 pitches in his seven innings, which is mighty few.

FINISHES

Pitching Coach Larry Jansen said he could have left the big righthander in the full game but wanted to give his relievers some work.

Lindy McDaniel pitched the final two innings and allowed a run on singles by Tony Horton, Leon Wagner and pinch hitter Willie Smith.

"I've been experimenting with a slow curve," Marichal said, "and working on offspeed pitches. I feel good.

"Last time, my fast ball was too grooved. Today I was able to move it around. I was trying to get my breaking slow pitch over the plate."

He's in top physical condition after coming to camp on schedule instead of barely in time to open the season, as he did last year.

Twelve Giants went to bat in their big eight-run fourth inning. Nate Oliver opened it with a single and came back with a triple before the third out.

Ramon Webster Earns A's Cheers

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP) — Sal Bando hit his seventh home run, but the Oakland Athletics' big cheer was for Ramon Webster, their versatile first baseman.

The left-handed batting native of Panama drove int he tying run in the seventh and the winner in the ninth as the A's defeated the Chicago White Sox yesterday 5-4.

Webster was off to a good start this spring, smashing a two-run home run against the Detroit Tigers in the Grapefruit League opener. He continued hitting well until he had a 5 for 15 record and a .333 average.

THEN 0-15

Then the 6-feet, 180-pound first baseman went 0 for 15.

What was wrong? he consulted Manager Bob Kennedy and Joe DiMaggio, erstwhile hitting star of the New York Yankees. "You're lunging at the ball," they suggested.

Webster quit lunging. Wednesday, he got three hits in five at bats as the A's defeated Cincinnati 6-2.

Yesterday he was 3 for 4 against the White Sox. In two games, he slashed his way back to 11 for 39 and a respectable .282.

In the seventh inning yesterday, he came to bat with Chicago leading 4-3, with Rick Monday and Bando on base and two out. His single tied the score.

In the ninth, Jack Fisher walked Monday and Bando. This time Webster doubled to score Monday with the victory. Jack Fisher, former San Francisco Giant, was on the mound both times against Webster.

Bando's home run came in the fourth with Webster on base.

Danny Cater homered for the A's in the second.

Starter John "Blue Moon" Odom pitched a homer to Cotton Nash in the second. Reliever Ken Sanders yielded two runs in the sixth.

Jose Ortiz' single scored pinch runner Sandy Alomar in the top of the seventh to set the stage for Webster.

The A's met the Phillies at Tampa today with Jim "Catfish" Hunter opposing Chris Short.

Tars Nine To Open GVC Slate

College of Marin Tars will go into their Golden Valley Conference baseball opener tomorrow at noon against College of the Redwoods at Kentfield with a 9-10 practice record after a one-hit shutout loss to the University of San Francisco frosh.

USF hurler Ray Copperman blanked the Tars on a variety of line drive catches while his teammates got four runs on six hits against loser Bill Cunningham, who struck out eight batters.

Pat Puccinelli got the Tars' only hit, a two-out single in the fourth inning.

Tom Shaw Very Happy Man At Pensacola Golf Tourney

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Affable Tom Shaw has a ready explanation for the jubilant antics on the golf course that make him a likeable rarity among the pro tour's deadpan chargers.

"I'm happy just to be alive," said Shaw, who was in a jarring freeway crash in California two years ago and suffered a broken back.

The 26-year-old teaching pro at a course in Golf, Ill., also was elated over his opening round in the Pensacola Open Tournament, a 63 which gave him a two-stroke lead going into today's renewal of the battle for the $16,000 winner's check.

"That was the best score I ever had," said Shaw, one of the unknown privates in the affluent army on the tour. Shaw's best finish since he turned pro five years ago was a tie for sixth.

Shaw tied for seventh at Phoenix, but his chances on the Pensacola Country Club course were considered so slim that "one of my friends was our only gallery when we started out."

Play Washed Out

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Heavy rain washed out the second round of the $80,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament today before any of the players completed their rounds.

As word spread of Shaw's hot round, the gallery grew to about 1,000, and Shaw waved and laughed with the crowd on the final holes.

Shaw started off with three straight birdies, chipped in from 20 feet for another, and bettered par on nine holes on the flat, 6,380 yard course which has a par of 72.

Shaw's score matched the best round turned in on the tour this year, but it was two strokes off the Pensacola Open record set by defending champion Gay Brewer with a 61 a year ago.

Brewer was tied for 75th as 92 players broke par. Dave Stockton, who has widened his stance "because I was falling off balance," and chunky Bob Murphy turned in 65s to share the runner-up slot behind Shaw.

Deadlocked at 66 were Ray Botts, Bobby Cole, Tony Jacklin, DeWitt Weaver, Rod Funseth, Dave Marr and George Archer. Gary Player opened with a 67, and Doug Sanders—still not making his usual spring surge—shot a 71.

San Rafael's Ron Cerrudo was right in the running with a 68.

Marin Lacrosse To Open Season

A combination of the Marin Lacrosse Club and the San Francisco Lacrosse Club whipped the touring University of Utah Lacrosse Club in San Francisco yesterday, 12-8.

Bucky Stevens of Sausalito had five assists for the winners. The Marin Lacrosse Club opens its regular season Sunday at the Golden Gate Polo Field at 2 p.m. against the San Francisco Lacrosse Club.

Warriors To Open Hawks Series; What A Difference Year Makes

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors, a ghost of the team they were this time a year ago, begin the National Basketball Association playoffs tonight against St. Louis with the sympathy of Nate Thurmond and Rick Barry.

For more moral support, they have the cable car bell of owner Franklin Mieulli. He brought it along to compete with the uproar that follows every St. Louis basket in Kiel Auditorium.

Thurmond, who with Barry helped the Warriors win the Western Division playoffs last year, will assist in the radio broadcast of the game back to the Bay Area.

Barry, who signed with the Oakland Oaks of the American Basketball Association, was the NBA's leading scorer last year. Thurmond, a 6-10 center, has missed the last half of the season with a knee injury.

During the regular season, the Warriors managed only one victory in eight tries against the Hawks. Thurmond played seven of the games.

San Francisco won 43 games this season and placed third behind St. Louis and Los Angeles in the Western Division. That total is only one less than last year when they took the division title. They went on to fall to Philadelphia on six games of the final playoffs.

The teams meet again in St. Louis tomorrow night and return to the Bay Area to play Tuesday night at the Cow Palace and Friday night at the Oakland Arena.

Los Angeles meets fourth-place Chicago in another best-of-seven series and the semifinal playoff winners then meet.

The Western Division playoff winner will meet the winner of the Eastern Division playoffs between Boston, Detroit, Philadelphia and New York.

The Warriors are expected to start a lineup of Jeff Mullins, Clyde Lee, Rudy LaRusso, Jim King and Al Attles.

Oaks Lucky, Season's Almost Over

DALLAS (AP) — It looks as if only the end of the season will halt the Oakland Oaks' losing streak.

The Oaks were handed their 16th straight American Basketball Association loss by Dallas 128-103 last night. They have one last chance to taste victory Sunday night at Anaheim.

The loss dropped the last-place Oaks two games behind Anaheim in the Western Division and clinched the cellar for the Oaks.

Kansas To Take On Dayton In NIT Final Cage Game

Notre Dame, St. Peter's Knocked Off

NEW YORK (AP) — "Height," said Kansas Coach Ted Owens gladly.

"Height," said St. Peter's Coach Don Kennedy sadly.

There was a little more to Kansas' 58-46 semifinal victory over St. Peter's in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament last night, but the Jayhawks' towering front line was the start of the cold-shooting Peacocks' trouble.

Kansas now moves into tomorrow afternoon's finals against Dayton, a 76-74 overtime victor over Notre Dame in yesterday's other semifinal. Don May, the Flyers' second-team All-American, scored 32 points in his team's triumph.

SIZE FACTOR

"I think size was the real important difference," said Owens after Kansas' uninspired victory. "Our ability to control the tempo of the game meant a lot.

"I didn't mean for us to stand around as much as we did," he went on, "but we kept them from using their fast break."

"They outrebounded us, outshot us and outplayed us," moaned Kennedy in the St. Peter's dressing room. "We played an uncertain game. We weren't as sure of ourselves as we should have been."

Neither, in fact, was Kansas, which measures 6-10, 6-6 and 6-5 in the frontcourt.

COLD SHOOTING

Although it led all the way, the team never seemed able to put the game out of reach until the final minutes. This despite the fact that St. Peter's shot a wretched 26.7 per cent from the floor.

"I personally felt we never did have any knockout punch," said Owens. "We never could put them away even though we got a lot of chances under the basket."

Rodger Bohensteil led the Jayhawks with 17 points while third-team All-American Jo Jo White, dribbling nicely through the Peacocks' press in the second half, had 16. Tom McMahon and Harry Laurie each had 13 for St. Peter's.

BASEBALL HIGHLIGHTS

Killing A Losing Streak

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Killer murdered Minnesota's exhibition baseball losing streak.

Harmon "Killer" Killebrew took personal charge of ending the seven-game string of losses yesterday when he hammered two home runs and led Minnesota to a 7-6 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Killebrew's second shot broke a 6-6 tie in the bottom of the eighth inning as the Twins won their third game in 12 spring starts. Los Angeles is 5-7.

In other games, St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 4-0, Atlanta shut out Philadelphia 7-0, Detroit stopped Cincinnati 3-0, Oakland edged the Chicago White Sox 5-4 and Washington nipped the New York Mets 2-1.

HOUSTON WINS

Also Houston hammered Boston 11-1, the New York Yankees edged the Mexico City Tigers 5-4, San Francisco battered Cleveland 14-3 and the Chicago Cubs blanked California 1-0.

Killebrew, who tied Carl Yastrzemski for the American League lead in homers last year with 44, cracked a three-run homer in the first inning and then won it with his second shot in the eighth.

Tony Oliva had an inside-the-park homer for the Twins and Zoilo Versalles, traded by Minnesota to Los Angeles during the winter, homered for the Dodgers.

CEPEDA AT .400

Orlando Cepeda, the National League's Most Valuable Player last season, had another big day for the Cardinals. The big first baseman hammered a home run and a double against Pittsburgh and lifted his spring average to .400 on 12 hits in 30 at bats.

Jim Bunning took most of the punishment as the Cards won their 10th game in 12 spring starts. Cepeda in his last six at bats has had a single, two doubles and two homers.

The Washington Senators maintained a perfect record against National League opponents, making the Mets their fifth straight victims. Sam Bowens homered for Washington and Ron Swoboda connected for New York.

PERFECT

Atlanta's Dick Kelley threw five perfect innings as the Braves battered Philadelphia. Two of the three Phillie hits came in the ninth inning against reliever Clay Carroll. Sonny Jackson drove in three runs with a pair of singles for the Braves.

The Cubs pushed across an unearned run in the fifth inning and shutout pitching by Rich Nye and Gary Ross protected it for the victory over California. Nye allowed just four hits in six innings and Ross gave two in the final three innings.

Jim Wynn, Hector Torres, and Ivan Murrell cracked home runs leading a 16-hit Houston attack that carried the Astros past Boston. It was Houston's sixth straight victory.

Earl Wilson, Mike Marshall and Les Cain combined on a three-hitter as Detroit shut out Cincinnati.

MARIN BOWLING

Quite A Week For Dan Burke

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Dan Burke of Novato is bowler of the week in Marin County after blasting a 714 series in the 900 Classic League and a 658 in the 905 Travel, both at Country Club Bowl.

Burke, carrying a hefty 195 average, is sales manager at Marin Bay Lincoln-Mercury in San Rafael. His big 714 series was made up of games of 258 and 228 twice. His 658 series was headed by a 256 game and helped by lines of 223 and 179.

It was a hot night in the 900 Classic Tuesday, with 12 other bowlers going over the 600 mark in addition to Burke. Among the big ones were Tom Amiral's 264—679, Lee Stetson's 256—670 and Leo "Leaper" Gorman's 268—669.

Franchini's led in team scores, posting games of 1,022, 1,027 and 996 for a 3,045 series. And Virg Dodson got one of those rare "Dutch 200s."

STRIKES TO SPARE — Dick and Shirley Larsen really believe in doing things in a family way. In the Mixed Mates League at Greenbrae Lanes Tuesday, Dick rolled his first game over 200, a 203, and his wife did the same thing, her first 200, right on the nose . . . Peggy Bermes rolled her first one in the Winter Wonders at Country Club, 213 . . . Ditto Carol Shimek, 201 in the Hits and Mrs. at Greenbrae . . . Evelyn Hogsed has her first series over 500, a 506 in the Daffodils at Country Club . . . Norma Pedroli's 575 series in the Classy Lassies League at Country Club Bowl, with games of 181-191-203, put her in the lead for the league's high series honors, both scratch and handicap; her average is 151.

DOWN THE LANES — Sixteen-year-old Rich Gobey, out of action the last six months with a broken leg, returned to the junior bowling scene at Country Club and fired a 198 . . . Fred Ness' 655 series at Nave Lanes was pushed to its heights by a 265 game . . . Barbara Bode's 569 at the Ignacio lanes was topped by a 231 game . . . Best individual game scores at Greenbrae for the week were Jack Lundahl's 246 and Marilyn Epidendio's 233 . . . Jacqui Dorsey, 12-year-older in the Preps division at Country Club Bowl, picked up the 4-6-7 split . . . West Coast Track Teams See Action

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Major track and field forces see actions on several fronts along the Pacific Coast tomorrow with the Easter Relays at Santa Barbara highlighting the action.

Southern California's defending national champions, UCLA, San Jose State and Stanford are among those at Santa Barbara.

Oregon, which won the Pacific 8 title a year ago, competes at Sacramento against the Athens Athletic Club team from Oakland, Santa Clara Valley Youth Village and Sacramento State.

Oregon State traveled out of the area to meet the University of Texas at El Paso.

California plays host to Nevada and San Diego State while the University of Washington holds its relays and Washington State competes in the Banana Belt Relays at Lewiston, Ida.

Northern schools generally are competing outdoors for the first time this season.

Oregon's debut at Sacramento will be watched closely as Coach Bill Bowerman again builds his power around the distance and middle distance events, although Bob Blum and Gary Knoke give the Webfoots strength in the hurdles.

A year ago, Oregon placed second to USC in the NCAA championships.

Six schools will compete in the University of Washington Relays with Portland State, Seattle Pacific, Central Washington, Whitworth and Western Washington joining the host school.

BRAKES

$39.50 most cars

- Arch shoes to fit drum
- Rebuild all cylinders
- Turn drums
- Add fluid, road test
- Free Brake adjustment

NOTE: Please shop for your complete price on these "come on" brake specials. Keep this fact in mind. There isn't one car in thirty that you can simply slap on new brake shoes, without turning drums—replacing seals and etc. So please be careful as it is common for that $20.00 brake special to wind up costing $60.00 or more. CAIN'S price is complete. Your invoice charge will be the price we advertise in the paper.

FRONT END ALIGNMENT

- Adjust camber caster. Toe in using shims as needed.
- Adjust steering column
- Lubricate parts as needed.

NOTE: Cain's averages an hour to an hour and 15 minutes on an alignment. In most cases for a car to be properly aligned it must be shimmed; shims when needed are always included in our price. The reason I'm going into this is, that recently a Tire Company store has moved into Marin County. They advertise a $5.95 alignment. People BEWARE, they can no more properly align a car for $5.95 than you can buy a pound of butter for 30 cents. The gimmick is that once they get your car in the air they scare the devil out of you and sell you a complete front end job, at list price or better. So beware— protect yourself and be certain to ask what your final bill is going to be! But better yet, come see us— we have no time for NONSENSE.

Santa Venetia Area Produces Striped Bass To 32 Pounds

STEVENS

Congratulations to angler Augie Frank for the nice 32¾-pound striped bass he landed out of Buck's Landing at Santa Venetia. Augie used ghost shrimp as bait.

Hazel Edding, who operates Buck's Landing, also reported a slow weekend because of wild wind and rough water. On Monday and Tuesday the water flattened and cleared to some extent and the score rose to respectful proportions. Hazel Edding reported "Mick" Locke and wife took limits of bass to 29 pounds.

The anglers who fished solely for flounders fared well; one party had 15 of the flatties.

DORIS MARSHALL of Lee Anderson's Boat, Bait and Tackle in Oakland reported two party boats featuring salmon trolling: The Miss Dragnet boated seven salmon and the Anna V. had six salmon for the six anglers aboard of Point Pedro.

Doris also mentioned the Duke No. 2 accounted for two sturgeon and two stripers.

THERE HAS been a rumor going around that a big school of herring has come from the sea to spawn. I was unable to verify the report. Those I contacted claimed they had seen no birds working nor anyone having netted the little fish. se your own judgement. It could be true because it is the right time of the year.

OF INTEREST to the upland game hunter is the following: The Department of Fish and Game said today that 80,000 yearling silver salmon have been planted in the Gualala and Navarro rivers in Mendocino County; 40,000 were released into each river last week and in the same release, interesting hunters mainly, was the following: Approximately 900 exotic game birds from Europe and Africa were released this week by the DFG in three central coast area counties. The release are part of a continuing program to develop new game bird population in California areas.

LARGEST OF the release took place in northern San Luis Obispo County where wildlife biologists turned some 500 Barbary partridges loose. The Barbary partridges are native of northern Africa where they are found in mountainous terrain up to 12,000 feet. They prefer rocky hills with low bushes near grain fields. The above birds combined with Spanish red-legged partridges should furnish the upland game hunter with additional sport.

Baseball Clinic Set Tomorrow In San Rafael

Former Chicago Cub and present New York Yankee holdout John Boccabella of San Anselmo will be the first speaker at the Atlanta Braves' Baseball Clinic tomorrow morning at Albert Field, San Rafael.

The clinic is the first of three the Braves will be presenting. It will be for coaches and managers only. The following clinics will be for the players. All Little, Pony, and Babe Ruth league coaches in Marin County are invited to attend.

Boccabella will lead off the clinic at 9:35 a.m. with an address on hitting.

Scouts present will include Dick Murray, former coach at Sacred Heart High in San Francisco and now Los Angeles Dodgers birddog; Jim Davis, former Cub and present Philadelphia Phillies scout; Miles McAfee, former Pirate and now a Pittsburgh Pirate scout, and Charles Silvera, ex-Yankee who is now a Washington Senators scout.

Atlanta scout Joe Anselmo is in charge of the clinic.

Here's A Vote For LewCLA

By KIMO CAMPBELL

Where do you go after you've been Number One? You go to Los Angeles and be an underdog.

This is the paradoxical situation in which Houston's unbeaten and number-one ranked Cougars find themselves tonight. Although they have ripped through all opposition in racking up a 321 game winning streak, they are an eight-point underdog to UCLA's Bruins in NCAA semi-finals at the Los Angeles Sports Arena. (TV, Channel 2, 9 o'clock).

While Houston and UCLA fight their "battle of the century" for Western supremacy, North Carolina and Ohio State face off for the dubious honor of meeting the Cougar-Bruin winner in the finals Saturday night.

Having seen three of the finalists this season, I have to go with UCLA. Ohio State is a good college team, North Carolina a very good one, and Houston indisputably a great one. But UCLA has more ability than any of them.

THE IMPOSSIBLE

When Houston did the impossible in January, upsetting UCLA 71-69 in the Astrodome, the Bruins' 7-foot wonder, Lew Alcindor, was cruelly handicapped by an eye injury suffered in the California game a week earlier. With good eyes, more practice time, and a revenge motive, Big Lew will be much more impressive than he was in the Astrodome.

In addition, Alcindor may move out more to stop Houston's marvelous Elvin Hayes, the Player of the Year. Hayes had 39 points in the last game, but if Lew comes after him, he'll have trouble repeating that production.

More important than the face-off between the big men, which might well end in a standoff, is the fact that UCLA simply has more and better players to aid Lew than Houston does to complement the "Big E."

Lucius Allen and Mike Warren are superb guards and Lynn Schackleford a deadly left-handed jumpshooter at forward, while Mike Lynn (6-7) adds muscle in the other corner. With 6-7 Jim Nielsen and 6-3 Kenney Heitz, who is excellent at feeding Lew in the high post, UCLA enjoys far better depth than Houston's Guy Lewis can count on.

Houston has a fine guard in 6-5 Don Chaney, whose huge arms make him an awesome defensive player. But George Reynolds, a California junior college transfer who was instrumental in the Astrodome victory, is ineligible for the NCAA, which will cripple the Cougars on defense and on feeding Elvin, which is their best offense.

Without Reynolds, UCLA will have less trouble with the Cougar press and more success with its own famous zone press, although the Houston height usually makes a press costly. Vern Lewis, the coach's son, is 5-11, not tall enough or fast enough to make up for Reynolds' loss.

UCLA GUN-SHY

The one edge Houston has is Hayes and the fact the UCLA is a little gun-shy when it comes to muscling under the basket. But the Bruins should be mad for a change. If Lew is mad and can get the ball, Houston center Ken Spain (6-9) is in for a long night.

Ohio State is a pretty good team, but not a finalist-type club. The Buckeyes have a rough, tall front line, led by 6-7 Bill Hosket, but are inferior to all the other teams in backcourt. They should lose both nights.

North Carolina is trying not to look ahead to the finals, since that attitude got the Tarheels upset by Dayton last year, but they should handle Ohio fairly easily. The Tarheels have a brilliant sophomore in Charlie Scott, an All-America in 6-4 larry Miller, and a 6-11 center in Rusty Clark. A better team than many NCAA winners of the past, but they can only hope to make it interesting in the finals. They could win. But more likely, the real finals will be tonight. My pick? Close, and too bad for Hayes, who has the personality and ability of the great ones, but it's LewCLA all the way.

Six Marin Duos In State Tennis Action Tomorrow

Six Marin County pairs will compete in the California Family Doubles Championships at Belvedere Tennis Club tomorrow.

In the quarterfinals at 9:30 a.m., Natalie and Mike Machette of Belvedere will compete in the Mother-Son division, while Bill and Alannah Kinser of Tiburon will play in the Brother-Sister division. In the other Brother-Sister quarterfinal, John and Mary Hoefer of Belvedere will play at 10:30 a.m.

In the first semi-final match, at 10:30 a.m. Belvedere's Chuck and Darby Auerbach will enter the Father-Daughter competition. In the Mother-Son semis, at noon, Ruth and Dick Knight of Tiburon will play. Chuck Auerbach and Jean Arnone of Belvedere and San Rafael, respectively, will play in the Brother-Sister semis at 1:30 p.m.

Finals are scheduled Sunday.

THE WEEK IN BUSINESS

Steam Powered Outboard, Golf Cart May Be Produced Soon

Ford Motor Co. and Thermo Electron Corp. of Waltham, Mass. have entered into an agreement for joint development of a small steam engine.

The project will be aimed initially at the small motive power category. Engines of this type could be used as outboard motors and for golf carts. The joint program will supplement Thermo's current effort to develop a series of silent, multi-fuel steam engine-generator sets for the Army and is in line with Ford's exploration of all possible sources of energy and power.

Part of the agreement is a royalty license to Ford covering car, truck and certain tractor applications.

MONTGOMERY WARD has announced earnings of $17.4 million for the fiscal year ended Jan. 31, as compared to $16.5 for fiscal 1966. Per share earnings of $1.31 were 5.5 per cent higher than last year. Total sales of $1,879 million compared with $1,849 in 1966.

ALLIED EQUITIES CORP., San Francisco, merger discussions with Union Financial Corp., Cleveland, have been suspended until an assessment of market conditions can be made.

NATIONAL STEEL CORP. earnings in 1967 totaled $69.5 million, compared with the previous year's $71.8 million. Per share earnings were $4.40, compared with a 1966 figure of $4.55. The 1967 performance reflected a 6.8 per cent return on net sales, the same percentage as achieved in 1966.

THE COSMODYNE CORP., Torrance, has completed its acquisitions of Airline Welding and Engineering, Inc. and Pyronetics, Inc. Terms of both acquistions call for an exchange of an undisclosed amount of Cosmodyne stock.

DOW CHEMICAL CO. sales last year totaled $1,382.7 million, up 5.6 per cent from the previous year. Net earnings were $130.9 million, or $4.36 per share, up 7.5 per cent from the previous year. The company spent $192.3 million for plant expansions in 1967 and plans to spend $241.5 million for expansions in 1968. A number of these projects are scheduled for the company's western plants.

POTLATCH FORESTS, INC., San Francisco, has signed a "partnership" agreement with Western Samoa for the sustained-yield harvesting and processing of the South Pacific island nation's exotic rain-forest timber. Potlatch expects to invest $3 million within the next two years in a sawmill and veneer slicing plant, along with roads and other support facilities, which will provide an annual harvest of 15 million board feet of lumber or more. Within the following three years the company expects to double its investment to $6 million and ultimately to more than triple the timber processing capacity. Eventually it is estimated that the dollars pumped into the Samoan economy will exceed $3.5 million annually—aside from Potlatch's investment.

TRAILMOBILE, a leading builder of truck-trailers and cargo containers, has a new president in George L. Green, who is also president of Pullman-Standard, builder of railway cars, and executive vice president of Pullman, Inc.

BANK OF AMERICA expects to open four new Latin American branches in the next six weeks, beginning with a new office today in Concepcion, Chile. Other will be located in Honduras, Guatemala and Argentina.

SFO HELICOPTER AIRLINES passenger traffic in February increased 23 per cent over the same month a year ago as a result of the downtown San Francisco service.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Some Mexican Holdings Yield 9 Per Cent Return

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Now I'm free-lancing on three books and living on a tiny Social Security income while doing so. I'd like to move to Mexico, to the charming town of Morelia. I've heard that Mexican Telephone (owned by the government) is a good investment, and it pays nearly 9 per cent. Do you recommend it? Down there I could buy a bit at a time with book royalties. — H.Y.

A. My records do not indicate that Mexican Telephone stock is guaranteed by the government, but I do know that it serves practically the entire republic. The only risk you appear to run is currency devaluation, but I think that this can be discounted, since the Mexican peso is very stable. In your circumstances, I would be inclined to do just what you plan. You might like to know that National Financiera, which is an instrumentality of the government, also sells to yield 9 per cent.

Q. I own 200 Southern Natural Gas and 100 Heinz shares. Do you think I should hold or invest in other stocks? — M.R.

A. It's a little difficult to answer your question since I have no information regarding your objective. If you are aiming for reasonably steady growth and a yield above 3 per cent, I see no reason for you to sell your shares.

Like many food stocks, Heinz has shown fairly wide variations in market price.

Southern Natural Gas has had a steadier and more consistent record in this regard. The company is presently negotiating a deal with Boise Cascade which should help both companies from a long range viewpoint.

Your two stocks sell at very resaonable multiples, and I see no need for you to dispose of them.

A good stock should always be retained if earnings and dividends show a reasonably consistent upward trend.

Deer Foiled

VIENNA (AP) — Strips of metal foil attached to roadside trees keep deer from crossing roads at night and resulted in fewer cases of motorists colliding with them, the Hunters Association said.

Stocks In Some Gains At Closing

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market losses outnumbered gains at the close today but selective improvement among blue chips and glamour stocks reduced the early decline. Trading was fairly active.

A lively but short-lived rally was sparked by news that the United States was in touch with the Swiss government on the question of Vietnam peace talks. The ticker was late amid considerable buying and short covering.

The enthusiasm passed quickly, and stocks relapsed for a while, then improved somewhat.

Here was the picture near the close:

Volume for the first four hours was 7.66 million shares compared with 6.11 million yesterday.

Computer and other high flyers surged ahead on news the United States was in touch with the Swiss government on the question of peace talks with Vietnam. Brokers said, however, that much of the rally was due to covering by nervous short sellers who bought stock to repay borrowed shares they had sold in hope of a decline.

The latest report on peace talks apparently didn't carry much more weight with investors than some transitory stories of like nature in the past, brokers said.

In late dealings, IBM still held a gain of 5, Xerox about 2, and Polaroid more than a point.

Occidental Petroleum paced the list on activity and eased. Scientific Data was ahead about 2, and Great Western Financial about a point.

Disney, Boeing and Hecla Mining were down about 2 points. Schenley and McDonnel Douglas about 1½ each.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Child Care Deduction Allowed For Single, Working Parents

Wikel

You can deduct up to $600 for the care of your child, or $900 for two or more children if it is necessary to enable you to work.

You can deduct this only if it is for the care of your child or stepchild under 13 years of age; or for the care of any other dependent for whom you are entitled to an exemption who is mentally or physically incapable of caring for himself.

The expense must be paid and it cannot be paid to an individual for whom you claim a dependency exemption.

You can only make this deduction provided the cost is for you to earn a living or to enable you to look for work.

If you work only part of the day and pay for child care for all the day, you can deduct only the part that corresponds to the time you were working.

If the person you pay does work other than child care, such as house cleaning, the deduction is allowed only for the child care part.

The deduction is allowed to women and to widowers. Widowers include men who are divorced or legally separated and have not remarried.

It is also allowed to husbands of incapacitated or institutionalized wives while the wife is disabled. This deduction is allowed only if the wife is mentally or physically incapacitated or institutionalized for a period of 90 consecutive days unless the period is terminated by her death.

A married man and woman can deduct their child care expenses only if they file a joint return and together earn less than $6,000 per year. If they earn over $6,000 per year, the deduction is reduced by the amount earned over the $6,000.

This does not apply if the taxpayer's husband or wife is incapable of self-support because he or she is mentally or physically defective.

If you qualify, then get Form 2441 and complete it fully. Attach this form 2441 to your tax return and claim the deduction on page 2 part IV, Miscellaneous Deductions.

Offshore Oil Find Reported

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Union Oil Co. of California reports it has struck oil on leased federal offshore property in the Pacific Ocean in the Santa Barbara Channel.

The company, announcing yesterday the find as a "major oil discovery," said it was the first well drilled on a lease recently acquired in the federal sale involving the channel area.

The well, five miles off shore, was drilled through 3,775 feet of earth. It is producing 1,800 barrels per day of crude oil, the company said.

The firm has ordered two drilling platforms to use on the well. Union operates for itself and for Gulf Oil Corp., Mobil Oil Corp. and Texaco Inc.
